About Janet Yieh

An innovative concert recitalist and sacred music specialist, Janet Yieh has been lauded for her “expressivity and technical prowess” (The American Organist). Janet is Director of Music at Church of the Heavenly Rest on the Upper East Side in New York City, where she oversees a vibrant music program for all ages and plays the 138-rank Austin Organ. She previously served as Associate Organist at Trinity Church Wall Street and Director of the St. Paul’s Chapel Choir for seven years.

Janet has performed throughout the United States and across the globe. Highlights include New York’s Alice Tully Hall at Lincoln Center and The Metropolitan Museum, Washington’s National Cathedral, San Francisco’s Grace

Cathedral, Yale University’s Woolsey Hall, American Guild of Organists’ 2022 National Convention, Taipei, Hong Kong, Japan, and Malaysia, collaboration with the Paul Winter Consort, Washington Chorus at The Kennedy Center, NOVUS NY orchestra at Carnegie Hall, national radio show Pipedreams, and WQXR-FM.

In 2020, Janet co-founded the platform Amplify Female Composers with Carolyn Craig, and she contributes research to an international sacred music database called A Great Host of Women Composers. Janet has taught for the St. Thomas Fifth Avenue Girl Chorister Course and played as a staff organist for RSCM America choir courses. She holds degrees in organ performance from the Yale School of Music, Institute of Sacred Music, and The Juilliard School. A native of Alexandria, Virginia, Janet’s former teachers include Thomas Murray, Paul Jacobs, John Walker, Wayne Earnest, Victoria Shields, and Ruei-hwa Shyu.
