All Saints' Day

Welcome to Trinity Church

We're an Episcopal parish where all are invited to participate in the life of our community. Worship is at the heart of everything we do. It opens us to the wondrous reality of our loving God, gathering and focusing us on what matters.

Together we put our faith into practice. In our homes, at work and school, and in all our civic endeavors, we follow Jesus by serving our neighbors. We believe church at its best is an expression of God's justice-oriented love in the world.

We're glad you're here and hope you will encounter and be transformed by the presence of God in Jesus Christ. Take part in a way that's comfortable for you. If you're new to Trinity, please introduce yourself to a member of the clergy. And everyone is warmly invited to coffee hour in Parish Hall following the service — an usher will show you the way.

ABOUT THIS SERVICE

Allhallowtide

Although in the New Testament “saints” refers to all Christians, the Church soon gave special honor to the heroes of the faith, especially martyrs. The commemoration of The Feast of the Martyrs of the Whole World seems to have been observed in association with Pentecost from the fourth century. The extension of the feast to include All the Saints and its observance on November 1 emerged in the eighth century. Among the seven principal feasts of The Episcopal Church, it is the only one that may be observed both on its fixed date and on the Sunday immediately following.

All Saints' Day is also one of four holy days denoted as especially appropriate for baptisms, along with The Baptism of Our Lord, Easter Vigil, and Pentecost; on this day we join with those who were baptized at the 9am service and renew our baptismal vows.

The annual triduum of All Hallows' Eve, All Saints' Day, and All Faithful Departed reminds us of our communion with all the saints and faithful witnesses who have gone before us, known and unknown.

Baptismal Acclamation

BCP p. 299

- Celebrant* Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
People And blessed be God's kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.
- Celebrant* There is one Body and one Spirit;
People There is one hope in God's call to us;
- Celebrant* One Lord, one Faith, one Baptism;
People One God and Father of all.

The Collect of the Day

BCP p. 245

- Celebrant* God be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Let us pray.

Almighty God, you have knit together your elect in one communion and fellowship in the mystical body of your Son Christ our Lord: Give us grace so to follow your blessed saints in all virtuous and godly living, that we may come to those ineffable joys that you have prepared for those who truly love you; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, one God, in glory everlasting.

All Amen.

Please be seated.

The Word of God

The First Reading

Isaiah 25:6-9

Reader A Reading from the Book of Isaiah.

On this mountain the LORD of hosts will make for all peoples a feast of rich food, a feast of well-aged wines, of rich food filled with marrow, of well-aged wines strained clear. And he will destroy on this mountain the shroud that is cast over all peoples, the sheet that is spread over all nations; he will swallow up death forever. Then the Lord GOD will wipe away the tears from all faces, and the disgrace of his people he will take away from all the earth, for the LORD has spoken. It will be said on that day, Lo, this is our God; we have waited for him, so that he might save us. This is the LORD for whom we have waited; let us be glad and rejoice in his salvation.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People Thanks be to God.

The Psalm

Psalm 24

BCP p. 613

- Leader* The earth is the LORD's and all that is in it, *
the world and all who dwell therein.
- People* For it is he who founded it upon the seas * and made it firm upon the rivers of the deep.
- Leader* "Who can ascend the hill of the LORD? *
and who can stand in his holy place?"
- People* "Those who have clean hands and a pure heart, *
who have not pledged themselves to falsehood,
nor sworn by what is a fraud.
- Leader* They shall receive a blessing from the LORD * and a just reward from the God of their salvation."
- People* Such is the generation of those who seek him, *
of those who seek your face, O God of Jacob.
- Leader* Lift up your heads, O gates;
lift them high, O everlasting doors; *
and the King of glory shall come in.
- People* "Who is this King of glory?" ***
"The LORD, strong and mighty,
the LORD, mighty in battle."
- Leader* Lift up your heads, O gates;
lift them high, O everlasting doors; *
and the King of glory shall come in.
- People* "Who is he, this King of glory?" ***
"The LORD of hosts,
he is the King of glory."

The Second Reading

Revelation 21:1-6a

Reader A Reading from the Revelation to John.

I saw a new heaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea was no more. And I saw the holy city, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying,

“See, the home of God is among mortals.
He will dwell with them as their God;
they will be his peoples,
and God himself will be with them;
he will wipe every tear from their eyes.
Death will be no more;
mourning and crying and pain will be no more,
for the first things have passed away.”

And the one who was seated on the throne said, “See, I am making all things new.” Also he said, “Write this, for these words are trustworthy and true.” Then he said to me, “It is done! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end.”

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

People Thanks be to God.

The Holy Gospel

John 11:32–44

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Deacon When Mary came where Jesus was and saw him, she knelt at his feet and said to him, “Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died.” When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who came with her also weeping, he was greatly disturbed in spirit and deeply moved. He said, “Where have you laid him?” They said to him, “Lord, come and see.” Jesus began to weep. So the Jews said, “See how he loved him!” But some of them said, “Could not he who opened the eyes of the blind man have kept this man from dying?”

Then Jesus, again greatly disturbed, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone was lying against it. Jesus said, “Take away the stone.” Martha, the sister of the dead man, said to him, “Lord, already there is a stench because he has been dead four days.” Jesus said to her, “Did I not tell you that if you believed, you would see the glory of God?” So they took away the stone. And Jesus looked upward and said, “Father, I thank you for having heard me. I knew that you always hear me, but I have said this for the sake of the crowd standing here, so that they may believe that you sent me.” When he had said this, he cried with a loud voice, “Lazarus, come out!” The dead man came out, his hands and feet bound with strips of cloth, and his face wrapped in a cloth. Jesus said to them, “Unbind him, and let him go.”

The Renewal of Baptismal Vows

BCP p. 292*

Please stand.

Celebrant Through the Paschal mystery, dear friends, we are buried with Christ by Baptism into his death, and raised with him to newness of life. I call upon you, therefore, to join with those being baptized on this day and renew the solemn promises and vows of Holy Baptism.

Do you reaffirm your renunciation of evil and renew your commitment to Jesus Christ?

People I do.

Celebrant Do you believe in God the Father?

People I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

Celebrant Do you believe in Jesus Christ, the Son of God?
People I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord.
He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary.
He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried.
He descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again.
He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again to judge the living and the dead.

Celebrant Do you believe in God the Holy Spirit?
People I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting.

Celebrant Will you continue in the apostles' teaching and fellowship, in the breaking of bread, and in the prayers?
People I will, with God's help.

Celebrant Will you persevere in resisting evil, and, whenever you fall into sin, repent and return to the Lord?
People I will, with God's help.

Celebrant Will you proclaim by word and example the Good News of God in Christ?
People I will, with God's help.

Celebrant Will you seek and serve Christ in all persons, loving your neighbor as yourself?
People I will, with God's help.

Celebrant Will you strive for justice and peace among all people, and respect the dignity of every human being?
People I will, with God's help.

Celebrant May Almighty God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has given us a new birth by water and the Holy Spirit, and bestowed upon us the forgiveness of sins, keep us in eternal life by his grace, in Christ Jesus our Lord.
All Amen.

Enrolling Candidates for Confirmation

BOS 2018 p. 150*

Please be seated.

Celebrant Will the catechumens please come forward?

Sponsor I present to you who are baptized members of the Body of Christ. They desire to undertake a process of preparation to renew their Baptismal Covenant.

The Celebrant addresses the Candidates.

Celebrant What do you seek?

Candidates Deeper life in Christ.

Celebrant Jesus said, "The first commandment is this: Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God is the only Lord. Love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your strength. The second is this: Love your neighbor as yourself. There is no commandment greater than these." Do you accept these commandments?

Candidates I do.

Celebrant Will you be regular in attending the worship of God and in receiving instruction?

Candidates I will, with God's help.

Celebrant Will you open your ears to hear the Word of God, and your heart and mind to receive the Lord Jesus?

Candidates I will, with God's help.

Celebrant In baptism you renounced evil and all its works, and promised to serve God faithfully as the Body of Christ. Will you study the promises made at your baptism, and strive to keep them in the companionship of this community?

Candidates I will, with God's help.

Celebrant Will you join us in our life of service to those who are powerless and outcast, and work for justice and peace?

Candidates I will, with God's help.

The Celebrant addresses the Sponsor.

Celebrant You have been chosen by this community to serve as a companion to these persons. Will you support them by prayer and example and help them to grow in the knowledge and love of God?

Sponsor I will, with God's help.

The Candidates sign their names in the Register of Confirmands.

Please stand.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Lord Jesus Christ, loving Redeemer of all, we pray to you for these catechumens who seek to serve you more fully. Send your light into their hearts. Give them a love of your commandments. Strengthen them with the courage to live always by your Gospel. In your mercy preserve them in their resolve to seek your peace, your kingdom, and your righteousness, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

Celebrant May Almighty God, our heavenly Father, who has put the desire into your hearts to seek the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, grant you the power of the Holy Spirit to persevere in this intention and to grow in faith and understanding.

All Amen.

The Offertory

“For all things come from you, and of your own have we given you.” —1 Chronicles 29:14

Offerings at Trinity are applied to the care of our neighbors; particularly to our food assistance ministries Compassion Meals and Compassion Market, and in support of other food banks across lower Manhattan. Last year we were able to provide more than 2.4 million meals for our food insecure neighbors. (TrinityChurchNYC.org/social-justice/food-assistance)

Please place your gift in the basket at the rear of the nave before or after the service, or visit TrinityChurchNYC.org/donate for additional ways to give. Gifts received are blessed immediately after the service with this prayer: Generous God, at your table we present this money, symbol of the work you have given us to do; use it, use us, in the service of your world to the glory of your name. Amen.

Offertory Anthem

And I Saw a New Heaven

Edgar Bainton (1880–1956)

And I saw a new heaven and a new earth:
for the first heaven and first earth were passed away;
and there was no more sea.

And I John saw the holy city, new Jerusalem,
coming down from God out of heaven,
prepared as a bride adorned for her husband.

And I heard a great voice out of heaven, saying, “Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men,
and he will dwell with them and they shall be his people;
and God himself shall be with them and be their God.
And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes;
and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow nor crying,
neither shall there be any more pain,
for the former things are passed away.”

The Great Thanksgiving

BCP p. 361/p. 380

Celebrant The Lord be with you. People And al - so with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts. People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth; for in the multitude of your saints you have surrounded us with a great cloud of witnesses, that we might rejoice in their fellowship, and run with endurance the race that is set before us; and, together with them, receive the crown of glory that never fades away.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus and Benedictus

HS 129*

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow - er and might, hea - ven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

Please continue standing or kneel.

Celebrant Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

All Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

Celebrant We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

The Lord's Prayer

BCP p. 363

Celebrant And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,
All Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those
who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

The Fraction and Invitation

BCP p. 364/St. Augustine (1 Corinthians)

Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God.
Behold what you are.
People May we become what we receive.

Please be seated.

Clergy will distribute communion from stations in front of the altar. If you need communion brought to you, please let an usher or sacristan know.

It is our custom to receive the bread in the upturned palms of our hands, and eat it immediately. Gluten-free wafers are available; please let the minister know that you need one.

Those who wish to receive wine should partake by sipping directly from the chalice (intincting, or dipping one's wafer into the wine, is no longer permitted). Please use your hands to gently assist the server in guiding the chalice to your lips.

If you do not wish to receive communion you are invited to come forward to receive a blessing, indicating your desire by crossing your arms over your chest.

Communion Anthem

The Souls of the Righteous

David M. Cherwien (b. 1957)

CHOIR 1:

Warm summer sun,
Shine kindly here,
Warm southern wind,
Blow softly here.

Green sod above, lie light.
Good night, dear heart, good night.

—Robert Richardson (1850–1901), adapt. Mark Twain (1835–1910)

CHOIR 2:

The souls of the righteous are in the hand of God,
and no torment shall ever touch them.

In the eyes of the foolish they seem to have died,
and their departure was thought to be a disaster.

But they are at peace.

—Wisdom of Solomon 3:1–3

Advocate for criminal justice reform and support those currently incarcerated with a group that meets monthly online. Learn more and register at TrinityChurchNYC.org/PrisonMinistry.

ELECTION 2024

Prayer Vigil for Our Nation

November 4–6, St. Paul's Chapel

Join us for a time of quiet contemplation and hopeful rest as the country navigates the 2024 presidential election. A brief Prayers for Peace service will be held at the beginning of each hour, along with musical performances and poetry readings throughout the day. Come anytime and stay for a few minutes or longer — whatever you need to find respite. See the schedule at TrinityChurchNYC.org/makingpeace.

Upcoming

DISCOVERY

How to Love Your Enemy

*Sunday, November 10, 10–11am
Trinity Commons and online*

Contemplate what it means to love one another, even those who see things differently, and practice peacemaking in difficult times. Next Sunday: The Rev. Phil Jackson, Rector of Trinity Church, on how to love your enemy in times of social and political discord.

TRINITY YOUNG ADULTS

Sunday Brunch

*Sunday, November 10, 12:30–3pm
Trinity Commons*

Adults in their 20s and 30s are invited to join the Trinity Young Adults group for brunch following the 11:15am service. If you'd like to join, meet in the back of the church following the service and we'll walk across the bridge to Trinity Commons. To RSVP and learn about future events, email YoungAdults@TrinityChurchNYC.org.

PARISH LIFE

Breaking Bread

*Sunday, November 10, 1:30–3pm
Trinity Commons*

Take part in nourishing conversation on life and faith guided by the imagery of the table, followed by a light meal. Everyone is welcome to join. For questions, email Maggy Laraque at MLaraque@TrinityChurchNYC.org.

Divine Muse: St. Cecilia Mass

*Thursday, November 14, 6:30pm
Trinity Church*

Trinity's celebration of St. Cecilia, the patron saint of music, continues with NOVUS and Downtown Voices performing Charles Gounod's deeply moving but rarely heard St. Cecilia Mass, as well as Jessica French's Strengthen for Service and John Gardner's A Song for St. Cecilia's Day. Learn more at TrinityChurchNYC.org/music.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

Thanksgiving Food Pantry

*November 25, 11am–12pm
November 26, 9–11:30am
St. Paul's Chapel*

Trinity is providing free turkeys and other Thanksgiving staples to our Lower Manhattan neighbors in need. There are two opportunities to volunteer: Come pack food with us on November 25 or help us distribute packed goods on November 26. To sign up, email Helen He at HHe@TrinityChurchNYC.org.

Register for the 2025 Taizé Youth Pilgrimage

Every year, the Trinity Youth group travels to Taizé, a faith community in Burgundy, France, where they join the monastery's rhythms of daily prayer, service, and rest. It's a unique opportunity for high schoolers to connect with themselves, one another, and God. Next year's pilgrimage will take place from February 13–23, 2025. Registration is now open to active members of Trinity Youth.

Learn more and register by November 18 at TrinityChurchNYC.org/taize25.

Movement Choir: Waging Peace

The Trinity Movement Choir practices worship through sacred dance, a style of slow, dreamlike choreography that responds to the spiritual and social issues of our day. In this season of division, take a moment to experience a message of hope through the medium of movement. Watch the video at TrinityChurchNYC.org/WagingPeace.

Congregational Voice

“On one occasion an expert in the law stood up to test Jesus. ‘Teacher,’ he asked, ‘what must I do to inherit eternal life? What is written in the Law?’ he replied. ‘How do you read it?’ He answered, ‘Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength and with all your mind,’ and, ‘Love your neighbor as yourself.’ ‘You have answered correctly,’ Jesus replied. ‘Do this and you will live’” (Luke 10:25–28 NIV). I am thankful for my recent birthday. I also want to thank God, my creator, for His many blessings in my life, for allowing me to enter the seventh decade of my life and finally for eternal life. My name is written in The Book of Life.
