Welcome to Trinity Church

We're an Episcopal parish where all are invited to participate in the life of our community. Worship is at the heart of everything we do. It opens us to the wondrous reality of our loving God, gathering and focusing us on what matters.

Together we put our faith into practice. In our homes, at work and school, and in all our civic endeavors, we follow Jesus by serving our neighbors. We believe church at its best is an expression of God's justice-oriented love in the world.

We're glad you're here and hope you will encounter and be transformed by the presence of God in Jesus Christ. Take part in a way that's comfortable for you. If you're new to Trinity, please introduce yourself to a member of the clergy.

ABOUT THIS SERVICE

Ash Wednesday

Ash Wednesday marks the first day of Lent. The Book of Common Prayer prescribes a specific order of service for the day, called a proper liturgy, which features an invitation to prayer and penitence. The Litany offers special intercessions of contrition, and replaces the customary Confession, Absolution, and Prayers of the People.

The season of Lent—from an Old English word meaning “spring”—spans 40 days: from Ash Wednesday through Holy Saturday, excluding Sundays. Traditionally, this time of year has been a period of solemn preparation, self-examination, and repentance. Remembering the time Jesus spent in the wilderness before beginning his ministry, some Christians adopt Lenten disciplines: giving up an item of food, taking on a prayer or devotional practice, taking a technology fast, or simply setting aside time each day to be present with God and those they love.

Lenten liturgy is characterized by solemnity and simplicity. The Gloria and the word alleluia are omitted and will not return until the Great Vigil of Easter. At Trinity Church, a “Lenten array” of red, black, and rough linen fabric characterizes the vestments during this season.

The Collect of the Day

BCP p. 264

Officiant God be with you.

People And also with you.

Officiant Let us pray.

Almighty and everlasting God, you hate nothing you have made and forgive the sins of all who are penitent: Create and make in us new and contrite hearts, that we, worthily lamenting our sins and acknowledging our wretchedness, may obtain of you, the God of all mercy, perfect remission and forgiveness; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

All Amen.

Please be seated.

The Word of God

The First Reading

Isaiah 58:1–12

Reader

A Reading from the Book of Isaiah.

Shout out, do not hold back! Lift up your voice like a trumpet! Announce to my people their rebellion, to the house of Jacob their sins. Yet day after day they seek me and delight to know my ways, as if they were a nation that practiced righteousness and did not forsake the ordinance of their God; they ask of me righteous judgments, they delight to draw near to God. “Why do we fast, but you do not see? Why humble ourselves, but you do not notice?” Look, you serve your own interest on your fast day, and oppress all your workers. Look, you fast only to quarrel and to fight and to strike with a wicked fist. Such fasting as you do today will not make your voice heard on high. Is such the fast that I choose, a day to humble oneself? Is it to bow down the head like a bulrush, and to lie in sackcloth and ashes? Will you call this a fast, a day acceptable to the LORD?

Is not this the fast that I choose: to loose the bonds of injustice, to undo the thongs of the yoke, to let the oppressed go free, and to break every yoke? Is it not to share your bread with the hungry, and bring the homeless poor into your house; when you see the naked, to cover them, and not to hide yourself from your own kin? Then your light shall break forth like the dawn, and your healing shall spring up quickly; your vindicator shall go before you, the glory of the LORD shall be your rear guard. Then you shall call, and the LORD will answer; you shall cry for help, and he will say, Here I am.

If you remove the yoke from among you, the pointing of the finger, the speaking of evil, if you offer your food to the hungry and satisfy the needs of the afflicted, then your light shall rise in the darkness and your gloom be like the noonday. The LORD will guide you continually, and satisfy your needs in parched places, and make your bones strong; and you shall be like a watered garden, like a spring of water, whose waters never fail. Your ancient ruins shall be rebuilt; you shall raise up the foundations of many generations; you shall be called the repairer of the breach, the restorer of streets to live in.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

People

Thanks be to God.

The Psalm

Psalm 103:8–14

BCP p. 733

- Leader*      The LORD is full of compassion and mercy, *
                    slow to anger and of great kindness.
- People*      He will not always accuse us, ***
                    nor will he keep his anger for ever.
- Leader*      He has not dealt with us according to our sins, * nor rewarded us according to our wickedness.
- People*      For as the heavens are high above the earth, ***
                    so is his mercy great upon those who fear him.
- Leader*      As far as the east is from the west, *
                    so far has he removed our sins from us.
- People*      As a father cares for his children, ***
                    so does the LORD care for those who fear him.
- Leader*      For he himself knows whereof we are made; *
                    he remembers that we are but dust.

The Gospel Reading

Matthew 6:1–6, 16–21

Preacher     A Reading from the Gospel according to Matthew.

Jesus said, “Beware of practicing your piety before others in order to be seen by them; for then you have no reward from your Father in heaven.

“So whenever you give alms, do not sound a trumpet before you, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, so that they may be praised by others. Truly I tell you, they have received their reward. But when you give alms, do not let your left hand know what your right hand is doing, so that your alms may be done in secret; and your Father who sees in secret will reward you.

“And whenever you pray, do not be like the hypocrites; for they love to stand and pray in the synagogues and at the street corners, so that they may be seen by others. Truly I tell you, they have received their reward. But whenever you pray, go into your room and shut the door and pray to your Father who is in secret; and your Father who sees in secret will reward you.

“And whenever you fast, do not look dismal, like the hypocrites, for they disfigure their faces so as to show others that they are fasting. Truly I tell you, they have received their reward. But when you fast, put oil on your head and wash your face, so that your fasting may be seen not by others but by your Father who is in secret; and your Father who sees in secret will reward you.

“Do not store up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust consume and where thieves break in and steal; but store up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust consumes and where thieves do not break in and steal. For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.”

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

People     Thanks be to God.

The Homily

Invitation to the Observance of a Holy Lent

BCP p. 264

Please stand.

Officiant Dear People of God: The first Christians observed with great devotion the days of our Lord's passion and resurrection, and it became the custom of the Church to prepare for them by a season of penitence and fasting. This season of Lent provided a time in which converts to the faith were prepared for Holy Baptism. It was also a time when those who, because of notorious sins, had been separated from the body of the faithful were reconciled by penitence and forgiveness, and restored to the fellowship of the Church. Thereby, the whole congregation was put in mind of the message of pardon and absolution set forth in the Gospel of our Savior, and of the need which all Christians continually have to renew their repentance and faith.

I invite you, therefore, in the name of the Church, to the observance of a holy Lent, by self-examination and repentance; by prayer, fasting, and self-denial; and by reading and meditating on God's holy Word. And, to make a right beginning of repentance, and as a mark of our mortal nature, let us now kneel before the Lord, our maker and redeemer.

Please kneel.

Silence is kept.

Prayer over the Ashes

BCP p. 265

Please continue kneeling.

The Officiant stands.

Officiant Almighty God, you have created us out of the dust of the earth: Grant that these ashes may be to us a sign of our mortality and penitence, that we may remember that it is only by your gracious gift that we are given everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Savior.

All Amen.

Imposition of Ashes

BCP p. 265

Please be seated.

Ushers will guide all who wish to come forward for the imposition of ashes.

The ashes are imposed with the following words:

Minister Remember that you are dust, and to dust you shall return.

The Psalm

Psalm 51:1-18

BCP p. 266

All Have mercy on me, O God, according to your loving-kindness; * in your great compassion blot out my offenses.

Wash me through and through from my wickedness *
and cleanse me from my sin.

For I know my transgressions, *
and my sin is ever before me.

Against you only have I sinned *
and done what is evil in your sight.

And so you are justified when you speak *
and upright in your judgment.

Indeed, I have been wicked from my birth, *
a sinner from my mother's womb.

For behold, you look for truth deep within me, *
and will make me understand wisdom secretly.

Purge me from my sin, and I shall be pure; *
wash me, and I shall be clean indeed.

Make me hear of joy and gladness, *
that the body you have broken may rejoice.

Hide your face from my sins *
and blot out all my iniquities.

Create in me a clean heart, O God, *
and renew a right spirit within me.

Cast me not away from your presence *
and take not your holy Spirit from me.

Give me the joy of your saving help again *
and sustain me with your bountiful Spirit.

I shall teach your ways to the wicked, *
and sinners shall return to you.

Deliver me from death, O God, *
and my tongue shall sing of your righteousness,
O God of my salvation.

Open my lips, O Lord, *
and my mouth shall proclaim your praise.

Had you desired it, I would have offered sacrifice, *
but you take no delight in burnt-offerings.

The sacrifice of God is a troubled spirit; *
a broken and contrite heart, O God, you will not despise.

Litany of Penitence

BCP p. 267

Please kneel.

All           Most holy and merciful Father:
We confess to you and to one another,
and to the whole communion of saints
in heaven and on earth,
that we have sinned by our own fault
in thought, word, and deed;
by what we have done, and by what we have left undone.

Officiant   We have not loved you with our whole heart, and mind, and strength. We have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We have not forgiven others, as we have been forgiven.

People       Have mercy on us, Lord.

Officiant   We have been deaf to your call to serve, as Christ served us. We have not been true to the mind of Christ. We have grieved your Holy Spirit.

People       Have mercy on us, Lord.

Officiant   We confess to you, Lord, all our past unfaithfulness: the pride, hypocrisy, and impatience of our lives,

People       We confess to you, Lord.

Officiant   Our self-indulgent appetites and ways, and our exploitation of other people,

People       We confess to you, Lord.

Officiant   Our anger at our own frustration, and our envy of those more fortunate than ourselves,

People       We confess to you, Lord.

Officiant   Our intemperate love of worldly goods and comforts, and our dishonesty in daily life and work,

People       We confess to you, Lord.

Officiant   Our negligence in prayer and worship, and our failure to commend the faith that is in us,

People       We confess to you, Lord.

Officiant   Accept our repentance, Lord, for the wrongs we have done: for our blindness to human need and suffering, and our indifference to injustice and cruelty,

People       Accept our repentance, Lord.

Officiant For all false judgments, for uncharitable thoughts toward our neighbors, and for our prejudice and contempt toward those who differ from us,

People Accept our repentance, Lord.

Officiant For our waste and pollution of your creation, and our lack of concern for those who come after us,

People Accept our repentance, Lord.

Officiant Restore us, good Lord, and let your anger depart from us;

People Favorably hear us, for your mercy is great.

Officiant Accomplish in us the work of your salvation,

People That we may show forth your glory in the world.

Officiant By the cross and passion of your Son our Lord,

People Bring us with all your saints to the joy of his resurrection.

Please continue kneeling.

The Officiant stands.

Officiant Almighty God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who desires not the death of sinners, but rather that they may turn from their wickedness and live, has given power and commandment to his ministers to declare and pronounce to his people, being penitent, the absolution and remission of their sins. He pardons and absolves all those who truly repent, and with sincere hearts believe his holy Gospel.

Therefore we beseech him to grant us true repentance and his Holy Spirit, that those things may please him which we do on this day, and that the rest of our life hereafter may be pure and holy, so that at the last we may come to his eternal joy; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

The Blessing

BOS p. 13/BCP p. 339*

Please stand.

Officiant Grant, most merciful Lord, to your faithful people pardon and peace, that they may be cleansed from all their sins, and serve you with a quiet mind; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you, and remain with you always.

All Amen.

Dismissal

BCP p. 366

Preacher Let us bless the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

There is no Postlude in Lent.

All exit in silence.

Family Lenten Workshop

*Sunday, March 9, 9:45am,
Trinity Commons*

Parents, are you looking for ways to help your children experience Lent and prepare for Easter? Join us for a special Family Lenten Workshop, where you'll learn how to observe the season at home and cultivate practices that nurture your child's faith. All families will participate in a paschal candle craft and take home a children's book about the season. Parents and kids are invited to attend this breakfast and workshop together during Sunday School; there will be no drop-off. Open to all families enrolled in Sunday School programs.

TRINITY TALKS

An Afternoon with Christian Wiman

*Sunday, March 9, 12:45pm,
Trinity Commons and online*

Trinity Talks returns with celebrated poet and author Christian Wiman in conversation about his recent book, Zero at the Bone: Fifty Entries Against Despair. The book considers the seductive appeal of despair — and the ways faith, hope, and awe can diminish its power. Doors open at 12:30pm with a book signing at 12:45pm and a light lunch. Reservations recommended. Learn more at TrinityChurchNYC.org/trinitytalks.

Lenten Meditations: Remorse to Redemption

*Thursday, March 20, 6:30pm,
St. Paul's Chapel*

Trinity Choir leads the audience through the Lenten journey, from Ash Wednesday's reminders of human mortality to redemption through Christ's death on the cross. Focusing on countertenor, tenor, and bass voices, this performance includes powerful, contemplative works by Thomas Tallis, William Byrd, Jonathan Woody, and John Sheppard. Learn more at TrinityChurchNYC.org/music.

Living with Loss

Wednesdays, March 26–May 7, 6:30pm, online

If you're walking through grief this season, you don't have to do it alone. Find support in a professionally facilitated online group that makes space for reflection and expression to help us cope with loss. No session April 16. Learn more and register at TrinityChurchNYC.org/loss.

2025 Trinity Youth Spring Retreat

April 4–6, Trinity Retreat Center

Calling all Trinity Youth! Join us for a weekend of fun and fellowship in the Connecticut woods. Take a break from your daily life in the city and hang out with other youth, Trinity staff, and, of course, our friendly rescue donkeys. We'll have games, hiking, s'mores, and more. This program is open to all Trinity Youth and is a requirement for youth preparing for confirmation. Transportation is provided. The cost is $100, and financial aid is available. Register by March 19 at TrinityChurchNYC.org/2025springretreat. Questions? Email SK Doyle at SDoyle@TrinityChurchNYC.org.

Laughter, Play, and Imagination as Spiritual Practice

April 22–24, Trinity Retreat Center

Join a play-filled retreat in God's playground led by interfaith minister the Rev. Tammy Theis-Satterlee, MA, Education. You'll get back in touch with your inner child while exploring old and new ways to have fun as an adult — ultimately calming your nervous system, decreasing stress, and sparking your imagination to help solve life's challenges. Register at trinityretreatcenter.org.

Holy Attention: The Spiritual Discipline of Noticing

April 22–24, Trinity Retreat Center

To be spiritual is to notice — to see or become conscious of. Samantha Trolice, program manager for spiritual formation at Trinity Retreat Center, leads us through movement and stillness in this spacious retreat, which will be grounded in noticing the silence and the sound, the calm and the chaos, all of which bring us into deeper union with the spirit of God. Register at trinityretreatcenter.org.
