

Trinity Church

A Parish in the City of New York

Maundy Thursday
Noonday Prayer
12:05pm

April 17, 2025

I give you a new commandment, that you
LOVE ONE ANOTHER.
Just as I have loved you.

Welcome to Trinity Church

We're an Episcopal parish where all are invited to participate in the life of our community. Worship is at the heart of everything we do. It opens us to the wondrous reality of our loving God, gathering and focusing us on what matters.

Together we put our faith into practice. In our homes, at work and school, and in all our civic endeavors, we follow Jesus by serving our neighbors. We believe church at its best is an expression of God's justice-oriented love in the world.

We're glad you're here and hope you will encounter and be transformed by the presence of God in Jesus Christ. Take part in a way that's comfortable for you. If you're new to Trinity, please introduce yourself to a member of the clergy.

ABOUT THIS SERVICE

Holy Week/Maundy Thursday

In the Christian tradition, the week before Easter is known as Holy Week, and, beginning with Palm Sunday, traces the last days of Jesus: his triumphal entry into Jerusalem, the Last Supper with his disciples, then ultimately his betrayal, trial, and crucifixion. As early as the fourth century, pilgrims traveled to Jerusalem to follow in Jesus' steps, and many of the church's modern Holy Week liturgies evolved from the rites of homage that they practiced.

The word "maundy" comes from the Latin mandatum, referring to the "new commandment" Jesus gave to his disciples on the night he was betrayed. The Gospel of John also describes, on that same night, Jesus' institution of the Holy Eucharist and his washing of the disciples' feet.

Holy Week culminates in what we call the Triduum: a three-part service that arcs from this evening's Maundy Thursday liturgy through Good Friday and, finally, into the joy of Easter.

An Order of Service for Noonday

Welcome

The Officiant greets the congregation.

Versicle and Response

BCP p. 103

At the sound of the bell, please stand.

Officiant O God, make speed to save us.

People O Lord, make haste to help us.

All Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit:
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

Please be seated.

The Psalm

Psalm 116:1, 10–17b

BCP p. 759

Leader I love the LORD, because he has heard the voice of my supplication, * because he has inclined his ear to me whenever I called upon him.

People How shall I repay the LORD *
for all the good things he has done for me?

Leader I will lift up the cup of salvation *
and call upon the Name of the LORD.

People I will fulfill my vows to the LORD *
in the presence of all his people.

Leader Precious in the sight of the LORD * is the death of his servants.

People O LORD, I am your servant; *
I am your servant and the child of your handmaid;
you have freed me from my bonds.

Leader I will offer you the sacrifice of thanksgiving *
and call upon the Name of the LORD.

People I will fulfill my vows to the LORD *
in the presence of all his people,

Leader In the courts of the LORD's house, *
in the midst of you, O Jerusalem.

All Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: *
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

The First Reading

1 Corinthians 11:23–26

Reader A Reading from the First Letter of Paul to the Corinthians.

I received from the Lord what I also handed on to you, that the Lord Jesus on the night when he was betrayed took a loaf of bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it and said, "This is my body that is for you. Do this in remembrance of me." In the same way he took the cup also, after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me." For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People Thanks be to God.

The Gospel Reading

John 13:1–17, 31b–35

Officiant A Reading from the Gospel according to John.

Now before the festival of the Passover, Jesus knew that his hour had come to depart from this world and go to the Father. Having loved his own who were in the world, he loved them to the end. The devil had already put it into the heart of Judas son of Simon Iscariot to betray him. And during supper Jesus, knowing that the Father had given all things into his hands, and that he had come from God and was going to God, got up from the table, took off his outer robe, and tied a towel around himself. Then he poured water into a basin and began to wash the disciples' feet and to wipe them with the towel that was tied around him. He came to Simon Peter, who said to him, "Lord, are you going to wash my feet?" Jesus answered, "You do not know now what I am doing, but later you will understand." Peter said to him, "You will never wash my feet." Jesus answered, "Unless I wash you, you have no share with me." Simon Peter said to him, "Lord, not my feet only but also my hands and my head!" Jesus said to him, "One who has bathed does not need to wash, except for the feet, but is entirely clean. And you are clean, though not all of you." For he knew who was to betray him; for this reason he said, "Not all of you are clean."

After Jesus had washed their feet, had put on his robe, and had returned to the table, he said to them, "Do you know what I have done to you? You call me Teacher and Lord—and you are right, for that is what I am. So if I, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another's feet. For I have set you an example, that you also should do as I have done to you. Very truly, I tell you, servants are not greater than their master, nor are messengers greater than the one who sent them. If you know these things, you are blessed if you do them.

"Now the Son of Man has been glorified, and God has been glorified in him. If God has been glorified in him, God will also glorify him in himself and will glorify him at once. Little children, I am with you only a little longer. You will look for me; and as I said to the Jews so now I say to you, 'Where I am going, you cannot come.' I give you a new commandment, that you love one another. Just as I have loved you, you also should love one another. By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another."

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People Thanks be to God.

Meditation

The Prayers

Kyrie

BCP p. 106

Please stand.

Officiant Lord, have mercy.

People Christ, have mercy.

Officiant Lord, have mercy.

The Lord's Prayer

BCP p. 106

All Our Father, who art in heaven,
 hallowed be thy Name,
 thy kingdom come,
 thy will be done,
 on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
 but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
 and the power, and the glory,
 for ever and ever. Amen.

Collect

BCP p. 107

Officiant Lord, hear our prayer;

People And let our cry come to you.

Officiant Let us pray.

Lord Jesus Christ, you said to your apostles, "Peace I give to you; my own peace I leave with you":
Regard not our sins, but the faith of your Church, and give to us the peace and unity of that heavenly City, where with the Father and the Holy Spirit you live and reign, now and for ever.

All Amen.

The Prayers of the People

TC/BCP p. 356*

Leader Let us offer our prayers of intercession through Christ, who gave himself for the life of the world.

For the Church, that the focus of this week may clear away much that is needless and open our eyes to the bright glory of the cross, we pray:

People Have mercy on us, O Lord.

Leader For our Trinity Church community, gathered across this city, this nation and the globe; that this Holy Week may bring us closer together as Christ's body, we pray:

People Have mercy on us, O Lord.

Leader For our divided and restless world; that Donald our president, Kathleen our governor, Eric our mayor, and all those who hold power over others may be transformed by the demands of justice and work for the common good; for peace, we pray:

People Have mercy on us, O Lord.

Leader For creation, entrusted to our care; that we may use rightly the resources we have been given, and hold them in trust for generations yet to come, we pray:

People Have mercy on us, O Lord.

Leader For all who suffer from fear, hatred, poverty, isolation, and oppression, we pray:

People Have mercy on us, O Lord.

Leader For the absolution and remission of our sins and offenses, we pray:

People Have mercy on us, O Lord.

Leader For those who are sick and for those who care for them; that they may know the healing presence of Christ, and that we might reach out in love and compassion to all, we pray:

People Have mercy on us, O Lord.

Leader For those who have died; that they may rest in the peace of God's eternal love, we pray:

People Have mercy on us, O Lord.

All Holy God,
Holy and Mighty,
Holy Immortal One,
Have mercy upon us.

Dismissal

BCP p. 107

Officiant Let us bless the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Walk with us to Easter

In our Holy Week services, we ground ourselves in the Scriptural accounts of Jesus's life because this ancient story reminds us death is not the final word.

Palm Sunday, April 13

Holy Eucharist | 8am, 9am, 11:15am

Solemne eucaristía y bendición de los ramos en español | 2pm

Special Compline by Candlelight | 7pm

St. Paul's Chapel

Jesus enters Jerusalem triumphantly. Riding on a humble donkey, he is greeted by cheering crowds.

On Palm Sunday, we remember Jesus's arrival in Jerusalem with a parade of palms. When the Passion Gospel is read during the service, we shift our attention to where Jesus's path will finally lead.

Wednesday, April 16

Tenebrae | 6pm

followed by Agape Meal

With every step, Jesus draws closer to the cross. "Believe," he tells his people urgently. "Believe in the light, so that you may become children of the light."

During the Office of Tenebrae, we reflect on Jesus's journey to the cross. The lights in the church are extinguished until only one candle remains, a symbol of Jesus.

Maundy Thursday, April 17

Holy Eucharist | 6pm

All-Night Vigil | 8pm

Jesus sits at the Passover table in a room filled with his closest friends. He gives them a new commandment: "Love one another." Later that night, he is betrayed and arrested.

On Maundy Thursday, we remember Jesus's last supper with his disciples, his washing their feet, and his commandment to love one another as he loves us. The altar is stripped of its linen and other adornments, in preparation for Good Friday.

Good Friday, April 18

Liturgy of Good Friday | 12:05pm

Jesus is beaten, stands trial, and is sentenced to death. From the cross, alongside two criminals, he speaks, "It is finished," and takes his last breath.

On Good Friday, we remember Jesus's Passion: his betrayal, trial, crucifixion, and burial. The congregation is invited to meditate on his willingness to die for us, and what it means to us, by touching and kneeling before the cross. The service ends in silence.

Holy Saturday, April 19

The Great Vigil of Easter | 8pm

Jesus's body, anointed with spices and wrapped in a clean linen cloth, lies in a new tomb. A great stone covers the opening.

The Great Vigil of Easter is one of the oldest known rites of the Christian Church, dating back to the second century. It brings worshippers, literally and symbolically, from darkness into light through the kindling of new fire, reading of Scriptures, and the sacraments of Baptism and the Eucharist.

Easter Sunday, April 20

Simple Holy Eucharist | 8am

Family-Friendly Festive Eucharist | 9am
and Easter Egg Hunt

Festive Eucharist | 11am, 1pm

Solemne eucaristía de la resurrección del Señor en español | 3pm
y búsqueda de huevos

The earth shakes, and the stone rolls away. Jesus is alive. Death does not win.

Like spring itself, Easter brings the promise of new life. Alleluia is proclaimed enthusiastically and will remain in acclamations, hymns, and dismissals throughout the 50 days of Eastertide.

Upcoming

Newcomers Brunch

*Sunday, April 27, 12:30pm,
Trinity Commons*

Want to find your place at Trinity Church? Come meet other parishioners and hear about ways to get involved in the community. You'll get a preview of Foundations, an upcoming series for newcomers covering the basics of Trinity, The Episcopal Church, and the Christian faith. Registration is encouraged, so we know you're coming! Sign up at TrinityChurchNYC.org/newcomers.

SUNDAY AFTERNOON MUSIC

Voices of Resilience and Hope

*Sunday, April 27, 2pm,
St. Paul's Chapel*

Join us for an uplifting program that elevates emerging artists in our city. Students from Dorill Initiative, Borough of Manhattan Community College, and Manhattan School of Music tell their stories through dance, spoken-word poetry, classical choral works, and beloved theater tunes. Learn more and save your seat at TrinityChurchNYC.org/music.

Verdi Requiem

Thursday, May 1, and Friday, May 2, 7pm, Trinity Church

In celebration of its 100th anniversary, The Dessoff Choirs joins forces with Trinity Choir, Downtown Voices, and NOVUS to take the audience on a soul-stirring journey through Giuseppe Verdi's Requiem. The masterpiece is paired with the world premiere of an exciting new choral work by Tania León commissioned for Dessoff's centennial. Learn more at TrinityChurchNYC.org/music.

Foundations

*Sundays, May 4–June 1, 1pm,
Trinity Commons*

Offered twice a year, Foundations is a Sunday afternoon class for anyone interested in joining The Episcopal Church or learning more about the Christian faith, especially adults considering baptism or membership at Trinity. Together, we'll explore Scripture, theology, and church history — and how they shape our life as a community of faith. Whether or not you have previously been a member of a church or participated in Christian worship, we welcome you! This is a space to learn, ask questions, and decide if Trinity feels like your church home. Mandarin interpretation is available. Learn more and register at TrinityChurchNYC.org/foundations.

The Spirituality of Celebrating and Writing Books for Children

May 16–18, Trinity Retreat Center

Come share your favorite spiritual children's book, one you've written, or even just your book concept, and we'll help you write a draft. Priest and Director for Spiritual Formation the Rev. Dr. Mark Francisco Bozzuti-Jones leads this workshop, sharing his experience of writing award-winning children's books. Register at trinityretreatcenter.org.

The Spirituality of Mary Oliver Retreat

May 23–25, Trinity Retreat Center

Mary viewed life through a divine lens, finding God in the ordinary-sacred moments of daily rhythms. Led by Samantha Trolice, program manager for Spiritual Formation at Trinity Retreat Center, we'll share our favorite Mary Oliver poems and explore their themes, which invite us to awaken to God all around us. Register at trinityretreatcenter.org.

Vestry Election

The Annual Vestry Election will be held on April 22, 2025, Easter Tuesday, as specified under the 1697 Charter. All members of the congregation who are 18 years or older, have officially enrolled in the parish registry, and have contributed to the support of the Parish in any documented amount within the preceding year (April 2024–April 2025) are eligible to vote in Vestry Election.

A member of the congregation may confirm that their name is included on the register by contacting Mike Hogan, Deputy Chief of Staff, at MHogan@TrinityChurchNYC.org or 646-216-6261. Registration can also be completed on election day upon application to the Rector upon proving the above-mentioned qualifications.

Electronic Voting

Eligible voters will have the option to vote electronically via the online platform ElectionBuddy. Instructions to vote were distributed to eligible voters on April 6, 2025, via email. Your email address must be on file in order to vote electronically.

Voting by Mail

A mail ballot form, accompanying biographical information, along with a pre-paid envelope was mailed to all eligible parishioners on or before April 7, 2025. The register of eligible voters is available for inspection, and a member of the congregation may confirm that their name is included on the register by emailing Mike Hogan at MHogan@TrinityChurchNYC.org. Registration can also be completed on April 22, 2025, upon application to the Rector upon proving the above-mentioned qualifications. Mail ballots must be received at 76 Trinity Place before 8pm on April 22, 2025.

Voting in Person

In-person voting will be held on Tuesday, April 22, 2025, from 4pm to 8pm at Trinity Church (Broadway at Wall Street). The results will be announced on Trinity’s website the next morning and at the Sunday services following the election.

The persons listed below are the nominated candidates for Church Wardens and Vestrymen made by the Parish Nominating Committee.

Congregational Voice

"Finally, brothers and sisters, whatever is true, whatever is noble, whatever is right, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is admirable — if anything is excellent or praiseworthy — think about such things" (Philippians 4:8 NIV). There are days when everything seems to be going wrong. I overslept, so I'm late for work. I get to work, and I left my glasses at home. I look down and my socks don't match. It is on days like these that I must stop and take a breath. I get up, go outside, close my eyes, and feel the air on my face. I think about my people blessings — my children, grandchildren, husband, friends — and I feel such a sense of peace. I look at the trees and flowers that surround me, and I praise God for what he has provided. Suddenly what started as a bad day is now on its way to becoming a good day.
