LOVE NEVER FAILS

Welcome to Trinity Church

We're an Episcopal parish where all are invited to participate in the life of our community. Worship is at the heart of everything we do. It opens us to the wondrous reality of our loving God, gathering and focusing us on what matters.

Together we put our faith into practice. In our homes, at work and school, and in all our civic endeavors, we follow Jesus by serving our neighbors. We believe church at its best is an expression of God's justice-oriented love in the world.

We're glad you're here and hope you will encounter and be transformed by the presence of God in Jesus Christ. Take part in a way that's comfortable for you. If you're new to Trinity, please introduce yourself to a member of the clergy.

ABOUT THIS SERVICE

Ascensiontide

Ascension Day, observed last week, is one of the seven Principal Feasts of the Episcopal Church. Celebrated on the 40th day after Easter (and therefore always on a Thursday), it commemorates the day when Jesus ascended into heaven in the sight of his disciples. Each time we say the Nicene Creed (BCP p. 358) or the Apostles' Creed (BCP p. 96), Christians affirm our belief that Jesus both rose from the dead and is now exalted in glory.

The appointed scriptures and prayers during the final ten days of the Easter Season, from Ascension Day through the Day of Pentecost, liturgically echo the themes of this celebration. While not an official season in the Church calendar, Ascensiontide offers a glimpse of the transition between the ministry of Jesus' apostles in his presence to their sending out, full of the Holy Spirit, to proclaim the Good News.

Observances

Blandina and Her Companions, the Martyrs of Lyons

LFF 2022 p. 257

177

Almighty God, who gave such courage and endurance to Blandina and her companions that by their deaths many hearts were turned to you: Grant that we, in accordance with their example, may also gladly endure all that is required of us as we witness to you in our own day; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Preparation

Prelude

Opening Acclamation

BCP p. 355

At the sound of the bell, please stand.

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ is risen.

People The Lord is risen indeed. Alleluia.

Canticle

Christ our Passover

BCP p. 83

All Alleluia.
Christ our Passover has been sacrificed for us; *
therefore let us keep the feast,
Not with the old leaven, the leaven of malice and evil, *
but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth. Alleluia.

Christ being raised from the dead will never die again; *
death no longer has dominion over him.
The death that he died, he died to sin, once for all; *
but the life he lives, he lives to God.
So also consider yourselves dead to sin, *
and alive to God in Jesus Christ our Lord. Alleluia.

Christ has been raised from the dead, *
the first fruits of those who have fallen asleep.
For since by a man came death, *
by a man has come also the resurrection of the dead.
For as in Adam all die, *
so also in Christ shall all be made alive. Alleluia.

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant God be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

The Celebrant prays the Collect, a prayer appointed for the day. See p. 1 for Collect texts.

All Amen.

Please be seated.

The Word of God

The First Reading

The Reader reads the lesson appointed for the day. See p. 1 for scripture citations.

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People Thanks be to God.

Sequence

Please stand.

A musician offers a brief improvisation.

The Holy Gospel

Celebrant The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to ...

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

The Celebrant reads the Gospel appointed for the day. See p. 1 for scripture citations.

Celebrant The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Homily

At the invitation of the Preacher, please be seated.

The Prayers of the People

CW:TS p. 476*/TC

Please stand.

Leader Almighty God, our heavenly Creator, you have exalted Jesus Christ to your right hand and made him head over all things for his body, the Church: hear us as we pray for your people throughout the world.

Lord, in your mercy

People Hear our prayer.

Leader God Eternal, the Ancient of Days, you have given Jesus all authority in heaven and on earth: hear us as we pray for those who govern.

Lord, in your mercy

People Hear our prayer.

Leader God our Shepherd, your Son has promised to be with us always, to the end of the age: hear us as we pray for this congregation. Grant that we may be so changed by the presence of Jesus that those we encounter might be inspired to seek him.

Lord, in your mercy

People Hear our prayer.

Leader O God our Redeemer, whose Christ ever lives to make intercession for us: hear us as we pray for those in any need or trouble.

Lord, in your mercy

People Hear our prayer.

Leader Heavenly Father, your Son has borne our humanity into the heavenly realms: hear us as we remember those whose earthly sojourns are over, and who now live on with you.

The People may add their own petitions or remembrances.

Lord, in your mercy

People Hear our prayer.

Celebrant O God, the architect of Creation: we ask that you would continue to direct and strengthen the mission of the Church. May the hearts and hands of your people be tools by which the Holy Spirit forges unity and love, always to your glory and the welfare of your people; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who lives and reigns for ever and ever.

All Amen.

The Peace

BCP p. 360

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

The People greet one another in the name of the Lord.

Welcome

Please be seated.

The Holy Communion

The Offertory

“For all things come from you, and of your own have we given you.” —1 Chronicles 29:14

Offerings at Trinity are applied to the care of our neighbors; particularly to our food assistance ministries Compassion Meals and Compassion Market, and in support of other food banks across lower Manhattan. Last year we were able to provide more than 2.4 million meals for our food insecure neighbors. (TrinityChurchNYC.org/social-justice/food-assistance)

Please place your gift in the basket at the rear of the nave before or after the service, or visit TrinityChurchNYC.org/donate for additional ways to give. Gifts received are blessed immediately after the service with this prayer: Generous God, at your table we present this money, symbol of the work you have given us to do; use it, use us, in the service of your world to the glory of your name. Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

BCP p. 361

Please stand.

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

The Celebrant prays the Proper Preface for the day.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus and Benedictus

EOW p. 57

All Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory.
 Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord.
 Hosanna in the highest.

Please continue standing or kneel.

Celebrant Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

All Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

Celebrant We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

All AMEN.

The Lord's Prayer

BCP p. 363

Celebrant And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,
All Our Father, who art in heaven,
 hallowed be thy Name,
 thy kingdom come,
 thy will be done,
 on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
 but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
 and the power, and the glory,
 for ever and ever. Amen.

The Fraction and Invitation

BCP p. 364/St. Augustine (1 Corinthians)

Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God.
Behold what you are.
People May we become what we receive.

Please be seated.

Clergy will distribute communion from stations in front of the altar. If you need communion brought to you, please let an usher or sacristan know.

It is our custom to receive the bread in the upturned palms of our hands, and eat it immediately. Gluten-free wafers are available; please let the minister know that you need one.

Those who wish to receive wine should partake by sipping directly from the chalice (intincting, or dipping one's wafer into the wine, is no longer permitted). Please use your hands to gently assist the server in guiding the chalice to your lips.

If you do not wish to receive communion you are invited to come forward to receive a blessing, indicating your desire by crossing your arms over your chest.

Post-Communion Prayer

BCP p. 365

Please stand.

All Eternal God, heavenly Father,
 you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food
 in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood.
 Send us now into the world in peace,
 and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart;
 through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Blessing

BOS p. 15

Celebrant The God of peace, who brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus Christ, the great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant, make you perfect in every good work to do his will, working in you that which is well-pleasing in his sight; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you, and remain with you always.

All Amen.

Dismissal

BCP p. 366

Celebrant Let us go forth in the name of Christ. Alleluia, alleluia.

People Thanks be to God. Alleluia, alleluia.

If you would like to remain in your seat to listen to the Postlude, please do.

This Week

JAZZ AT ONE

Andromeda Turre

*Monday, June 2, 1pm,
St. Paul's Chapel*

Hear award-winning vocalist and composer Andromeda Turre, whose work seamlessly blends the rich traditions of jazz with bold contemporary narratives. The New York native's latest project, From the Earth, is a groundbreaking jazz suite addressing environmental justice and the impact of climate change on marginalized communities. Learn more at TrinityChurchNYC.org/music.

PIPES AT ONE

Emily Dawn Amos

*Tuesday, June 3, 1pm,
St. Paul's Chapel*

Hear an impressive program of French music and orchestral transcriptions by Emily Dawn Amos, a prize-winning organist and recent graduate of the Curtis Institute of Music. At age nine, she became the youngest musician ever admitted into Pipe Organ Encounters, an outreach program run by the American Guild of Organists. She currently studies with Ken Cowan at Rice University. Learn more at TrinityChurchNYC.org/music.

BACH AT ONE

Heinrich Schütz

*Wednesday, June 4, 1pm,
St. Paul's Chapel*

Hear Trinity Choir, led by organist Avi Stein, perform Musikalische Exequien, a funeral piece by the great German composer Heinrich Schütz. This collection of motets — one of the finest choral cycles of the 17th century — expresses mortality, comfort, and hope. You'll note a similar style while listening to Bach's Der Geist hilft unser Schwachheit auf. Learn more at TrinityChurchNYC.org/music.

The Image

*Wednesday, June 4, 6:30pm,
Trinity Church*

Downtown Voices and NOVUS present an evening of powerful, thought-provoking music with the world premiere of Stephen Main's The Image and Jessie Montgomery's Divided. Composed for solo cello and orchestra, Divided captures the emotional turmoil of a world grappling with racial injustice, poverty, and climate change. The Image reflects on humanity's struggle for liberty and justice, warning of the fragility of these ideals amid rising authoritarianism. Learn more at TrinityChurchNYC.org/music.

TINY CONCERTS

Heinrich Schütz

*Thursday, June 5, 5:30pm
and 6:30pm, Trinity Church
Chapel of All Saints*

Trinity Choir and organist Avi Stein perform Musikalische Exequien, by the great German composer Heinrich Schütz — a sacred work of mourning and comfort and one of the finest choral cycles of the 17th century. Learn more at TrinityChurchNYC.org/music.

Upcoming

INFORMATION SESSION

Sacred Ground: A Dialogue on Race, Rooted in Faith

Wednesday, June 11, or Monday, June 16, 6:30pm, online

Join a small group dialogue that walks through America's history of race and racism, weaving together threads of family story, economic class, and political and regional identity. With films and readings, the curriculum focuses on Indigenous, Black, Latino, and Asian/Pacific American histories as they intersect with European American histories — and points us to a vision of community where all people are honored and nurtured as beloved children of God. Learn more in an online information session on June 11 or 16 at 6:30pm. To sign up for a session, email SacredGround@TrinityChurchNYC.org.

Sunday School Juneteenth Celebration

Sunday, June 15, 10am, Trinity Commons

Children and families are invited to celebrate Juneteenth with a book swap and read-aloud of They Built Me for Freedom: The Story of Juneteenth and Houston's Emancipation Park, written by Tonya Duncan Ellis and illustrated by Jenin Mohammed. All families will take home a copy of the book. For more information, contact ChildrenandFamilies@TrinityChurchNYC.org.

DISCOVERY SUMMER SUNDAYS

The Book of Acts

Sundays, June 22–September 7, 10am, Trinity Commons and online

This summer, join a parishioner-led discussion of the Book of Acts. We'll explore the wild, miraculous, and even humorous stories of Jesus's early disciples — and how they came together in the shadow of the Roman Empire to find joy and build community. New Testament scholar Eric Barreto of Princeton Theological Seminary will facilitate three sessions (June 22, August 3, and September 7) on historical context and reading approaches to guide us through this remarkable text. Learn more and register at TrinityChurchNYC.org/discovery.

Write From the Heart of Creation: A Contemplative Writing Retreat

June 27–29, Trinity Retreat Center

As humans, we write about our experiences of love, loss, joy, and fear. But elements of nature are crying out to be heard as well. With guidance from award-winning journalist Anne A. Simpkinson, we will combine prayer, writing prompts, and story sharing, with special attention to The Book of Nature, plus have time to commune with animals and nature. Register at trinityretreatcenter.org.

Mending Into the New: Spirituality and the Art of Mending

July 7–11, Trinity Retreat Center

Learn the traditional craft of kintsugi, in a retreat led by Academy Kintsugi's trained facilitators. Experience an immersive journey as we explore themes in spiritual formation such as imperfection, beauty in brokenness, self-compassion, value, healing, renewal, and becoming. Register at trinityretreatcenter.org.

Request Prayer

We are a community of prayer. Our clergy and Daily Intercessory Prayer Ministry set aside time to pray for members of our parish. To submit a specific request, please email Prayers@TrinityChurchNYC.org. All submissions are confidential.

Please pray with us:

*God of mercy and compassion,
you sent your Son that we might know your power to heal,
to comfort, strengthen, and restore.*

We thank you for this community of faith and the joy of our life together, and we pray your presence with those dear to us.

We remember those who are vulnerable.

We lift up those who are sick.

We commend to your protection those who serve in harm's way.

Hold them in your loving embrace, fill them with your grace, and bring them peace.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ.

Amen.

Congregational Voice

"I have told you these things, so that in me you may have peace. In this world you will have trouble. But take heart! I have overcome the world" (John 16:33 NIV). This verse reminds us that challenges are a part of life, but Jesus offers lasting peace. His victory [over death] assures us that no trial is greater than his power. Though difficulties may come, we can find confidence and strength in him. He has already overcome every obstacle, and his peace sustains us through every storm. Let this verse encourage you to trust in his words, knowing that his presence brings courage, hope, and unwavering peace.
