Welcome to Trinity Church

We're an Episcopal parish where all are invited to participate in the life of our community. Worship is at the heart of everything we do. It opens us to the wondrous reality of our loving God, gathering and focusing us on what matters.

Together we put our faith into practice. In our homes, at work and school, and in all our civic endeavors, we follow Jesus by serving our neighbors. We believe church at its best is an expression of God's justice-oriented love in the world.

We're glad you're here and hope you will encounter and be transformed by the presence of God in Jesus Christ. Take part in a way that's comfortable for you. If you're new to Trinity, please introduce yourself to a member of the clergy. And everyone is warmly invited to coffee hour in Parish Hall following the service — an usher will show you the way.

ABOUT THIS SERVICE

The Season after Pentecost

Our current liturgical season, the Season after Pentecost, is by far the longest of the Episcopal church year. It begins the day after Pentecost and ends the day before the First Sunday of Advent. Since the date of Easter changes every year—and the Day of Pentecost is always 50 days after Easter—the length of the season varies as well, ranging from 24–29 weeks in length. This season is sometimes called Ordinary Time, a phrase borrowed from the Roman Catholic Church.

The Collect of the Day

BCP p. 232

Celebrant God be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Let us pray.

Let your continual mercy, O Lord, cleanse and defend your Church; and, because it cannot continue in safety without your help, protect and govern it always by your goodness; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

All Amen.

Please be seated.

The Word of God

The First Reading

Hosea 11:1–11

Reader A Reading from the Book of Hosea.

When Israel was a child, I loved him, and out of Egypt I called my son. The more I called them, the more they went from me; they kept sacrificing to the Baals, and offering incense to idols.

Yet it was I who taught Ephraim to walk, I took them up in my arms; but they did not know that I healed them. I led them with cords of human kindness, with bands of love. I was to them like those who lift infants to their cheeks. I bent down to them and fed them.

They shall return to the land of Egypt, and Assyria shall be their king, because they have refused to return to me. The sword rages in their cities, it consumes their oracle-priests, and devours because of their schemes. My people are bent on turning away from me. To the Most High they call, but he does not raise them up at all.

How can I give you up, Ephraim? How can I hand you over, O Israel? How can I make you like Admah? How can I treat you like Zeboiim? My heart recoils within me; my compassion grows warm and tender. I will not execute my fierce anger; I will not again destroy Ephraim; for I am God and no mortal, the Holy One in your midst, and I will not come in wrath.

They shall go after the LORD, who roars like a lion; when he roars, his children shall come trembling from the west. They shall come trembling like birds from Egypt, and like doves from the land of Assyria; and I will return them to their homes, says the LORD.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.
People Thanks be to God.

The Psalm

Psalm 107:1–9, 43

BCP p. 746, p. 749

- Leader* Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good, *
and his mercy endures for ever.
- People* Let all those whom the LORD has redeemed proclaim  that he redeemed them from the hand of the foe.
- Leader* He gathered them out of the lands; *
from the east and from the west,
from the north and from the south.
- People* Some wandered in desert wastes; ***
they found no way to a city where they might dwell.
- Leader* They were hungry and thirsty; *
their spirits languished within them.
- People* Then they cried to the LORD in their trouble, ***
and he delivered them from their distress.
- Leader* He put their feet on a straight path * to go to a city where they might dwell.
- People* Let them give thanks to the LORD for his mercy  and the wonders he does for his children.
- Leader* For he satisfies the thirsty * and fills the hungry with good things.
- People* Whoever is wise will ponder these things, ***
and consider well the mercies of the LORD.

The Second Reading

Colossians 3:1–11

Reader A Reading from the Letter to the Colossians.

If you have been raised with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God. Set your minds on things that are above, not on things that are on earth, for you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ who is your life is revealed, then you also will be revealed with him in glory.

Put to death, therefore, whatever in you is earthly: fornication, impurity, passion, evil desire, and greed (which is idolatry). On account of these the wrath of God is coming on those who are disobedient. These are the ways you also once followed, when you were living that life. But now you must get rid of all such things—anger, wrath, malice, slander, and abusive language from your mouth. Do not lie to one another, seeing that you have stripped off the old self with its practices and have clothed yourselves with the new self, which is being renewed in knowledge according to the image of its creator. In that renewal there is no longer Greek and Jew, circumcised and uncircumcised, barbarian, Scythian, slave and free; but Christ is all and in all!

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People Thanks be to God.

Gradual

Please stand and turn to face the Gospel as it passes.

The Holy Gospel

Luke 12:13–21

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Deacon Someone in the crowd said to Jesus, “Teacher, tell my brother to divide the family inheritance with me.” But he said to him, “Friend, who set me to be a judge or arbitrator over you?” And he said to them, “Take care! Be on your guard against all kinds of greed; for one’s life does not consist in the abundance of possessions.” Then he told them a parable: “The land of a rich man produced abundantly. And he thought to himself, ‘What should I do, for I have no place to store my crops?’ Then he said, ‘I will do this: I will pull down my barns and build larger ones, and there I will store all my grain and my goods. And I will say to my soul, “Soul, you have ample goods laid up for many years; relax, eat, drink, be merry.”’ But God said to him, ‘You fool! This very night your life is being demanded of you. And the things you have prepared, whose will they be?’ So it is with those who store up treasures for themselves but are not rich toward God.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon

At the invitation of the Preacher, please be seated.

The Nicene Creed

BCP p. 358

Please stand.

Celebrant Let us stand and profess our faith in the words of the Nicene Creed.

All We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

BCP p. 392*/p. 360

The Offertory

“For all things come from you, and of your own have we given you.” —1 Chronicles 29:14

Offerings at Trinity are applied to the care of our neighbors; particularly to our food assistance ministries Compassion Meals and Compassion Market, and in support of other food banks across lower Manhattan. Last year we were able to provide more than 2.4 million meals for our food insecure neighbors. (TrinityChurchNYC.org/social-justice/food-assistance)

Please place your gift in the basket at the rear of the nave before or after the service, or visit TrinityChurchNYC.org/donate for additional ways to give. Gifts received are blessed immediately after the service with this prayer: Generous God, at your table we present this money, symbol of the work you have given us to do; use it, use us, in the service of your world to the glory of your name. Amen.

Offertory Anthem

Ubi caritas

Maurice Duruflé (1902–1986)

Ubi caritas et amor, Deus ibi est.
Congregavit nos in unum Christi amor.
Exultemus et in ipso jucundemur.
Timeamus et amemus Deum vivum.
Et ex corde diligamus nos sincero.
Ubi caritas et amor, Deus ibi est. Amen.

*Where charity and love are, God is there.
The love of Christ has brought us together into one.
Let us rejoice and let us be glad in that love itself.
Let us fear and love the living God.
And let us love from a pure heart.
Where charity and love are, God is there. Amen.*

—Antiphon for Maundy Thursday

Censing of the Gifts

Celebrant The Lord be with you. People And al - so with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts. People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth; for you are the source of light and life, you made us in your image, and called us to new life in Jesus Christ our Lord.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus and Benedictus

WLP 858*

The musical score is written for a two-part setting (Soprano and Bass) in 6/4 time, featuring a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The score is divided into six systems, each with a vocal line and a piano accompaniment line. The lyrics are: "Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Bless-ed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est." The score concludes with a double bar line.

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Bless-ed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

Please continue standing or kneel.

Celebrant

Glory and honor and praise to you, holy and living God. To deliver us from the power of sin and death and to reveal the riches of your grace, you looked with favor upon Mary, your willing servant, that she might conceive and bear a son, Jesus the holy child of God.

Living among us, Jesus loved us. He broke bread with outcasts and sinners, healed the sick, and proclaimed good news to the poor.

On the night before he died for us, Jesus was at table with his friends. He took bread, gave thanks to you, broke it, and gave it to them, and said: "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine. Again, he gave thanks to you, gave it to them, and said: "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is poured out for you and the whole world for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Now gathered at your table, O God of all creation, and remembering Christ, crucified and risen, who was and is and is to come, we offer to you our gifts of bread and wine, and ourselves, a living sacrifice.

Pour out your Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Body and Blood of Christ. Breathe your Spirit over the whole earth and make us your new creation, the Body of Christ given for the world you have made.

In the fullness of time bring us, with all your saints, from every tribe and language and people and nation, to feast at the banquet prepared from the foundation of the world.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

The Lord's Prayer

BCP p. 363

Celebrant As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,
All Our Father in heaven,
 hallowed be your Name,
 your kingdom come,
 your will be done,
 on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
 as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial,
 and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
 and the glory are yours,
 now and for ever. Amen.

The Fraction and Invitation

BCP p. 364/St. Augustine (1 Corinthians)

Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God.
Behold what you are.
People May we become what we receive.

Please be seated.

Clergy will distribute communion from stations in front of the altar. If you need communion brought to you, please let an usher or sacristan know.

It is our custom to receive the bread in the upturned palms of our hands, and eat it immediately. Gluten-free wafers are available; please let the minister know that you need one.

Those who wish to receive wine should partake by sipping directly from the chalice (intincting, or dipping one's wafer into the wine, is no longer permitted). Please use your hands to gently assist the server in guiding the chalice to your lips.

If you do not wish to receive communion you are invited to come forward to receive a blessing, indicating your desire by crossing your arms over your chest.

Communion Anthem

The Eyes of All Wait Upon Thee, O Lord

William Henry Harris (1883–1973)

The eyes of all wait upon thee, O Lord:
and thou givest them their meat in due season.
Thou openest thine hand:
and fillest all things living with plenteousness.
The Lord is righteous in all his ways:
and holy in all his works.
The Lord is nigh unto all them that call upon him:
yea all such as call upon him faithfully.
He will fulfil the desire of them that fear him:
he also will hear their cry and will help them.
The Lord preserveth all them that love him.

Music: Michael, Herbert Howells (1892–1983)

ABOUT THE MUSIC

Florence Price was the first African American woman to have a composition played by a major American symphony orchestra when her first symphony was performed by the Chicago Symphony Orchestra. She was friends with other prominent artists of the time: composer and pianist Margaret Bonds as well as author Langston Hughes and singer Marian Anderson. Price’s daughter stated that she had really wanted to become a doctor but considered the hurdles for a person like herself at the time to be insurmountable, instead becoming something even more rare.

Nicolaus Bruhns was one of the lesser known, though great, instances of the “what would have been” composers who died at a young age, leaving us with a brief but brilliant output. His music was influential to the young J. S. Bach, with this piece being included in the great master’s youthful notebooks.

DISCOVERY SUMMER SUNDAYS

The Book of Acts

10am, Trinity Commons 2nd floor and online

Hear from New Testament scholar Eric Barreto as we continue our exploration of the wild, miraculous, and even humorous stories of Jesus's early disciples — and how they came together in the shadow of the Roman Empire to find joy and build community.

Stay and Chat

Linger awhile after service. Everyone is invited to talk with clergy and staff or take an augmented reality tour of the church and grounds. Feel free to ask questions; we're here to answer them.

Grab a Coffee

Following the 9am and 11:15am Sunday services, take a stroll across the bridge just behind the church and join us for a cup of coffee at Trinity Commons.

We'd love to meet you!

INFORMATION SESSION

Sacred Ground: A Dialogue on Race, Rooted in Faith

Tuesday, August 5, 6:30pm, online

Join a small group dialogue that walks through America's history of race and racism, weaving together threads of family story, economic class, and political and regional identity. With films and readings, the curriculum focuses on Indigenous, Black, Latino, and Asian/Pacific American histories as they intersect with European American histories — and points us to a vision of community where all people are honored and nurtured as beloved children of God. Learn more in an online information session. To sign up, email SacredGround@TrinityChurchNYC.org.

Upcoming

Visit the Frick Collection

*Saturday, August 16, 11am,
1 E. 70th Street*

Join Trinity's Arts Standing Committee for an afternoon at one of New York City's most renowned museums. Recently renovated and enhanced, the Frick Collection galleries on the Upper East Side feature masterworks of painting, sculpture, ceramics, textiles, and more — dating from the Renaissance to the nineteenth century — as well as historic indoor and outdoor gardens. Space is limited; register by August 11 at TrinityChurchNYC.org/frick.

Being With

Beginning in September

Explore life and faith together. Being With is a 10-week online small group for New Yorkers searching for something deeper. Whether you feel uncertain or curious, disconnected from or hurt by the church, or open to exploring Christianity for the first time, there's space for you, and your experience, here. The only thing you are asked to do is listen to others' stories — and maybe share your own. Learn more and submit an interest form at TrinityChurchNYC.org/beingwith.

Worship Leader Workshop

Sunday, September 7, 1pm, Trinity Church

Ever wanted to read Scripture at the lectern or carry the cross during a worship service? Come learn the basics of volunteering at church in a workshop with clergy and staff. Hear about different worship leader roles and deepen your knowledge of our liturgical practices. All volunteers are required to complete a background screening and sexual abuse awareness training. RSVP to Dane Miller, assistant head sacristan, at DMiller@TrinityChurchNYC.org.

Jesus, Buddha, and the Shared Ground of Contemplation

*October 14–16,
Trinity Retreat Center*

Jesus and the Buddha are the only two individuals in history who caused people to ask “What are you?” rather than “Who are you?” according to scholar of world religions Huston Smith. Led by scientist and theologian Clay Williams, we'll practice contemplative living and explore how the religions that have emerged from their teachings can enrich one another. Register at trinityretreatcenter.org.

WomxnSpirit: An Embrace of the Divine Feminine

*October 24–26,
Trinity Retreat Center*

Tap into the heartbeat, power, creativity, ancestral wisdom, and life-giving nature of the sacred feminine. Through an Afro-Indigenous, Eastern, and Goddess-inspired spirituality, priestess and psychology professor Gloria M. Rodríguez will help us connect with our divine feminine nature inspired by Mother Nature. This retreat is open to all female-identifying participants. Register at trinityretreatcenter.org.

All are invited to join Trinity Youth for weekly community knitting sessions. We'll craft cold-weather essentials that will be donated to unhoused LGBTQ+ youth.

Thursdays / 3:30–5pm

Creation Care Ministry

Address environmental concerns through the lens of faith, in connection with efforts of The Episcopal Church and other communities.

Prison Ministry

Support and care for people who have been incarcerated and their families.

First Thursdays / 6pm

Contemplative Practice with Poetry

Practice guided meditation centered on poetry in weekly online practice led by spiritual directors Dr. Kathy Bozzuti-Jones and John Deuel.

Wednesdays / 6:30pm

Poets' Corner

A monthly forum where poets and writers can share their works with an encouraging community of fellow artists.

Third Tuesdays / 7pm

Trinity Book Club

Meet Friday evenings to explore the mysteries of the Christian faith through the medium of literature.

Fridays / 6pm

Become a Member

We welcome your participation in Trinity Church's active and vibrant community of faith. If you have questions about membership or want to learn more about Trinity, email Membership@TrinityChurchNYC.org or call 646-216-6484.

Request Prayer

We are a community of prayer. Our clergy and Daily Intercessory Prayer Ministry set aside time to pray for members of our parish. To submit a specific request, please email Prayers@TrinityChurchNYC.org. All submissions are confidential.

Please pray with us:

*God of mercy and compassion,
you sent your Son that we might know your power to heal,
to comfort, strengthen, and restore.*

We thank you for this community of faith and the joy of our life together, and we pray your presence with those dear to us.

*We remember those who are vulnerable.
We lift up those who are sick.*

We commend to your protection those who serve in harm's way.

Hold them in your loving embrace, fill them with your grace, and bring them peace.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ.

Amen.

Anglican Cycle of Prayer

Pray for The Episcopal Church in the Philippines.

Congregational Voice

"Be kind and compassionate to one another, forgiving each other, just as in Christ God forgave you" (Ephesians 4:32 NIV). Forgiveness is never easy. It cuts against our instincts to protect ourselves and demand justice. But as followers of Jesus, we are called to something higher — not because it's painless, but because it's powerful. When we choose to forgive, we are not excusing the wrong. We are choosing freedom — both for ourselves and for the other person. Unforgiveness is a weight that burdens our hearts. It poisons our thoughts and clouds our peace. But when we release that weight, we step into the grace God offers us daily.
