All Saints' Day

Welcome to Trinity Church

We're an Episcopal parish where all are invited to participate in the life of our community. Worship is at the heart of everything we do. It opens us to the wondrous reality of our loving God, gathering and focusing us on what matters.

Together we put our faith into practice. In our homes, at work and school, and in all our civic endeavors, we follow Jesus by serving our neighbors. We believe church at its best is an expression of God's justice-oriented love in the world.

We're glad you're here and hope you will encounter and be transformed by the presence of God in Jesus Christ. Take part in a way that's comfortable for you. If you're new to Trinity, please introduce yourself to a member of the clergy. And everyone is warmly invited to coffee hour following the service — an usher will show you the way.

ABOUT THIS SERVICE

Allhallowtide

Although in the New Testament “saints” refers to all Christians, the Church soon gave special honor to the heroes of the faith, especially martyrs. The commemoration of The Feast of the Martyrs of the Whole World seems to have been observed in association with Pentecost from the fourth century. The extension of the feast to include All the Saints and its observance on November 1 emerged in the eighth century. Among the seven principal feasts of The Episcopal Church, it is the only one that may be observed both on its fixed date and on the Sunday immediately following.

All Saints' Day is also one of four holy days denoted as especially appropriate for baptisms, along with The Baptism of Our Lord, Easter Vigil, and Pentecost; on this day we join with those who were baptized at the 9am service and renew our baptismal vows.

The annual triduum of All Hallows' Eve, All Saints' Day, and All Faithful Departed reminds us of our communion with all the saints and faithful witnesses who have gone before us, known and unknown.

The Word of God

The First Reading

Daniel 7:1–3, 15–18

Reader A Reading from the Book of Daniel.

In the first year of King Belshazzar of Babylon, Daniel had a dream and visions of his head as he lay in bed. Then he wrote down the dream: I, Daniel, saw in my vision by night the four winds of heaven stirring up the great sea, and four great beasts came up out of the sea, different from one another.

As for me, Daniel, my spirit was troubled within me, and the visions of my head terrified me. I approached one of the attendants to ask him the truth concerning all this. So he said that he would disclose to me the interpretation of the matter: “As for these four great beasts, four kings shall arise out of the earth. But the holy ones of the Most High shall receive the kingdom and possess the kingdom forever—forever and ever.”

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.
People Thanks be to God.

The Psalm

Psalm 149

BCP p. 807

Leader Hallelujah!
Sing to the LORD a new song; *
sing his praise in the congregation of the faithful.

People Let Israel rejoice in his Maker; ***
let the children of Zion be joyful in their King.

Leader Let them praise his Name in the dance; *
let them sing praise to him with timbrel and harp.

People For the LORD takes pleasure in his people  and adorns the poor with victory.

Leader Let the faithful rejoice in triumph; *
let them be joyful on their beds.

People Let the praises of God be in their throat ***
and a two-edged sword in their hand;

Leader To wreak vengeance on the nations *
and punishment on the peoples;

People To bind their kings in chains ***
and their nobles with links of iron;

Leader To inflict on them the judgment decreed; *
this is glory for all his faithful people.
Hallelujah!

The Second Reading

Ephesians 1:11–23

Reader A Reading from the Letter to the Ephesians.

In Christ we have also obtained an inheritance, having been destined according to the purpose of him who accomplishes all things according to his counsel and will, so that we, who were the first to set our hope on Christ, might live for the praise of his glory. In him you also, when you had heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and had believed in him, were marked with the seal of the promised Holy Spirit; this is the pledge of our inheritance toward redemption as God's own people, to the praise of his glory.

I have heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love toward all the saints, and for this reason I do not cease to give thanks for you as I remember you in my prayers. I pray that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give you a spirit of wisdom and revelation as you come to know him, so that, with the eyes of your heart enlightened, you may know what is the hope to which he has called you, what are the riches of his glorious inheritance among the saints, and what is the immeasurable greatness of his power for us who believe, according to the working of his great power. God put this power to work in Christ when he raised him from the dead and seated him at his right hand in the heavenly places, far above all rule and authority and power and dominion, and above every name that is named, not only in this age but also in the age to come. And he has put all things under his feet and has made him the head over all things for the church, which is his body, the fullness of him who fills all in all.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People Thanks be to God.

The Holy Gospel

Luke 6:20–31

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Deacon Jesus looked up at his disciples and said:

“Blessed are you who are poor,
for yours is the kingdom of God.

“Blessed are you who are hungry now,
for you will be filled.

“Blessed are you who weep now,
for you will laugh.

“Blessed are you when people hate you, and when they exclude you, revile you, and defame you on account of the Son of Man. Rejoice in that day and leap for joy, for surely your reward is great in heaven; for that is what their ancestors did to the prophets.

“But woe to you who are rich,
for you have received your consolation.

“Woe to you who are full now,
for you will be hungry.

“Woe to you who are laughing now,
for you will mourn and weep.

“Woe to you when all speak well of you, for that is what their ancestors did to the false prophets.

“But I say to you that listen, Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who abuse you. If anyone strikes you on the cheek, offer the other also; and from anyone who takes away your coat do not withhold even your shirt. Give to everyone who begs from you; and if anyone takes away your goods, do not ask for them again. Do to others as you would have them do to you.”

The Offertory

“For all things come from you, and of your own have we given you.” —1 Chronicles 29:14

Offerings at Trinity are applied to the care of our neighbors; particularly to our food assistance ministries Compassion Meals and Compassion Market, and in support of other food banks across lower Manhattan. Last year we were able to provide more than 2.4 million meals for our food insecure neighbors. (TrinityChurchNYC.org/social-justice/food-assistance)

Please place your gift in the basket at the rear of the nave before or after the service, or visit TrinityChurchNYC.org/donate for additional ways to give. Gifts received are blessed immediately after the service with this prayer: Generous God, at your table we present this money, symbol of the work you have given us to do; use it, use us, in the service of your world to the glory of your name. Amen.

Offertory Anthem

Saints Bound for Heaven

Spiritual, arr. Alice Parker (1925–2023) and Robert Shaw (1916–1999)

Our bondage it shall end by and by.
From Egypt's yoke set free, hail the glorious jubilee,
And to Canaan we'll return by and by.

Our Deliverer He shall come by and by.
And our sorrows have an end with our three-score years and ten,
And vast glory crown the day by and by.

And when to Jordan's floods we are come,
Jehovah rules the tide and the waters He'll divide,
And the ransomed host shall shout, we are come.

Then with all the happy throng we'll rejoice!
Shouting Glory to our King, till the vaults of heaven ring,
And through all eternity we'll rejoice!

The Great Thanksgiving

BCP p. 361/p. 380

Celebrant The Lord be with you. People And al - so with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts. People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth; for in the multitude of your saints you have surrounded us with a great cloud of witnesses, that we might rejoice in their fellowship, and run with endurance the race that is set before us; and, together with them, receive the crown of glory that never fades away.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus and Benedictus

san - na in the high - est. Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est. _____

Please continue standing or kneel.

Celebrant Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

All Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

Celebrant We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

All
A-men.

Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,

for ever and ever. Amen.

Communion Anthems

With the Souls from Ukrainian War Requiem

Benedict Sheehan (b. 1980)

With the souls of the departed righteous,
give rest to the souls of thy servants, O Savior,
preserving them in that blessed life
which is with thee, who lovest mankind.
In the place of thy rest, O Lord, where all thy saints repose,
give rest also to the souls of thy servants,
for thou alone lovest mankind.
Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit.
Thou art God who descended into Hades and loosed the bonds of those held captive there:
do thou now give rest to the souls of thy departed servants.
Now and ever and unto ages of ages. Amen.
O Virgin, alone pure and blameless,
who didst bear God without seed:
intercede that the souls of thy servants may be saved.

There Is a Balm in Gilead

Spiritual, arr. William L. Dawson (1899–1990)

REFRAIN:

There is a balm in Gilead
To make the wounded whole;
There is a balm in Gilead
To heal the sin-sick soul.

Sometimes I feel discouraged
And think my work's in vain,
But then the Holy Spirit
Revives my soul again.

If you cannot preach like Paul,
You can tell the love of Jesus
And say, "He died for all."

ABOUT THE MUSIC

Alice Parker collaborated extensively with Robert Shaw to set early American folk hymns. “Saints Bound for Heaven” is a traditional spiritual for SATB voices a capella in a lively, joyful setting.

Benedict Sheehan, contemporary composer who also composed Akathist—premiered and recorded by Trinity in 2023—is one of the leading voices in classical choral music today. “With the Souls” is taken from his Ukrainian War Requiem, using traditional Latin and Ukrainian prayers alongside Jewish melodies to create a Ukrainian memorial service known as the Panakhyda.

8am, 9am, 11:15am, 5:30pm, Trinity Church and online

On All Saints' Day, we honor the saints who came before us and remind ourselves we're all part of the same story. At Trinity, our customs include lighting candles, singing joyful hymns, and naming those who have died over the past year. This year, the 9am and 5:30pm services include baptisms, and the 5:30pm service is in Spanish.

Harvest Brunch

12:30pm, Trinity Commons 2nd floor

Trinity's season of stewardship begins this Sunday with coffee-hour gatherings where we'll explore how faithful giving brings God's love to our community. Hear stories from congregational leaders about why they pledge — and learn how your giving directly supports ministry in our parish and beyond.

Stay and Chat

Linger awhile after service. Everyone is invited to talk with clergy and staff or take an augmented reality tour of the church and grounds. Feel free to ask questions; we're here to answer them.

Grab a Coffee

Following the 9am and 11:15am Sunday services, take a stroll across the bridge just behind the church and join us for a cup of coffee at Trinity Commons.

We'd love to meet you!

PIPES

David Hurd

*Tuesday, November 4, 6pm,
Trinity Church*

Join us as Trinity organists past and present — Bruce Neswick and Alcée Chriss III — team with Trinity Choir to spotlight the artistry of another former Trinity organist: the incomparable David Hurd. A leading composer and organist in Episcopal church music for decades, Hurd will direct his own choral works, which blend spiritual depth and bold harmonies. Learn more at TrinityChurchNYC.org/music.

Living with Loss

Wednesday, November 5, 6:30pm, online

Walking through grief isn't easy; you don't have to do it alone. Wednesdays through November 19, find support in a professionally facilitated online group that makes space for reflection and expression to help us cope with loss. Learn more and register at TrinityChurchNYC.org/loss.

Into the Word: A Bible Introduction

*Thursday, November 6, 5:30pm,
Trinity Commons and online*

Who wrote the Bible? Why do we argue over this ancient book? What does it say to me? Dig into the messy, beautiful, and complex collection of writings at the center of Christian practice. Led by prominent scholars from diverse faith perspectives, learn about the Bible's origins and what it means to read it skillfully, honestly, and with joy. We'll think together about how Scripture can inform and enrich our everyday lives. Dinner begins at 5:30pm; online discussion begins at 6pm. Runs Thursdays through November 13. See the curriculum and register at TrinityChurchNYC.org/word.

Prison Ministry

Thursday, November 6, 6pm, online

Support and care for people who have been incarcerated and their families. Sign up at TrinityChurchNYC.org/groups.

To register, visit TrinityChurchNYC.org/youthgroup.

Breaking Bread

*Sunday, November 9, 1pm,

Trinity Commons*

Young adults in their 20s and 30s are invited to join the Trinity Young Adults group for brunch following the 11:15am service. PIPES

Trinity Youth Chorus Concert with Avi Stein

*Sunday, November 9, 3pm,
Trinity Church*

The final fall PIPES concert highlights the significant role Trinity's new organ will serve for the choirs and congregation for years to come. Trinity Youth Chorus will sing their own adaptations of two masses: Gabriel Fauré's Messe basse, originally composed for upper voices; and Maurice Duruflé's Messe Cum Jubilo, written for baritones. Rounding out the program is a TYC favorite: Fauré's beautiful Cantique de Jean Racine. Learn more at TrinityChurchNYC.org/pipes-season.

Join Us to Serve Our Neighbors

Beginning November 17

Support our community this holiday season. Register to pack and distribute Thanksgiving groceries (November 17–18), make children's wishes come true through Giving Tree (November 23–December 20), and serve Christmas dinner (December 7). Learn more at TrinityChurchNYC.org/volunteer.

DISCOVERY

Revelation and the End of All Things

*Sundays, November 9–23,
10am, Trinity Commons*

Are we living through the apocalypse? Is this timeline scripted in the Bible? Is Jesus coming back soon? Dig into the odd and often misused Book of Revelation with leading scholars and theologians. We'll resist our inclination to correlate modern-day events and ancient texts and build a new end-times framework centered on mercy, justice, and a God whose love is not bound by space and time. Learn more and register at TrinityChurchNYC.org/discovery.

Please pray with us:

*God of mercy and compassion,
you sent your Son that we might know your power to heal,
to comfort, strengthen, and restore.*

We thank you for this community of faith and the joy of our life together, and we pray your presence with those dear to us.

We remember those who are vulnerable.

We lift up those who are sick.

We commend to your protection those who serve in harm's way.

Hold them in your loving embrace, fill them with your grace, and bring them peace.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ.

Amen.
