

EASTER DAY

HOLY EUCHARIST RITE II

APRIL 1, 2018, 11:15AM

TRINITY CHURCH

BROADWAY AT WALL STREET, NEW YORK CITY

MISSION

In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

VISION

We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

CORE VALUES

Faith

“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —MATTHEW 17:20

Integrity

“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —PHILIPPIANS 4:8

Inclusiveness

“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —GALATIANS 3:28

Compassion

“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.” —MATTHEW 14:14

Social Justice

“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.” —MICAH 6:8

Stewardship

“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —GENESIS 41:29–30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.

By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.

WELCOME TO TRINITY CHURCH

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus' Table, and everyone's voice is needed to tell the Good News of God's love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to learn more about the Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

ABOUT THIS SERVICE

Easter is the highest holiday of the Christian year—a celebration of the event that defines our Church: the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, fulfilling the scriptural foretelling of the Messiah. Like spring itself, the Paschal feast brings the promise of new life.

After weeks of preparation and reflection, more joyful elements return to the liturgy. The service is restored from the penitential order, and the confession is dormant throughout this jubilant season. Gloria, a song of praise, replaces the Trisagion, a supplication for mercy; and the word alleluia (“Praise the Lord”)—which has not been spoken during the past 40 days of Lent—is proclaimed enthusiastically, and will remain in acclamations, fractions, hymns, and dismissals throughout Eastertide.

BCP p. 222

Celebrant God be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Let us pray.

Almighty God, who through your only-begotten Son Jesus Christ overcame death and opened to us the gate of everlasting life: Grant that we, who celebrate with joy the day of the Lord's resurrection, may be raised from the death of sin by your life-giving Spirit; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

All Amen.

Please be seated.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

THE FIRST READING

Acts 10:34-43

Reader A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

Peter began to speak to Cornelius and the other Gentiles: "I truly understand that God shows no partiality, but in every nation anyone who fears him and does what is right is acceptable to him. You know the message he sent to the people of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ—he is Lord of all. That message spread throughout Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John announced: how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power; how he went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him.

“We are witnesses to all that he did both in Judea and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree; but God raised him on the third day and allowed him to appear, not to all the people but to us who were chosen by God as witnesses, and who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. He commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that he is the one ordained by God as judge of the living and the dead. All the prophets testify about him that everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name.”

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

People Thanks be to God.

THE PSALM

Psalm 118:1-2, 14-17, 21-22

George Thalben-Ball (1896-1987)

The choir sings the refrain, then all repeat and sing as indicated.

Choir Give thanks to God who is good, *
whose mercy endures for ever.
Let Israel now proclaim, *
“God’s mercy endures for ever.”
God is my strength and my song, *
and has become my salvation.
There is a sound of exultation and victory *
in the tents of the righteous:

Choir “The right hand of the Most High has triumphed! *
the right hand of the Most High is exalted!
the right hand of the Most High has triumphed!”
I shall not die, but live, *
and declare the works of God.
I will give thanks to you, for you answered me *
and have become my salvation.
The same stone which the builders rejected *
has become the chief cornerstone.

THE SECOND READING

1 Corinthians 15:1-11

Reader A Reading from Paul's first letter to the Corinthians.

Now I would remind you, brothers and sisters, of the good news that I proclaimed to you, which you in turn received, in which also you stand, through which also you are being saved, if you hold firmly to the message that I proclaimed to you—unless you have come to believe in vain.

For I handed on to you as of first importance what I in turn had received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the scriptures, and that he was buried, and that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the scriptures, and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve. Then he appeared to more than five hundred brothers and sisters at one time, most of whom are still alive, though some have died. Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles. Last of all, as to one untimely born, he appeared also to me. For I am the least of the apostles, unfit to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace toward me has not been in vain. On the contrary, I worked harder than any of them—though it was not I, but the grace of God that is with me. Whether then it was I or they, so we proclaim and so you have come to believe.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People Thanks be to God.

THE HOLY GOSPEL

John 20:1-18

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Deacon Early on the first day of the week, while it was still dark, Mary Magdalene came to the tomb and saw that the stone had been removed from the tomb. So she ran and went to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one whom Jesus loved, and said to them, "They have taken the Lord out of the tomb, and we do not know where they have laid him." Then Peter and the other disciple set out and went toward the tomb. The two were running together, but the other disciple outran Peter and reached the tomb first. He bent down to look in and saw the linen wrappings lying there, but he did not go in. Then Simon Peter came, following him, and went into the tomb. He saw the linen wrappings lying there, and the cloth that had been on Jesus' head, not lying with the linen wrappings but rolled up in a place by itself. Then the other disciple, who reached the tomb first, also went in, and he saw and believed; for as yet they did not understand the scripture, that he must rise from the dead. Then the disciples returned to their homes.

But Mary stood weeping outside the tomb. As she wept, she bent over to look into the tomb; and she saw two angels in white, sitting where the body of Jesus had been lying, one at the head and the other at the feet. They said to her, "Woman, why are you weeping?" She said to them, "They have taken away my Lord, and I do not know where they have laid him." When she had said this, she turned around and saw Jesus standing there, but she did not know that it was Jesus. Jesus said to her, "Woman, why are you weeping? Whom are you looking for?" Supposing him to be the gardener, she said to him, "Sir, if you have carried him away, tell me where you have laid him, and I will take him away." Jesus said to her, "Mary!" She turned and said to him in Hebrew, "Rabbouni!" (which means Teacher). Jesus said to her, "Do not hold on to me, because I have not yet ascended to the Father. But go to my brothers and say to them, 'I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God.'" Mary Magdalene went and announced to the disciples, "I have seen the Lord"; and she told them that he had said these things to her.

All Praise to you, Lord Christ.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

PRR p. 168

Reader We come with anticipation on this first day of the week to become witnesses, sharing in the resurrection life of Jesus, as we pray: Alleluia! Christ is risen. Christ is risen indeed. Alleluia!

Almighty One, you have filled your Church with new life and empowered us through the conquering love of Jesus: Raise us with your Spirit that we may live in the power of Christ's resurrection to bring life and light to all the world.

Alleluia! Christ is risen.

People Christ is risen indeed. Alleluia!

Reader The right hand of the Most High has triumphed over evil and death, bringing new hope to all the world: Speak your living truth to everyone who leads and holds authority among the nations, especially Donald our President, Andrew our Governor, and Bill our Mayor, that they may be agents of life and justice.

Alleluia! Christ is risen.

People Christ is risen indeed. Alleluia!

Reader The Apostle Peter has taught us, O God, that you show no partiality, but you accept all who live reverently and do right: Let your peace extend to every person, that the power of evil and injustice may be banished, and all people may live as beloved children of the divine.

Alleluia! Christ is risen.

People Christ is risen indeed. Alleluia!

Reader Be with us in this community that we may be glad witnesses of your goodness, O Holy One: Help us to have the courage and grace to live our core values of Faith, Integrity, Inclusiveness, Compassion, Social Justice, and Stewardship.

Alleluia! Christ is risen.

People Christ is risen indeed. Alleluia!

Reader Christ the wounded healer has overcome all that can threaten us. Let his resurrection power bring healing and hope to those for whom we pray.

Give thanks to God who is good, whose mercy endures for ever. We offer our grateful gladness this Easter Day.

Christ has died and is risen, bringing life and immortality to light. We remember those who have died. May they live in him and share in the joy of Easter.

Alleluia! Christ is risen.

People Christ is risen indeed. Alleluia!

Celebrant You have anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power, O Eternal One, and raised him from death on the cross into resurrection life: Feed us with his life as we eat and drink with him in this Easter Eucharist, that we may be his witnesses, sharing in the Spirit's work of reconciliation and peace through the Risen One, Jesus Christ our Savior.

All Amen.

THE OFFERTORY

The ushers collect the offering.

I Was Glad

Charles Hubert Hastings Parry (1848-1918)

I was glad when they said unto me, we will go unto the house of the Lord. Our feet shall stand in thy gates, O Jerusalem. Jerusalem is builded as a city that is at unity in itself. O pray for the peace of Jerusalem; they shall prosper that love thee. Peace be within thy walls, and plenteousness within thy palaces.

—Psalm 122:1-3, 6-7

AT THE PRESENTATION

Hymnal 380, v. 3

Please stand as you are able as the offering is brought forward.

The musical score is written for voice and piano. It consists of three systems of music. Each system has a vocal line (treble clef) and a piano accompaniment line (bass clef). The key signature is one sharp (F#), and the time signature is common time (C). The lyrics are: "Praise God, from whom all blessings flow; praise him, all creatures here below; praise him above, ye heavenly host: praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost." The piano accompaniment features a steady, rhythmic pattern of chords, primarily triads and dyads, providing a harmonic foundation for the vocal line.

Words: Thomas Ken (1637-1711); Music: Old 100th, melody from Pseumes octante trois de David, 1551, alt.; harm. after Louis Bourgeois (1510?-1561?)

CENSING OF THE ALTAR

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

Eucharistic Prayer 1

EOW p. 57/BCP p. 379

* Unison
 The Lord be with you. And also with you.

* Unison
 Lift up your hearts. We lift them to the Lord.

* Unison
 Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

* Unison
 It is right to give you thanks and praise.

Celebrant

It is truly right, and good and joyful, to give you thanks, all-holy God, source of life and fountain of mercy.

But chiefly are we bound to praise you for the glorious resurrection of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord; for he is the true Paschal Lamb, who was sacrificed for us, and has taken away the sin of the world. By his death he has destroyed death, and by his rising to life again he has won for us everlasting life.

Therefore, joining with Angels and Archangels and with the faithful of every generation, we lift our voices with all creation as we sing:

SANCTUS

Hymnal S 130

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of power and might, Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord,

The Sanctus continues on the next page.

God of power and might, hea - ven and earth are full, full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord, Ho - san - na

in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

Music: from Deutsche Messe, Franz Peter Schubert (1797-1828); arr. Richard Proulx (1937-2010)

Please continue standing, or kneel as you are able.

Celebrant

Blessed are you, gracious God, creator of the universe and giver of life. You formed us in your own image and called us to dwell in your infinite love. You gave the world into our care that we might be your faithful stewards and show forth your bountiful grace.

But we failed to honor your image in one another and in ourselves; we would not see your goodness in the world around us; and so we violated your creation, abused one another, and rejected your love. Yet you never ceased to care for us, and prepared the way of salvation for all people.

Through Abraham and Sarah you called us into covenant with you. You delivered us from slavery, sustained us in the wilderness, and raised up prophets to renew your promise of salvation. Then, in the fullness of time, you sent your eternal Word, made mortal flesh in Jesus. Born into the human family, and dwelling among us, he revealed your glory. Giving himself freely to death on the cross, he triumphed over evil, opening the way of freedom and life.

On the night before he died for us, Our Savior Jesus Christ took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his friends, and said: "Take, eat: This is my Body which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said: "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

All

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

Celebrant

Remembering his death and resurrection, we now present to you from your creation this bread and this wine. By your Holy Spirit may they be for us the Body and Blood of our Savior Jesus Christ. Grant that we who share these gifts may be filled with the Holy Spirit and live as Christ's Body in the world. Bring us into the everlasting heritage of your daughters and sons, that with all your saints, past, present, and yet to come, we may praise your Name for ever.

Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, to you be honor, glory, and praise, for ever and ever.

All

AMEN.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

BCP p. 364

Celebrant As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,
All Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your Name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins,
as we forgive those
who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial,
and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours,
now and for ever. Amen.

FRACTION

BCP p. 364

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;
People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.
Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

Please be seated.

The ushers will bring you forward when it is time for you to receive. We receive communion at stations at the front of each aisle. Those wishing to kneel should go to the rail by the pulpit. Communion will also be served in the back of the church. For those seated in the back, make your way to one of the clergy to receive. If you need to receive communion at your seat, please notify an usher.

All who hunger for God are cordially invited to this table, including children. You may consume the bread and then drink from the chalice (please grasp the bottom of the chalice to guide it to your lips). Also, you may dip the bread in the wine and then consume it, or you may leave the bread in your palm for the chalice-bearer to dip in the wine and place on your tongue. Gluten-free wafers are available. Those who do not wish to receive communion are welcome to receive a blessing, indicated by crossing your arms over your chest.

COMMUNION ANTHEMS

Ye Choirs of New Jerusalem

Charles Villiers Stanford (1852-1924)

Ye choirs of new Jerusalem, your sweetest notes employ,
the Paschal victory to hymn, in strains of holy joy.
For Judah's lion bursts his chains, crushing the serpent's head;
and cries aloud through death's domains to wake the imprisoned dead.
Devouring depths of hell their prey at his command restore;
his ransomed hosts pursue their way where Jesus goes before.
Triumphant in his glory now, to him all power is given;
to him in communion bow all saints in earth and heaven.
While we, his soldiers, praise our King, his mercy we implore, within his palace bright to bring, and keep us all evermore.
All glory to the Father be, all glory to the Son,
all glory, Holy Ghost, to thee, while endless ages run.
Alleluia! Amen.

—Fulbert of Chartres (960-1028)

Jubilate Deo

Giovanni Gabrieli (1557-1612)

Jubilate Deo omnis terra, quia sic benedicetur homo qui timet Dominum.
Jubilate Deo omnis terra. Deus Israel conjungat vos et ipse sit vobiscum.
Mittat vobis auxilium de sancto, et de Sion tueatur vos.
Jubilate Deo omnis terra. Benedicat vobis Dominus ex Sion, qui fecit caelum et terram.
Jubilate Deo omnis terra. Servite Domino in laetitia.

*O be joyful in the Lord, all ye lands, for thus shall the man be blessed that feareth the Lord.
O be joyful in the Lord, all ye lands. May the God of Israel unite you and himself be with you.
May he send thee help from the sanctuary, and strengthen thee out of Sion.
O be joyful in the Lord, all ye lands. The Lord that made heaven and earth give thee blessing out of Sion.
O be joyful in the Lord, all ye lands. Serve the Lord with gladness.*

—Psalm 100:1, 128:1; Tobit 7:15; Psalm 20:2, 134:4

Silence follows the final anthem.

CONCLUDING RITE

you have united us
with Christ and one another;
and you have made us one
with all your people in heaven and on earth.
Now send us forth
in the power of your Spirit,
that we may proclaim your redeeming love to the world and continue for ever
in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

THE BLESSING

ADK p. 88/BCP p. 339

Celebrant May the God who shakes heaven and earth, whom death could not contain, who lives to disturb and heal us, bless you with power to go forth and proclaim the gospel; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you, and remain with you always.

All Amen.

An artistic exhibition across Manhattan

Exhibit: February 14–April 1

People of all faiths and spiritualities are invited on a creative and contemplative journey through Manhattan to consider injustice across the human experience.

Stations of the Cross presents a pilgrimage comprised of 14 art stations, from The Cloisters to the 9/11 Memorial. Each location presents a new work of art or adds a fresh perspective to an existing memorial, highlighting the contemporary relevance of the Passion, Jesus' final hours.

Traditionally, the Stations of the Cross have served to evoke empathy with those who suffer, as Jesus did, at the hands of injustice. This year's exhibit focuses on the experience of immigrants and refugees, exploring feelings of despair, exploitation, abandonment, and hope.

In Trinity Church's south courtyard, visit Station 13:
Jesus is Taken Down from the Cross—Stations by Roland Biermann.

FOUNDATIONS 2018 SPRING SERIES

Sundays, April 8–May 6
1pm, Parish Center (2 Rector Street)

FOUNDATIONS is a series for those seeking Adult Baptism or Confirmation, Reception, or Reaffirmation of Faith in the Episcopal Church. It is also a great opportunity to acquire a better understanding of what it means to be an Episcopalian and Anglican for those seeking formal membership at Trinity Church and St. Paul's Chapel. Together we will learn about scripture, theology, prayer, and much more.

Join Trinity's Vicar, the Rev. Phillip Jackson, and other clergy and staff for fun, fellowship, and interactive learning.

For more information or to RSVP,
visit trinitywallstreet.org/foundations.

TO BUY THE SUN

The Challenge Of Pauli Murray

A Play by Lynden Harris

In To Buy the Sun, Pauli Murray, a groundbreaking attorney, poet, activist, professor, and new priest, reflects on old haunts and old friends, and the purpose of her life as it takes on a new and unexpected shape.

Follow this mixed-race, gender non-conforming pioneer through six decades and two continents. By the close of To Buy the Sun, you will want to cheer for Pauli Murray and the challenge she offers us all.

April 5-6 | 7pm

April 7 | 2pm and 7pm

St. Paul's Chapel (Broadway and Fulton)

Tickets: $15
TBTSNYC.eventbrite.com

Major sponsors for the spring 2018 tour of To Buy the Sun: The Challenge of Pauli Murray are Trinity Church Wall Street and Paul, Weiss, Rifkind, Wharton & Garrison LLP. To Buy the Sun is a collaborative effort of the Pauli Murray Project at the Duke Human Rights Center/FHI, the Pauli Murray Center for History and Social Justice, and Hidden Voices. Drawn from original works by Pauli Murray with permission of the Pauli Murray Foundation.

Security Enhancements

On March 1, we began checking bags and using walk-through magnetometers (metal detectors) for visitors, staff, and parishioners to Trinity Church and St. Paul's Chapel.

We have been monitoring the new security process and are making some adjustments based on what we've experienced. Thank you for your patience as we attempt to make this a smooth process.

The back entrance is now open to everyone during hours that the church is open to the public. Those using the back entrance will be subject to bag check and wandling.

Other entrances remain open, as follows:

At Trinity Church, on weekdays, the Broadway entrance is open at 7am and the north vestibule is open at 9am; all those who enter pass through the magnetometer and have their bags checked. The south vestibule is used only as an exit.

On Sundays, the Broadway entrance is open at 7am; the north vestibule opens at 8:30am. The south vestibule continues to be the exit.

At St. Paul's Chapel on weekdays and Sundays, the south Broadway door is an entrance, the north Broadway door is an exit, and the Church Street doors act as both entrance and exit.

If you have any questions, please see the Vicar.

Core Values: What's Next

In 2018, more Illuminating Values sessions are planned for the congregation, focusing on one value per month.

Compassion: Thursday, April 26, 6:30-8pm
(Trinity Church, Manning Room)

Social Justice: Monday, May 21, 6:30-8pm
(2 Rector St., Parish Center)

Stewardship: Thursday, June 21, 6:30-8pm
(2 Rector St., Parish Center)

In addition, Trinity Retreat Center will be the setting of retreats planned for each value and open to both congregation and staff.

Living the Values Quiet Retreats

Take some time away from the daily busyness to contemplate Trinity's core values—faith, integrity, inclusiveness, compassion, social justice, and stewardship—and how you express these values in your everyday living. We'll begin with thought-provoking teaching, then spend time in prayerful introspection and quiet exercises with poetry and art, meditation, and natural woodland beauty, all fueled by delicious, wholesome farm-to-table meals. You'll come away renewed and inspired, and ready to live your values more fully in the world.

Retreat dates and topics

April 20-22: Inclusiveness*

May 18-20: Compassion

June 1-3: Social Justice*

September 14-16: Stewardship

*Led by Listening Hearts Ministries

Pricing $50/night (double occupancy)

For a single-occupancy room, there is a $35 surcharge per person, per night, based on availability.

Transportation

The retreat center operates a shuttle bus to pick up and drop off guests who take Metro-North to Wassaic Station. Free parking is available for those who choose to drive.

RSVP: trinitywallstreet.org/valuesretreats.

City's leading organists. This week: Avi Stein. Free and open to all. See the full schedule at trinitywallstreet.org/pipes.

Trinity Church Rejuvenation

Over the past several months, as the church design team has developed the scope for a possible interior rejuvenation, a team has mocked up portions of the church to test lighting, cleaning techniques, and paint colors, including the colors originally envisioned by Trinity's architect, Richard Upjohn, in the 1840s.

The tests have been enlightening. In the chancel, we have discovered an original stencil pattern that had been painted over. The team is trying to learn more about the stencil's color and pattern. We've also discovered beautiful pink grout and striations in the brownstone.

The renovation team has completed the installation of lighter stained glass in six panes within a single window and a lighting system that will help determine how the change—in this case a lighter yellow—would affect the worship space.

During the week of March 12, the second-to-last pew on the southwest side of the church was removed so the rejuvenation team could access ducts that are currently blocked by the pew.

To learn more about additional discoveries, visit trinitywallstreet.org.

Vestry Election

The Annual Vestry Election will be held on April 3, 2018, Easter Tuesday, as specified under the 1697 Charter. All members of the congregation who are 18 years or older, have officially enrolled in the parish registry, have taken Holy Communion within the preceding year (April 2017-April 2018) and have contributed to the support of the Parish in any documented amount within the preceding year (April 2017-April 2018) are eligible to vote in Vestry Election. The register of eligible voters is available for inspection in the Office of the Rector, 120 Broadway, 38th floor, and a member of the congregation may confirm that his or her name is included on the register by emailing mhogan@trinitywallstreet.org. Registration can also be done on election day upon application to the Rector upon proving the above-mentioned qualifications.

In-person voting will be from 4pm to 8pm in Trinity Church. The ballots may also be submitted by mail. (Mail instructions are posted in Trinity Church and St. Paul's Chapel). Mail ballots must be received before 8pm on Tuesday, April 3.

The persons about whom information is given on this announcement are the nominated candidates for Church Wardens and Vestrymen made by the Parish Nominating Committee.

Author Talk: Luigi Gioia

1pm, Trinity Church, Manning Room

Luigi Gioia's new book, Say it to God: In Search of Prayer, has been chosen as the Archbishop of Canterbury's Lent Book for 2018. In Say it to God: In Search of Prayer, Gioia provides a welcome encouragement to all those who feel the need to freshen their practice of prayer. For Gioia, prayer is not about methods or techniques, but trusting that God is truly interested in everything that happens to us and wants to hear about it. Information: ChristianFormation@trinitywallstreet.org.

Poetry Workshop

1-2:30pm, St. Paul's Chapel

A poetry workshop for all Trinity writers who wish to participate in the Annual Poetry Festival to be held April 22. We will read poems in progress and discuss how to compose a decent poem. Participants will share their thoughts about writing. Open to all. Information: Alan at abfilm9@gmail.com.

COMING SOON

ParentSpace

6-8:30pm, Fridays, April 13 and 20, Parish Center

ParentSpace: Daily Connection for Busy Families. Hectic schedules and long to-do lists keep our families disconnected even when we're doing things together. Come discover how to better connect with your child emotionally and spiritually despite the busyness. Led by Sarah McCaslin of the Psychotherapy & Spirituality Institute. Supper is provided. Child care is available. RSVPs requested at trinitywallstreet.org/parentspace.

Living with Loss

6:30-8pm, Thursdays, April 19-May 24, Parish Center

Grief is a deeply personal process—one we can only learn by doing. In this six-part series we will explore the work of grief. Facilitated by Rev. Julia Kristeller of the Psychotherapy & Spirituality

You're invited to retreat

The Trinity Retreat Center, located in West Cornwall, Connecticut, is a refuge of healing, peace, joy, and spiritual formation for all generations. Learn more about these and other upcoming retreats at trinityretreatcenter.org.

Rest and Renewal

April 6-8

Participants are invited to relax during weekends dedicated to refreshment and renewal of body and soul through rest, prayer, and play. Time will be lightly structured around a daily house schedule, giving ample space to reconnect with nature, pursue special interests, and participate in the community we make together. These retreats are suitable for individuals and families, including children of all ages.

Earth Credo: Living in Harmony with the Earth and its Source

April 22-April 27 or October 28-November 2

This 5-day immersion course will deepen participants' practice and spirituality of living in right relationship with the natural world. We will immerse ourselves directly in the land and learn practical outdoor skills needed to be comfortable interacting more closely with nature, as well as learn contemplative disciplines that support intimacy with God through Creation. Discussion topics will include spiritually grounded environmental stewardship, ecological justice, and the building of sustainable culture. This retreat is designed to be accessible to those with little outdoor experience.

Background Screening Program

Trinity values the safety of the community we serve, our employees, and our volunteers. To further safeguard the vulnerable populations we serve, other members of our community, and our volunteers, Trinity is now requiring background screenings for all lay leaders and volunteers. This policy is informed by best practices among religious and non-profit communities nationwide. For more information, a list of questions and answers about the process can be found at trinitywallstreet.org/faq-background-screenings. Please contact Michael Fonteboa at mfonteboa@trinitywallstreet.org or 212.300.9904 to set up your screening or to ask any further questions.

Volunteers Needed: Kianga House

In 2017, parishioners began a relationship with Kianga House, a shelter in Crown Heights that is home to 17-19 families, including mothers with 1-2 children (birth through age 9, but mostly under 2). Kianga is Swahili for “ray of light.” This winter, volunteers are needed to read to the children while their mothers are in GED, job readiness, and parenting classes. All volunteers will be required to undergo a background check. For more information about Kianga House and other volunteer opportunities, email Trinity.Kianga@gmail.com.

The Sisters are In

10:30-11:45am, weekdays, Trinity Church

Five days a week, for an hour each day, a Sister of St. Margaret sits quietly in a pew, waiting for anyone who needs to talk, pray, or just sit quietly with someone. “Sister Gloria and I share this ministry,” Sister Ann Whittaker, SSM, said. “I firmly believe people in the world need someone to listen to them in a non-judgmental way. But it also takes courage for the person speaking to come and do it!”

Congregational Voice

“All people will know that you are my followers if you love each other” (John 13:35). Jesus never said we have to agree about everything. What he cared about most was love. Take a faith step. Resist the temptation of a critical spirit. Use your voice to speak truth in love and kindness today.

—Sheila Huggins

Green Notes—“Nature’s Testimony”

Spring comes again upon the land with many forms, varied stages.
Buds do break forth, at God’s command.
Cycle repeats throughout the ages.
Every blossom, flower strewn hill;
it comes to be by God’s own will.
Each new lily raised to the sky
of a good Creator does testify.

—Carol Connell

This is a service of Holy Eucharist according to Rite II, which begins on page 355 of the Book of Common Prayer (BCP). Scripture readings are appointed by the Revised Common Lectionary and are excerpted from the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible. Psalm texts are taken from the St. Helena Psalter. Hymns come from The Hymnal 1982, Lift Every Voice and Sing (LEVAS), and Wonder, Love, and Praise (WLP). Other service elements may also come from additional sources as noted, including Enriching Our Worship (EOW), All Desires Known (ADK) by Janet Morley, and Planning for Rites and Rituals: Year B (PRR).
