

THE NATIVITY OF OUR LORD:
CHRISTMAS DAY

HOLY EUCHARIST RITE II
DECEMBER 25, 2018, 11:15AM

ST. PAUL'S CHAPEL

BROADWAY AND FULTON STREET, NEW YORK CITY

MISSION

In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

VISION

We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

CORE VALUES

Faith

“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —MATTHEW 17:20

Integrity

“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —PHILIPPIANS 4:8

Inclusiveness

“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —GALATIANS 3:28

Compassion

“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.” —MATTHEW 14:14

Social Justice

“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.” —MICAH 6:8

Stewardship

“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —GENESIS 41:29–30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.

By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.

WELCOME TO ST. PAUL'S CHAPEL

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus' Table, and everyone's voice is needed to tell the Good News of God's love in Christ. Please help others find a place near you, and greet the person next to you as we prepare to worship together.

If you would like to learn more about the Episcopal Church, or how you can become a member of Trinity Church, please visit www.trinitywallstreet.org/membership.

ABOUT THIS SERVICE

The celebration of Christ's incarnation at Christmas together with the celebration of Christ's resurrection at Easter are the two celebrations that anchor the Christian year. At Christmas, we celebrate the mystery of God's coming to dwell among us in the fullness of humanity as Emmanuel—God-with-us—foretold by the prophets and born of Mary.

The Church has kept a festival celebration of the birth of our Lord since the third century, and, from that time, cherished traditions have shaped our annual celebrations. The Christmas crèche and the Nativity pageant can both be said to derive from the tableau of Christ's birth that St. Francis arranged in the cave at Greccio, Italy, in 1223. Christmas carols are a medieval tradition that was enthusiastically revived and developed in the 19th century.

Christmas is a season and is often celebrated for 12 days, ending with the Feast of the Epiphany and the Adoration of the Magi on January 6. Contemporary liturgical practice is restoring an alternative tradition in which Christmas lasts for a full 40 days, ending with the Feast of the Presentation of Our Lord Jesus in the Temple—also called Candlemas—on February 2. These 40 days, together with Advent, make up the Season of the Incarnation.

We trust that your participation in our celebrations of the birth of Jesus Christ will lead you to reaffirm the wonder of God alive in the midst of history, all the evidence to the contrary notwithstanding. And we pray that the Child of the manger whose advent among us we celebrate will rule in our hearts as Living Lord and reign over our lives as Servant-King.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

THE FIRST READING

Isaiah 62:6-12

Reader A Reading from the Book of Isaiah.

Upon your walls, O Jerusalem, I have posted sentinels; all day and all night they shall never be silent. You who remind the LORD, take no rest, and give him no rest until he establishes Jerusalem and makes it renowned throughout the earth. The LORD has sworn by his right hand and by his mighty arm: I will not again give your grain to be food for your enemies, and foreigners shall not drink the wine for which you have labored; but those who garner it shall eat it and praise the LORD, and those who gather it shall drink it in my holy courts.

Go through, go through the gates, prepare the way for the people; build up, build up the highway, clear it of stones, lift up an ensign over the peoples. The LORD has proclaimed to the end of the earth: Say to daughter Zion, "See, your salvation comes; his reward is with him, and his recompense before him." They shall be called, "The Holy People, The Redeemed of the LORD"; and you shall be called, "Sought Out, A City Not Forsaken."

People Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.
Thanks be to God.

THE PSALM

Psalm 97:1-2, 8-12

Edward Cuthbert Bairstow (1874-1946)

Sung by the choir.

Choir

You reign, O God; let the earth rejoice; *
let the multitude of the isles be glad.
Clouds and darkness are round about you; *
righteousness and justice are the foundations of your throne.
Zion hears and is glad, and the cities of Judah rejoice, *
because of your judgments, O God.
For you are God,
most high over all the earth; *
you are exalted far above all gods.
You love those who hate evil; *
you preserve the lives of your saints and deliver them from the hand of the wicked.
Light has sprung up for the righteous * and joyful gladness for those who are truehearted.
Rejoice in God, you righteous, *
and give thanks to God's holy Name.

THE SECOND READING

Titus 3:4-7

Reader

A Reading from the Letter of Paul to Titus.

When the goodness and loving kindness of God our Savior appeared, he saved us, not because of any works of righteousness that we had done, but according to his mercy, through the water of rebirth and renewal by the Holy Spirit. This Spirit he poured out on us richly through Jesus Christ our Savior, so that, having been justified by his grace, we might become heirs according to the hope of eternal life.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People

Thanks be to God.

THE HOLY GOSPEL

Luke 2:8-20

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Deacon In that region there were shepherds living in the fields, keeping watch over their flock by night. Then an angel of the Lord stood before them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified. But the angel said to them, “Do not be afraid; for see—I am bringing you good news of great joy for all the people: to you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is the Messiah, the Lord. This will be a sign for you: you will find a child wrapped in bands of cloth and lying in a manger.” And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God and saying, “Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace among those whom he favors!”

When the angels had left them and gone into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, “Let us go now to Bethlehem and see this thing that has taken place, which the Lord has made known to us.” So they went with haste and found Mary and Joseph, and the child lying in the manger. When they saw this, they made known what had been told them about this child; and all who heard it were amazed at what the shepherds told them. But Mary treasured all these words and pondered them in her heart. The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all they had heard and seen, as it had been told them.

The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

composed by Bruce Jenneker

Reader On this holy day, as we give thanks for the birth of our Savior Jesus Christ, let us pray, saying:

O holy child of Bethlehem:

People We worship and adore you.

Reader Lord Jesus Christ, you were born in a stable: give courage to all who are homeless and all who live in poverty. Use us and our resources to create a world in which everyone has a place, everyone is fed, and no one is left out.

O holy child of Bethlehem:

People We worship and adore you.

Reader Lord Jesus Christ, the angels sang to announce the wonder of your birth: give the song of the kingdom to all who are overburdened and cast down. Use us to proclaim in word and deed the good news of your love and your grace.

O holy child of Bethlehem:

People We worship and adore you.

Reader Lord Jesus Christ, the shepherds came from their fields to worship you: give the joy of your presence to your Church throughout the world. Bless the Pope and the Roman Catholic Church, the Ecumenical Patriarch and the Orthodox Churches, the Protestant Churches among all people, and their leaders. Give your special grace to Justin the Archbishop of Canterbury; Michael our Presiding Bishop; Andrew, Allen, and Mary, our Bishops; and all the bishops, clergy, and people. Make your Church a bold witness of your love.

People O holy child of Bethlehem:
We worship and adore you.

Reader Lord Jesus Christ, the sages from the East knelt before you in humble adoration: give humility and wisdom to all who govern, especially Donald our President, Andrew our Governor, and Bill our Mayor.

People O holy child of Bethlehem:
We worship and adore you.

Reader Lord Jesus Christ, you are God's forgiving compassion and the tender love of God that seeks and finds us when we are lost; in your mercy forgive us our sins and offenses.

People O holy child of Bethlehem:
We worship and adore you.

Reader Lord Jesus Christ, your radiance filled a lowly manger: give the glory of your resurrection to all who rest in you, especially those whom we still love but see no longer, our relatives and friends who have passed from this life to the next. Prepare us for that happy place that where they live in eternal joy with you, we may also one day be.

People O holy child of Bethlehem:
We worship and adore you.

Celebrant Lord Jesus, Holy Child of Mary and our loving Savior, you know us and love us: bless our lives with your presence and your grace.

All For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and for ever. Amen.

Mary Had a Baby

Spiritual, arr. William L. Dawson (1899-1994)

Mary had a baby, My Lord!
Where was He born?
Born in a manger.
What did they call Him?
"King Jesus," He was called "King Jesus."
Mary had a Baby, oh, yes!
He is called "King Jesus,"
"Mighty Counselor,"
"King Emmanuel,"
"Mighty God,"
"Everlasting Father,"
"Prince of Peace."

And so, Father, we who have been redeemed by Christ, and made a new people by water and the Spirit, now bring before you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ our Lord.

On the night he was betrayed Jesus took bread, said the blessing, broke the bread, and gave it to his friends, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper, he took the cup of wine, gave thanks, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Remembering now his work of redemption, and offering to you this sacrifice of thanksgiving,

All

We celebrate his death and resurrection, as we await the day of his coming.

Celebrant

Lord God of our holy and righteous forebears; God and Mother of Israel; God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ: Open our eyes to see your hand at work in the world about us. Deliver us from the presumption of coming to this Table for solace only, and not for strength; for pardon only, and not for renewal.

Let the grace of this Holy Communion make us one body, one spirit in Christ, that we may worthily serve the world in his name.

People

Risen Lord, be known to us in the breaking of the Bread.

Celebrant

Accept these prayers and praises, Father, through Jesus Christ our great High Priest, to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit, your Church gives honor, glory, and worship, from generation to generation.

Core Value of Stewardship

2019 LIVING THE VALUES QUIET RETREATS

Take some time away from the daily busyness to contemplate Trinity's core values—faith, integrity, inclusiveness, compassion, social justice, and stewardship—and how you express these values in your everyday living. We'll begin with thought-provoking teaching, then spend time in prayerful introspection and quiet exercises with poetry and art, meditation, and natural woodland beauty, all fueled by delicious, wholesome farm-to-table meals. You'll come away renewed and inspired, and ready to live your values more fully in the world.
