The Day of Pentecost

May 23, 2021, 11:15am

Mission

In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

Vision

We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

Core Values

Faith

“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —MATTHEW 17:20

Integrity

“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —PHILIPPIANS 4:8

Inclusiveness

“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —GALATIANS 3:28

Compassion

“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.”
—MATTHEW 14:14

Social Justice

“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.”
—MICAH 6:8

Stewardship

“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —GENESIS 41:29-30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.

By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.

Welcome to Trinity Church

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus' Table, and everyone's voice is needed to tell the Good News of God's love in Christ.

About this Service

Pentecost

Pentecost, celebrated fifty days after Easter Sunday, is one of the principal feasts of The Episcopal Church, and is commonly regarded as the birthday of the broader Christian Church. On this day, as described in the reading from Acts appointed for the Day of Pentecost, Jesus sent the Holy Spirit—the third person of the Trinity—to his disciples, as he had foretold in his teaching. As is common with many feast days pertaining to Jesus' apostles, it is customary to wear red vestments to symbolize the “tongues, as of fire” that inspired them to preach the Gospel in other languages.

Pentecost is also one of the four holy days (along with the Easter Vigil, The Baptism of Our Lord, and All Saints' Day) especially suitable for Holy Baptism; therefore, on this day we are invited to renew our baptismal vows during the service.

The First Reading

Ezekiel 37:1-14

Reader

A Reading from the Book of Ezekiel.

The hand of the LORD came upon me, and he brought me out by the spirit of the LORD and set me down in the middle of a valley; it was full of bones. He led me all around them; there were very many lying in the valley, and they were very dry. He said to me, "Mortal, can these bones live?" I answered, "O Lord GOD, you know." Then he said to me, "Prophesy to these bones, and say to them: O dry bones, hear the word of the LORD. Thus says the Lord GOD to these bones: I will cause breath to enter you, and you shall live. I will lay sinews on you, and will cause flesh to come upon you, and cover you with skin, and put breath in you, and you shall live; and you shall know that I am the LORD."

So I prophesied as I had been commanded; and as I prophesied, suddenly there was a noise, a rattling, and the bones came together, bone to its bone. I looked, and there were sinews on them, and flesh had come upon them, and skin had covered them; but there was no breath in them. Then he said to me, "Prophesy to the breath, prophesy, mortal, and say to the breath: Thus says the Lord GOD: Come from the four winds, O breath, and breathe upon these slain, that they may live." I prophesied as he commanded me, and the breath came into them, and they lived, and stood on their feet, a vast multitude.

Then he said to me, "Mortal, these bones are the whole house of Israel. They say, 'Our bones are dried up, and our hope is lost; we are cut off completely.' Therefore prophesy, and say to them, Thus says the Lord GOD: I am going to open your graves, and bring you up from your graves, O my people; and I will bring you back to the land of Israel. And you shall know that I am the LORD, when I open your graves, and bring you up from your graves, O my people. I will put my spirit within you, and you shall live, and I will place you on your own soil; then you shall know that I, the LORD, have spoken and will act," says the LORD.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People

Thanks be to God.

The Psalm

Psalm 104:25–35, 37

BCP p. 736

Said by all, with musical accompaniment.

All O LORD, how manifold are your works! *
 in wisdom you have made them all;
 the earth is full of your creatures.
Yonder is the great and wide sea with its living things too many to number, *
 creatures both small and great.
There move the ships,
and there is that Leviathan, *
 which you have made for the sport of it.
All of them look to you *
 to give them their food in due season.
You give it to them; they gather it; *
 you open your hand, and they are filled with good things.
You hide your face, and they are terrified; *
 you take away their breath,
 and they die and return to their dust.
You send forth your Spirit, and they are created; *
 and so you renew the face of the earth.
May the glory of the LORD endure for ever; *
 may the LORD rejoice in all his works.
He looks at the earth and it trembles; *
 he touches the mountains and they smoke.
I will sing to the LORD as long as I live; *
 I will praise my God while I have my being.
May these words of mine please him; *
 I will rejoice in the LORD.
Bless the LORD, O my soul. *
 Hallelujah!

The Second Reading

Acts 2:1–21

Read in several languages.

|------------------------------|--|
| Reader | A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles. |
| Chinese and Taiwanese | When the day of Pentecost had come, the apostles were all together in one place. And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability. |
| German | Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem. And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each. Amazed and astonished, they asked, “Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language?” |
| Spanish | “Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabs—in our own languages we hear them speaking about God’s deeds of power.” All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, “What does this mean?” |
| Tagalog | But others sneered and said, “They are filled with new wine.” But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them, “Men of Judea and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say. Indeed, these are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only nine o’clock in the morning. No, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel: |
| English | ‘In the last days it will be, God declares, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh, and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams. Even upon my slaves, both men and women, in those days I will pour out my Spirit; and they shall prophesy. And I will show portents in the heaven above and signs on the earth below, blood, and fire, and smoky mist. The sun shall be turned to darkness and the moon to blood, before the coming of the Lord’s great and glorious day. Then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.’” |
| | Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people. |
| People | Thanks be to God. |

The Holy Gospel

John 15:26–27, 16:4b–15

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Deacon Jesus said to his disciples, “When the Advocate comes, whom I will send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth who comes from the Father, he will testify on my behalf. You also are to testify because you have been with me from the beginning.

“I did not say these things to you from the beginning, because I was with you. But now I am going to him who sent me; yet none of you asks me, ‘Where are you going?’ But because I have said these things to you, sorrow has filled your hearts. Nevertheless I tell you the truth: it is to your advantage that I go away, for if I do not go away, the Advocate will not come to you; but if I go, I will send him to you. And when he comes, he will prove the world wrong about sin and righteousness and judgment: about sin, because they do not believe in me; about righteousness, because I am going to the Father and you will see me no longer; about judgment, because the ruler of this world has been condemned.

“I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth; for he will not speak on his own, but will speak whatever he hears, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. He will glorify me, because he will take what is mine and declare it to you. All that the Father has is mine. For this reason I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Celebrant Through the Paschal mystery, dear friends, we are buried with Christ by Baptism into his death, and raised with him to newness of life. I call upon you, therefore, to renew the solemn promises and vows of Holy Baptism, by which we once renounced Satan and all his works, and promised to serve God faithfully in his holy catholic Church.

He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary.
He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried.

On the third day he rose again.
He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again to judge the living and the dead.

Celebrant Do you believe in God the Holy Spirit?
People I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting.

Celebrant Will you continue in the apostles' teaching and fellowship, in the breaking of bread, and in the prayers?

People I will, with God's help.

Celebrant Will you persevere in resisting evil, and, whenever you fall into sin, repent and return to the Lord?

People I will, with God's help.

Celebrant Will you proclaim by word and example the Good News of God in Christ?

People I will, with God's help.

Celebrant Will you seek and serve Christ in all persons, loving your neighbor as yourself?

People I will, with God's help.

Celebrant Will you strive for justice and peace among all people, and respect the dignity of every human being?

People I will, with God's help.

Celebrant May Almighty God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has given us a new birth by water and the Holy Spirit, and bestowed upon us the forgiveness of sins, keep us in eternal life by his grace, in Christ Jesus our Lord.

All Amen.

Ev'ry Time I Feel the Spirit

arr. Harry T. Burleigh (1866-1949)

Ev'ry time I feel the Spirit
Moving in my heart, I will pray.
Ev'ry time I feel the Spirit
Moving in my heart, I will pray.

Up on the mountain my Lord spoke,
Out of His mouth came fire and smoke.
Jordan River chilly and cold,
Chills the body but not the soul.

Oh ev'ry time I feel the Spirit
Moving in my heart, I will pray.

All around me look so shine,
Ask my Lord if all was mine.
Ain't but one train runs this track,
It runs to Heaven and runs right back.

Oh ev'ry time I feel the Spirit
Moving in my heart, I will pray. I will pray.

The Great Thanksgiving

BCP p. 367/p. 380

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, through Jesus Christ our Lord. In fulfillment of his true promise, the Holy Spirit came down on this day from heaven, lighting upon the disciples, to teach them and to lead them into all truth; uniting peoples of many tongues in the confession of one faith, and giving to your Church the power to serve you as a royal priesthood, and to preach the Gospel to all nations.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus

BCP p. 367

All Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

Please continue standing or kneel as you are able.

Celebrant We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

All We remember his death,
We proclaim his resurrection,
We await his coming in glory;

Celebrant And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

All AMEN.

The Lord's Prayer

BCP p. 364

Celebrant And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

All Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

The Fraction and Invitation

BCP p. 364

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread. Silence is kept.

Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God.
Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

A Prayer for Spiritual Communion

SAPB p. 145*

In the Episcopal tradition, we believe that when circumstances make it impossible to consume the Eucharistic elements, our desire is enough for God to grant all the benefits of communion.

Leader I invite all those who are unable to receive the consecrated bread and wine this day, but who long for the grace and blessing of God through our Savior Jesus Christ, to join me in this Prayer for Spiritual Communion:

Said by those who will not receive Communion today.

People In union, Blessed Jesus, with your faithful people at every altar of your Church where the Holy Eucharist is now being celebrated,
I offer my praise and thanksgiving.
Since I cannot receive you today in the Sacrament of your Body and Blood,
I ask you to come spiritually into my heart.
Cleanse and strengthen me with your grace, Lord Jesus,
and let me never be separated from you.
May I live in you, and you in me,
in this life and in the life to come. Amen.

Please be seated.

After the prayer, please remain in your seat.

Clergy will distribute communion in one kind—bread only—and will come directly to you where you are seated.

Please stand to receive the host.

At Communion

I Know that My Redeemer Liveth

George Frideric Handel (1685-1759)

I know that my Redeemer liveth, and that He shall stand at the latter day upon the earth.
And though worms destroy this body, yet in my flesh shall I see God.
For now is Christ risen from the dead, the firstfruits of them that sleep.

Creative and Spiritual Journaling 6:30pm, Online

The Way of Words & Images

Bring to life the words and images that come from within and around you to nurture and strengthen your spirit and well-being. Journaling is a powerful way to record, reflect on, and become a witness to your own experience, healing, and sense of self. We will play with writing reflections, stories, questions, lists, poems, letters, and dialogues. We will also access our creative expression and spirit through drawings, self-portraits, images, collages, and scribbles that unite our hands, hearts, and minds. No artistic or writing experience needed. Facilitator: Julia Kristeller, MEd, of Psychotherapy & Spirituality Institute. Register at trinitywallstreet.org/commonsprograms.

COMING SOON

Pride Month

June

As an Episcopal church, Trinity Church Wall Street fully welcomes and affirms lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, and queer (LGBTQ+) people. We claim that all are made in the image of God, and everyone is invited to participate fully in Trinity's worship, programs, and advocacy work. Throughout the year, we share stories of leading LGBTQ+ advocates through articles, videos, and events as part of our Pride 365 program. And, each June, our community marks Pride Month, inviting everyone to celebrate and recognize the glorious way in which God has created the diversity of humanity. Learn more and see the schedule at trinitywallstreet.org/pride.

Pride365: Allyship with The Center

Wednesday, June 2, 11am, Online

A recent study conducted by The Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual & Transgender Center showed that companies suffer when their employees are not fully themselves at work. This common reality forces employees to adjust their actions and words to make their non-LGBTQ+ peers comfortable. By defining what it means to be an ally, reflecting on personal experiences, and outlining the impact allies can have on their peers, this workshop leaves participating employees with skills to make actionable change in their workplace environments to foster inclusivity. Co-sponsored by The Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual & Transgender Center. Information: trinitywallstreet.org/pride.

Summer Sundays with Discovery

Starting Sunday, June 6, 10am, Online

The Gospel of Mark

Join us this summer as we explore together the Gospel of Mark! For three special Sundays (June 6, July 11, and August 8), Discovery will hear from Dr. Peter Ajer, Professor of New Testament at Church

Services from Trinity Retreat Center

Join Trinity Retreat Center online for weekly services streamed live from the center's Facebook page.

Candlelight Compline | Mondays–Fridays, 8pm | This service to end the day takes place in our stone chapel and other sacred spaces at the retreat center. In the midst of our anxiety, fear, sickness, and turmoil, we invite you to enter the darkness of each night with hope, peace, solidarity, unity, and contemplation on God's everlasting love.

The River: Poetry in Practice Weekly | Mondays, 5:30pm, through May | Dr. Kathy Bozzuti-Jones, a spiritual director and mentor, introduces a guided mindfulness practice, brief reflection on a contemporary poem, and journal prompts for spiritual seekers in a prayerful half-hour format.

Sacred Pause: Saturday Prayers | Saturdays, 12pm | Join the Rev. Dr. Mark Bozzuti-Jones and Joseph Rose for prayer time, based on The Book of Common Prayer's "An Order of Service for Noonday," live-streamed from the stone chapel and other sacred spaces.

Divinity School of the Pacific, as he gives us a “Bible toolkit” for thinking about the Gospel of Mark, its Ancient Near Eastern context, and how Mark still speaks to us today. For all other Sundays in the summer, we will look at stories, parables, and verses in Mark with discussion moderated by Trinity parishioners and staff. This series is designed for all to participate at any point throughout the summer. Register at trinitywallstreet.org/discovery.

Pride365: Intersectionality with The Center Thursday, June 24, 11am, Online

Members of the LGBTQ+ workforce come from various backgrounds with different lived experiences and are not just defined by their sexual orientation or gender identity. In order to foster a truly inclusive environment, employees must be encouraged to be their full selves at work, and collaborate with colleagues across a multitude of identities. This workshop helps employees appreciate the diversity of others that extends beyond sexual orientation and gender identity—and become more deeply sensitive to the value that intersectionality can bring to a team and workplace. Co-sponsored by The Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual & Transgender Center. Information: trinitywallstreet.org/pride.

Congregational Voice

“So in everything, do to others what you would have them do to you, for this sums up the Law and the Prophets” (Matthew 7:12 NIV). If we lived that philosophy, just think about all the injustices and acts of inhumanity that would be greatly reduced or eliminated. Prejudice, racism, bigotry, disrespect. Human life would be as beautiful as the landscape God has provided throughout the world. —Tommy Gregory
