The First Day of Lent:

Ash Wednesday

March 2, 2022, 8am

Mission

In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

Vision

We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

Core Values

Faith

“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —MATTHEW 17:20

Integrity

“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —PHILIPPIANS 4:8

Inclusiveness

“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —GALATIANS 3:28

Compassion

“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.”
—MATTHEW 14:14

Social Justice

“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.”
—MICAH 6:8

Stewardship

“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —GENESIS 41:29-30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.

By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.

Welcome to Trinity Church

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus' Table, and everyone's voice is needed to tell the Good News of God's love in Christ.

About this Service

Ash Wednesday

Ash Wednesday marks the first day of Lent. The Book of Common Prayer prescribes a specific order of service for the day, called a proper liturgy, which features an invitation to prayer and penitence. The Litany offers special intercessions of contrition, and replaces the customary Confession, Absolution, and Prayers of the People.

The season of Lent—from an Old English word meaning “spring”—spans 40 days: from Ash Wednesday through Holy Saturday, excluding Sundays. Traditionally, this time of year has been a period of solemn preparation, self-examination, and repentance. Remembering the time Jesus spent in the wilderness before beginning his ministry, some Christians adopt Lenten disciplines: giving up an item of food, taking on a prayer or devotional practice, taking a technology fast, or simply setting aside time each day to be present with God and those they love.

Lenten liturgy is characterized by solemnity and simplicity. The Gloria and the word alleluia are omitted and will not return until the Great Vigil of Easter. At Trinity Church, a “Lenten array” of red, black, and rough linen fabric characterizes the vestments during this season.

The Entrance Rite

All in attendance are required to wear masks while inside Trinity Church.

Prelude

The Word of God

Procession

At the sound of the bell, please stand as you are able.

The ministers enter in silence.

The Collect of the Day

BCP p. 264

Officiant God be with you.

People And also with you.

Officiant Let us pray.

Almighty and everlasting God, you hate nothing you have made and forgive the sins of all who are penitent: Create and make in us new and contrite hearts, that we, worthily lamenting our sins and acknowledging our wretchedness, may obtain of you, the God of all mercy, perfect remission and forgiveness; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

All Amen.

Please be seated.

The First Reading

Joel 2:1-2, 12-17

Reader A Reading from the Book of Joel.

Blow the trumpet in Zion; sound the alarm on my holy mountain! Let all the inhabitants of the land tremble, for the day of the LORD is coming, it is near—a day of darkness and gloom, a day of clouds and thick darkness! Like blackness spread upon the mountains a great and powerful army comes; their like has never been from of old, nor will be again after them in ages to come.

Yet even now, says the LORD, return to me with all your heart, with fasting, with weeping, and with mourning; rend your hearts and not your clothing. Return to the LORD, your God, for he is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and abounding in steadfast love, and relents from punishing. Who knows whether he will not turn and relent, and leave a blessing behind him, a grain offering and a drink offering for the LORD, your God?

Blow the trumpet in Zion; sanctify a fast; call a solemn assembly; gather the people. Sanctify the congregation; assemble the aged; gather the children, even infants at the breast. Let the bridegroom leave his room, and the bride her canopy. Between the vestibule and the altar let the priests, the ministers of the LORD, weep. Let them say, “Spare your people, O LORD, and do not make your heritage a mockery, a byword among the nations. Why should it be said among the peoples, ‘Where is their God?’”

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

People Thanks be to God.

The Psalm

Psalm 103:8-14

BCP p. 733

Said antiphonally, alternating between the Leader and People.

People The LORD is full of compassion and mercy, *
slow to anger and of great kindness.

Leader He will not always accuse us, *
nor will he keep his anger for ever.

People He has not dealt with us according to our sins, *
nor rewarded us according to our wickedness.

Leader For as the heavens are high above the earth, *
so is his mercy great upon those who fear him.

People As far as the east is from the west, *
so far has he removed our sins from us.

Leader As a father cares for his children, *
so does the LORD care for those who fear him.

People For he himself knows whereof we are made; *
he remembers that we are but dust.

The Second Reading

2 Corinthians 5:20b—6:10

Reader

A Reading from the Second Letter of Paul to the Corinthians.

We entreat you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God. For our sake he made him to be sin who knew no sin, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God.

As we work together with him, we urge you also not to accept the grace of God in vain. For he says,

“At an acceptable time I have listened to you,
and on a day of salvation I have helped you.”

See, now is the acceptable time; see, now is the day of salvation! We are putting no obstacle in anyone’s way, so that no fault may be found with our ministry, but as servants of God we have commended ourselves in every way: through great endurance, in afflictions, hardships, calamities, beatings, imprisonments, riots, labors, sleepless nights, hunger; by purity, knowledge, patience, kindness, holiness of spirit, genuine love, truthful speech, and the power of God; with the weapons of righteousness for the right hand and for the left; in honor and dishonor, in ill repute and good repute. We are treated as impostors, and yet are true; as unknown, and yet are well known; as dying, and see—we are alive; as punished, and yet not killed; as sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing everything.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

People

Thanks be to God.

The Holy Gospel

Matthew 6:1-6, 16-21

Please stand as you are able.

Preacher The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Preacher Jesus said, “Beware of practicing your piety before others in order to be seen by them; for then you have no reward from your Father in heaven.

“So whenever you give alms, do not sound a trumpet before you, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, so that they may be praised by others. Truly I tell you, they have received their reward. But when you give alms, do not let your left hand know what your right hand is doing, so that your alms may be done in secret; and your Father who sees in secret will reward you.

“And whenever you pray, do not be like the hypocrites; for they love to stand and pray in the synagogues and at the street corners, so that they may be seen by others. Truly I tell you, they have received their reward. But whenever you pray, go into your room and shut the door and pray to your Father who is in secret; and your Father who sees in secret will reward you.

“And whenever you fast, do not look dismal, like the hypocrites, for they disfigure their faces so as to show others that they are fasting. Truly I tell you, they have received their reward. But when you fast, put oil on your head and wash your face, so that your fasting may be seen not by others but by your Father who is in secret; and your Father who sees in secret will reward you.

“Do not store up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust consume and where thieves break in and steal; but store up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust consumes and where thieves do not break in and steal. For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon

The Rev. Matthew A. Welsch
Priest and Director, Youth and Community Care

Invitation to the Observance of a Holy Lent

BCP p. 264

Please stand as you are able.

Officiant Dear People of God: The first Christians observed with great devotion the days of our Lord's passion and resurrection, and it became the custom of the Church to prepare for them by a season of penitence and fasting. This season of Lent provided a time in which converts to the faith were prepared for Holy Baptism. It was also a time when those who, because of notorious sins, had been separated from the body of the faithful were reconciled by penitence and forgiveness, and restored to the fellowship of the Church. Thereby, the whole congregation was put in mind of the message of pardon and absolution set forth in the Gospel of our Savior, and of the need which all Christians continually have to renew their repentance and faith.

I invite you, therefore, in the name of the Church, to the observance of a holy Lent, by self-examination and repentance; by prayer, fasting, and self-denial; and by reading and meditating on God's holy Word. And, to make a right beginning of repentance, and as a mark of our mortal nature, let us now kneel before the Lord, our maker and redeemer.

Please kneel as you are able.

Silence is kept.

Blessing of Ashes

BCP p. 265

Please continue kneeling as you are able.

The Officiant stands to pray over the ashes.

Officiant Almighty God, you have created us out of the dust of the earth: Grant that these ashes may be to us a sign of our mortality and penitence, that we may remember that it is only by your gracious gift that we are given everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Savior.

All Amen.

Imposition of Ashes

BCP p. 265

Please be seated.

Ushers will guide all who wish to come forward for the imposition of ashes.

The ashes are imposed with the following words:

Minister Remember that you are dust, and to dust you shall return.

The Psalm

Psalm 51

BCP p. 656

Said by all.

All Have mercy on me, O God, according to your loving-kindness; *
in your great compassion blot out my offenses.

Wash me through and through from my wickedness *
and cleanse me from my sin.

For I know my transgressions, *
and my sin is ever before me.

Against you only have I sinned *
and done what is evil in your sight.

And so you are justified when you speak *
and upright in your judgment.

Indeed, I have been wicked from my birth, *
a sinner from my mother's womb.

For behold, you look for truth deep within me, *
and will make me understand wisdom secretly.

Purge me from my sin, and I shall be pure; *
wash me, and I shall be clean indeed.

Make me hear of joy and gladness, *
that the body you have broken may rejoice.

Hide your face from my sins *
and blot out all my iniquities.

Create in me a clean heart, O God, *
and renew a right spirit within me.

Cast me not away from your presence * and take not your holy Spirit from me.

Give me the joy of your saving help again *
and sustain me with your bountiful Spirit.

I shall teach your ways to the wicked, *
and sinners shall return to you.

Deliver me from death, O God, *
and my tongue shall sing of your righteousness,
O God of my salvation.

Open my lips, O Lord, *
and my mouth shall proclaim your praise.

Had you desired it, I would have offered sacrifice, *
but you take no delight in burnt-offerings.

The sacrifice of God is a troubled spirit; *
a broken and contrite heart, O God, you will not despise.

Be favorable and gracious to Zion, *
and rebuild the walls of Jerusalem.

Then you will be pleased with the appointed sacrifices,
with burnt-offerings and oblations; *
then shall they offer young bullocks upon your altar.

Litany of Penitence

BCP p. 267

Please kneel as you are able.

The Officiant kneels.

- All Most holy and merciful Father:
We confess to you and to one another,
and to the whole communion of saints
in heaven and on earth,
that we have sinned by our own fault
in thought, word, and deed;
by what we have done, and by what we have left undone.
- Officiant* We have not loved you with our whole heart, and mind, and strength. We have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We have not forgiven others, as we have been forgiven.
- People* Have mercy on us, Lord.
- Officiant* We have been deaf to your call to serve, as Christ served us. We have not been true to the mind of Christ. We have grieved your Holy Spirit.
- People* Have mercy on us, Lord.
- Officiant* We confess to you, Lord, all our past unfaithfulness: the pride, hypocrisy, and impatience of our lives,
- People* We confess to you, Lord.
- Officiant* Our self-indulgent appetites and ways, and our exploitation of other people,
- People* We confess to you, Lord.
- Officiant* Our anger at our own frustration, and our envy of those more fortunate than ourselves,
- People* We confess to you, Lord.
- Officiant* Our intemperate love of worldly goods and comforts, and our dishonesty in daily life and work,
- People* We confess to you, Lord.
- Officiant* Our negligence in prayer and worship, and our failure to commend the faith that is in us,
- People* We confess to you, Lord.
- Officiant* Accept our repentance, Lord, for the wrongs we have done: for our blindness to human need and suffering, and our indifference to injustice and cruelty,
- People* Accept our repentance, Lord.
- Officiant* For all false judgments, for uncharitable thoughts toward our neighbors, and for our prejudice and contempt toward those who differ from us,
- People* Accept our repentance, Lord.
- Officiant* For our waste and pollution of your creation, and our lack of concern for those who come after us,
- People* Accept our repentance, Lord.
- Officiant* Restore us, good Lord, and let your anger depart from us;
- People* Favorably hear us, for your mercy is great.

Officiant Accomplish in us the work of your salvation,
People That we may show forth your glory in the world.

Officiant By the cross and passion of your Son our Lord,
People Bring us with all your saints to the joy of his resurrection.

Please continue kneeling as you are able.

The Officiant stands.

Officiant Almighty God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who desires not the death of sinners, but rather that they may turn from their wickedness and live, has given power and commandment to his ministers to declare and pronounce to his people, being penitent, the absolution and remission of their sins. He pardons and absolves all those who truly repent, and with sincere hearts believe his holy Gospel.

Therefore we beseech him to grant us true repentance and his Holy Spirit, that those things may please him which we do on this day, and that the rest of our life hereafter may be pure and holy, so that at the last we may come to his eternal joy; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

The Blessing

BOS p. 25/BCP p. 339*

Please stand as you are able.

Officiant Grant, most merciful Lord, to your faithful people pardon and peace, that they may be cleansed from all their sins, and serve you with a quiet mind; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you, and remain with you always.

All Amen.

Dismissal

BCP p. 366

After the Dismissal, you are welcome to leave quietly through the north vestibule (to your left as you depart).

Please maintain safe distances.

If you would like to remain in your seat to listen to the Postlude, please do.

Preacher Let us bless the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Karla Chee-a-tow is the CEO of The Akasha Company and a Founding Partner of the digital music platform DiscJoc. She has a bachelor's degree (Honors) in Arts Management & Performing Arts from De Monfort University (UK); a master's degree in Music Business from New York University; and a master's in Law from Champlain College (USA) and is a graduate of the BRIT School (UK).

Karla worked with Oscar-nominated director John Sayles and producer Maggie Renzi on the film "Honeydrinker" and appeared in the film "Toss It," which was written, directed, and produced by Michelle Remsen. In addition to working with various theatrical groups, arts organizations, musicians, and artists, including multimedia artist Maya Milenovic Workman and double bass jazz legend Reggie Workman, she has worked for the Royal Shakespeare Company, V2 Records (Virgin Group), and AM Only (Paradigm).

Alistair Cree

Alistair Cree has attended Trinity since he first moved to New York in 2014. He has previously served as Council Secretary, and as chair of the Council's Education Standing Committee. Alistair is an active member of Trinity's Young Adults and Gospel, Times, Journal, and

You groups. He has previously participated in EfM, and Trinity's 2019 Holy Land pilgrimage. Alistair works at Amazon, where he leads the product management team for Amazon Go. He earned his BA in Natural Sciences from the University of Cambridge in 2011.

Saratu Ghartey

Saratu Grace Ghartey joined Trinity in 2017 and regularly attends the 9:15am Family Service. She is a co-chair of the Families with Children subcommittee, which plans programs for Trinity's families under the Education Committee.

Professionally, Saratu serves as the First Deputy Commissioner for New York City's Human Resources Administration (HRA/Department of Social Services). HRA is the largest local social services agency in the United States, employing more than 10,000 staff and serving approximately 3 million low-income New Yorkers with an operating budget of $10 billion. HRA's largest programs include Medicaid (public health insurance), Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP, formerly known as food stamps), Temporary Cash Assistance (also known as welfare), Adult Protective Services, and HIV/AIDS support services.

From 2014 to 2020, Saratu served as HRA's Chief Program Accountability Officer, heading its integrity arm, the Office of Program Accountability (OPA). She came to HRA from the New York State Office of the Medicaid Inspector General (OMIG) where she was an Assistant Medicaid Inspector General, heading downstate investigations.

Saratu is a graduate of the Harvard Law School and of Boston University, where she majored in Economics. She was raised in Jos, Nigeria, where she attended St. Piran's Anglican Church. She now lives in Brooklyn with her husband, Frederick, and 7-year-old son, John "ZZ" Kamzin.

Raynelle Mensah

Raynelle has been a member of Trinity Church Wall Street since 2010. An active member and contributor to Trinity Cares, Discovery Planning Committee, the Brown Bag Lunch program, and Hospitality Committee over the years, Raynelle has also served as delegate to

"Reclaiming the Gospel of Peace" (2014) and the Annual CEEP Conference (2021).

Professionally, Raynelle leads biopharmaceutical industry research and development projects where she has the privilege of composing complex strategies and managing high-performing cross-disciplinary teams to advance medicines that treat the world's most debilitating diseases.

Raynelle earned a BA from Wesleyan University (Connecticut) and an MBA from the Stern School of Business at New York University.

She lives in Princeton, NJ, where she enjoys spending time with her family, enabling unlikely friendships, and staying active (swimming, running, and cycling) in her free time.

Raynelle is honored to have the opportunity to serve on the Congregational Council.

Alan Yu

Alan is incredibly grateful for the community and fellowship at Trinity Church and has been attending services since 2014. He currently volunteers as a worship leader on Sundays and loves participating in the Wednesday night spiritual direction group. He just completed his first term on the Congregational Council, serving as Secretary from 2020–2021, and was formerly the Young Adults Group co-chair from 2017–2021.

Professionally, he has spent his entire career working for nonprofit organizations in affordable housing development and education. Alan graduated magna cum laude with a bachelor's degree in Urban Studies from the University of California, Berkeley, and holds a Master of City Planning and a Certificate in Real Estate Design & Development from the University of Pennsylvania. Outside of work and Trinity, Alan serves on the Museum of Modern Art's Junior Associates Steering Committee and is the NYC Chair of the Penn LGBT Alumni Association.

2022 NOMINEES FOR DELEGATES TO DIOCESAN CONVENTION

Felicia Stenhouse Eve

Felicia is originally from Buffalo, NY, where she graduated from Canisius College with a Biology/pre-med degree and attended Podiatry School at the Ohio College of Podiatric Medicine in Cleveland, OH. She did her General and Surgical Podiatric Residency Programs at Wyckoff Hospital in Brooklyn, NY, 1994–1996. Upon completing her training, she practiced Podiatry in Buffalo and Washington, DC, for the next 10 years until she and her family returned to New York City in 2005. Felicia stayed home to raise her children and, after 5 years, decided to return to work and began a 7-year stint at Keep a Child Alive, a nonprofit, co-founded by Alicia Keys, that provided treatment and support to women and children in sub-Saharan Africa and India affected by HIV/AIDS. Over the course of her time there, she traveled to Africa multiple times raising money for the cause both domestically and internationally as a member of the development team.

Felicia also has a fundraising certificate from NYU Heyman Center for Philanthropy and Fundraising and worked as a fundraising consultant for 2 years. She worked with public and charter schools to help them establish sound fundraising practices. Felicia is a small business owner in Park Slope; she opened her yarn shop called String Thing Studio in June 2017. The shop offers classes, events, and a gathering space for the community.

Felicia has been a member of Trinity Church Wall Street for the past 10 years and has served on various committees. For the last 5 years she has served as President and Vice President of the Congregational Council. During that time, one of the most significant things that she has spearheaded is the Congregational Council Neighborhood Partnership Program. She also represents Trinity on the New York Episcopal Charities Board, where she is co-chair of the Tribute Dinner Committee and Chair of the Development Committee.

Felicia brings her vast experience to serve Trinity Church and is happy to continue that course. She currently resides in Brooklyn with her family.

Scott Evenbeck

Scott Evenbeck has been a member of Trinity since 2011. He has represented Trinity at Diocesan Convention and has served on the Vestry. He served many years as a Deputy to General Convention, chairing the Committee on Education. He served as president of the Church Club and is president of US Friends of Gladstone's Library. He is Vice Chair of the HBCU Committee of the Executive Council and a board member for the Association of Episcopal Colleges. He was Founding President of Guttman Community College and now serves as University Professor at Baruch College. He earned his baccalaureate degree at Indiana University and his graduate degrees at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

Eleanor Withers

Eleanor has been a proud member of Trinity since 2019. She was introduced to the church when one of Trinity's mission teams visited Panamá while she was serving there with the Young Adult Service Corps. Eleanor is currently a co-chair for the Young Adults Group, a member of Trinity Cares, and a thurifer and reader during the 11:15am service.

Eleanor works for Episcopal Relief & Development where she manages grants for dioceses experiencing disasters and leads workshops focused on Asset Based Community Development. Eleanor graduated Phi Beta Kappa from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill with a degree in Spanish and Global Studies. She currently lives in Bushwick, Brooklyn, with her four-legged son, Pookiebear.

Scripture, Reflection, & Compline | Tuesdays, 6pm; Online | Gather online for midweek spiritual nourishment and fellowship in gentle community. We'll read the coming Sunday's scripture, reflect and share insights, and close in prayer. To join, email PastoralCare@trinitywallstreet.org.

Contemplative Practice with Poetry | Wednesdays, 6:30pm; Online | Join for a practice of guided meditation and contemplative reflection with poets and artists, for mutual spiritual support and growth, led by spiritual directors John Deuel and Dr. Kathy Bozzuti-Jones. To sign up, email ChristianFormation@trinitywallstreet.org.

Enjoy the Company of Others

New Beginnings | Thursdays, 9:45am; Online
Trinity's ministry of seniors meets weekly for online chair yoga and Bible study. Chair yoga runs from 9:45–10:30am and Bible study starts at 11am—you're welcome to join for either or both. In between, we'll spend time together and catch up on the week. To join, email PastoralCare@trinitywallstreet.org.

THIS WEEK

Friday, March 4

Trinity Book Club 6:30–7:30pm, Online

Trinity Book Club meets weekly to discuss the mysteries of the Christian faith through the medium of literature. This series, we'll read The Interior Castle by St. Teresa of Avila (Mirabal Starr translation). To learn more about the series, visit trinitywallstreet.org/bookclub. To sign up, email DMiller@trinitywallstreet.org.

Saturday, March 5

Racism, Racial Mythologies, and the White Church 10am–1pm, Parish Hall

Join Dr. Greg Garrett of Baylor University for a morning workshop at Trinity to bring to light some of the hateful racial myths still causing damage within our culture, and within the Church. This is America's original sin of racism, and facing this sin is an essential component of repentance, moving us a step closer to reconciliation. Register at trinitywallstreet.org/mythologies.

NEXT SUNDAY

Children's Time Returns 10am, Trinity Commons

Children in grades K–5 are invited to learn together Sundays beginning March 6. Children in grades K–2 will explore Lent through Godly Play stories and Lenten practices. Children in grades 3–5 will also explore Lenten practices, and they'll work on a Stations of the Cross play to perform on Palm Sunday (April 10). All children will create their own take-home packages with supplies for "practicing" at home. Children's Time will open to nursery-age children and preschool ages on April 3. For more information and registration, visit trinitywallstreet.org/children.

Discovery: The Book of Job

Sundays, March 6–April 3, 10am

Trinity Commons and Online

Where is God When We Suffer?

This series will explore the book of Job and discuss how the story of one man who lost it all speaks to us today. Guest speakers include Dr. Choon-Leong Seow, Professor of Hebrew Bible at Vanderbilt Divinity School, Rabbi Darren Levine of Tamid: The Downtown Synagogue, and Marilyn Green and members of Trinity’s Movement Choir. Register at trinitywallstreet.org/discovery.

Council Elections, Annual Meeting

1:30pm, Online

Eligible members can cast their vote for Congregational Council candidates and Delegates to the Diocesan Convention by returning a ballot via the U.S. Postal Service by March 4, 2022. As defined in the Ordinances persons entitled to vote: “All persons who on the date of an annual election shall have attained the age of 18 years and who, for the period of one year preceding such annual election shall have been duly enrolled on the Congregation’s records as members of the Congregation and shall have partaken of the Holy Communion within said year in the Parish and who shall have contributed to the support of the Parish by a recorded gift of any amount in the preceding year, and no other persons, shall be entitled to vote at such annual election.” If you do not receive a ballot package and believe this is an error, please contact Keisha Joseph at KJoseph@trinitywallstreet.org or ask an usher or sacristan in the church. The ballots will be collected and counted and the results of the vote will be announced at the Annual Meeting. Additionally, Council Standing Committee chairs will provide Committee updates. Information about the candidates may be found at trinitywallstreet.org/councilelection.

Trinity Talks: Health Equity

Thursday, March 10, 6:30–7:45pm

Trinity Church and Online

Medical Debt and the Health of the Country

The pandemic has highlighted health inequities in this country and around the world. Join the Rev. Phillip Jackson and Elisabeth Benjamin, vice president of Health Initiatives at the Community Service Society and co-founder of the Health Care for All New York Campaign, in a conversation about how medical debt threatens the most vulnerable in society, causing many to delay medical care, declare bankruptcy and even lose their homes. Register at trinitywallstreet.org/trinitytalks.

2022–2023 Discernment Process for the Election of Trinity Church Wall Street Vestry Members

The Annual Vestry Election will be held on April 19, 2022, Easter Tuesday, as specified under the 1697 Charter.

The Parish Nominating Committee is in the process of discernment where potential Vestry members of Trinity parish are identified and proposed for the 2022 election slate, as well as for future years. The discernment process is as follows:

- Any eligible member of the congregation may submit recommendations to the Parish Nominating Committee. All recommendations were due in writing by January 30, 2022.
- All members of the parish who are 18 years or older, have officially enrolled in the parish registry, and have contributed to the support of the Parish in any documented amount within the preceding year (April 2021–April 2022) are eligible to make recommendations and vote in the Vestry election.*
- The Parish Nominating Committee will review all recommendations for vacant Vestry positions for the 2022–2023 slate. The final slate of candidates will be identified by April 3, 2022.

- A mail ballot form, accompanying biographical information, along with a pre-paid envelope will be mailed to all eligible parishioners on or before April 4, 2022. The register of eligible voters is available for inspection, and a member of the congregation may confirm that his or her name is included on the register by emailing Mike Hogan at MHogan@trinitywallstreet.org. Registration can also be completed on April 19, 2022, upon application to the Priest-in-charge upon proving the above-mentioned qualifications.

- Vestry Election Day is April 19, 2022. In-person voting will be held from 4pm to 8pm at Trinity Church (Broadway at Wall Street). Mail ballots must be received at 76 Trinity Place before 8pm on Tuesday, April 19. The results will be announced on Trinity's website the next morning and at the Sunday services following the election.

* Due to the limited number of in-person worship services since March 2020 because of the COVID-19 pandemic, the Vestry has waived the eligibility requirement of taking Holy Communion within the preceding year (April 2021–April 2022) for this election only.

Any questions regarding the election, discernment process, or voter eligibility can be directed to Mike Hogan, Director of Administration and Corporate Secretary, at MHogan@trinitywallstreet.org or 646.216.6261.

2022 RETREATS INCLUDE

- Retreats celebrating Blackness, Latinx and Hispanic communities, and LGBTQIA+ communities

FLOWERS

No flowers decorate the church during this season, except on Laetare Sunday, the Fourth Sunday in Lent.

This service conforms to the proper liturgy for Ash Wednesday, which begins on page 264 of the Book of Common Prayer (BCP). Scripture readings are appointed by the Revised Common Lectionary, Episcopal (RCL) and are excerpted from the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible. Psalm texts are taken from the Book of Common Prayer. Other liturgical elements may include materials compiled by Trinity Church staff (TCWS) from publications including The Book of Occasional Services 2003 (BOS), Enriching Our Worship (EOW), the prayer books of other member churches of the Anglican Communion, and other contemporary liturgical resources. An asterisk (*) denotes that the text is adapted from the original source material. Cover photo, detail of Trinity Church, © Colin Winterbottom.
