Mission

In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

Vision

We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

Core Values

Faith

“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —MATTHEW 17:20

Integrity

“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —PHILIPPIANS 4:8

Inclusiveness

“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —GALATIANS 3:28

Compassion

“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.”
—MATTHEW 14:14

Social Justice

“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.”
—MICAH 6:8

Stewardship

“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —GENESIS 41:29-30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.

By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.

Welcome to The Chapel of All Saints

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus' Table, and everyone's voice is needed to tell the Good News of God's love in Christ.

About this Service

Lent

The season of Lent—from an Old English word meaning “spring”—spans 40 days: from Ash Wednesday through Holy Saturday, excluding Sundays. Traditionally, this time of year has been a period of solemn preparation, self-examination, and repentance. Remembering the time Jesus spent in the wilderness before beginning his ministry, some Christians adopt Lenten disciplines: giving up an item of food, taking on a prayer or devotional practice, taking a technology fast, or simply setting aside time each day to be present with God and those they love.

Lenten liturgy is characterized by solemnity and simplicity. The Gloria and the word alleluia are omitted and will not return until the Great Vigil of Easter. At Trinity Church, a “Lenten array” of red, black, and rough linen fabric characterizes the vestments during this season.

Observances

John and Charles Wesley

LFF 2018 p. 123

Priests, 1791, 1788

Lord God, you inspired your servants John and Charles Wesley with burning zeal for the sanctification of souls and endowed them with eloquence in speech and song: Kindle such fervor in your church, we entreat you, that those whose faith has cooled may be warmed, and those who have not known Christ may turn to him and be saved; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Readings: Isaiah 6:1–8; Luke 9:1–6

Hymns: Hymnal 674, v. 1; LEVAS 79, v. 1

Friday after Ash Wednesday

LFF 2006 p. 30

Weekday

Support us, O Lord, with your gracious favor through the fast we have begun; that as we observe it by bodily self-denial, so we may fulfill it with inner sincerity of heart; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Readings: Isaiah 58:1–9a; Matthew 9:10–17

Hymns: LEVAS 101, v. 1; Hymnal 550, vv. 1, 5

The Entrance Rite

Prelude

The Word of God

Acclamation

EOW p. 50

At the sound of the bell, please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Blessed be the God of our salvation:
People Who bears our burdens and forgives our sins.

Summary of the Law

Mark 12:29-31

BCP p. 351

Celebrant Jesus said, "The first commandment is this: Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God is the only Lord. Love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength. The second is this: Love your neighbor as yourself. There is no other commandment greater than these."

Confession and Absolution

BCP p. 352/p. 41*

Celebrant Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Silence is kept.

All Almighty and most merciful God,
we have erred and strayed from your ways like lost sheep,
we have followed too much the devices and desires of our own hearts,
we have offended against your holy laws,
we have left undone those things which we ought to have done,
and we have done those things which we ought not to have done.
O God, have mercy upon us,
spare those who confess their faults,
restore those who are penitent,
according to your promises declared to us
in Christ Jesus our Lord;
and grant, O most merciful Father, for his sake, that we may ever after live a godly, righteous, and sober life,
to the glory of your holy Name. Amen.

Celebrant Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.

All Amen.

Kyrie

BCP p. 356

Celebrant Lord, have mercy.
People Christ, have mercy.
Celebrant Lord, have mercy.

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant God be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Let us pray.

The Celebrant prays the Collect, a prayer appointed for the day. See p. 3 for Collect texts.

The First Reading

Please be seated.

The Reader reads the lesson appointed for the day. See p. 3 for scripture citations.

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.
People Thanks be to God.

Sequence Hymn

Please stand as you are able.

Sung by the cantor. See p. 4 for hymn citations.

The Holy Gospel

Celebrant The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to . . .
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

The Celebrant reads the Gospel appointed for the day. See p. 3 for scripture citations.

Celebrant The Gospel of the Lord.
People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Homily

The Prayers of the People

CW:TS p. 261*

Please stand as you are able.

Leader Let us bring to God our prayers of intercession through Christ, who gave himself for the life of the world.

For grace to seek out those habits of sin by which we bring ourselves and our neighbors to harm, and for inspiration to maintain life-giving disciplines in this season of penitence, let us pray to the Lord of mercy.

People Lord, hear our prayer.

Leader For Christian people, that despite differences they may cultivate a rich union in Christ: especially for Michael our Presiding Bishop; Andrew, Allen, and Mary our diocesan bishops; and all those who lead us forward and draw us together, let us pray to the Lord of mercy.

People Lord, hear our prayer.

Leader For those who make laws, interpret them, and administer them—especially Joseph our president, Kathy our governor, and Eric our mayor—that they may contribute to a common life ordered in justice and equity, let us pray to the Lord of mercy.

People Lord, hear our prayer.

Leader For all whose lives are affected by war, schism, or conflict; for those who have the courage to work openly for reconciliation and peace; and for this parish—that we may live our faith boldly and compassionately in neighborhood, nation, and world—let us pray to the Lord of mercy.

People Lord, hear our prayer.

Leader For those in the shadow and pain of isolation, that they might find support and encouragement, let us pray to the Lord of mercy.

People Lord, hear our prayer.

Leader For those who, weighed down with hardship, failure, sickness, or sorrow, feel that God is far from them, let us pray to the Lord of mercy.

People Lord, hear our prayer.

Leader That we, with all those who have walked before us, may find mercy in the day of Christ, let us pray to the Lord of mercy.

People Lord, hear our prayer.

Silence

Celebrant God of compassion and mercy: once we were far off, but you have brought us near. Hear our prayer, and make us one in heart and mind to serve you in Christ Jesus our Savior.

All Amen.

The Peace

BCP p. 360

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

The People greet one another in the name of the Lord; in this season, we suggest a bow, wave, or other appropriate gesture.

Welcome

Please be seated.

The Holy Communion

The Offertory

Visit trinitywallstreet.org/donate to make an offering.

The altar will be set for the Eucharist.

The Great Thanksgiving

BCP p. 340*

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

The Celebrant prays the Proper Preface appointed for the day.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus and Benedictus

EOW p. 57

All Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

Please continue standing as you are able.

Celebrant All glory be to you, O Lord our God, for you created heaven and earth, and made us in your own image; and, of your tender mercy, gave your only Son Jesus Christ to take our nature upon him, and to suffer death upon the cross for our redemption. He made there a full and perfect sacrifice for the whole world; and did institute, and in his holy Gospel command us to continue, a perpetual memory of that his precious death and sacrifice, until his coming again.

For in the night in which he was betrayed, he took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying, "Take, eat, this is my Body, which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me."

Likewise, after supper, he took the cup; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, saying, "Drink this, all of you; for this is my Blood of the New Covenant, which is shed for you, and for many, for the remission of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this in remembrance of me."

Therefore, O Lord and heavenly Father, we your people do celebrate and make, with these your holy gifts which we now offer to you, the memorial your Son commanded us to make;

All We remember his death,
We proclaim his resurrection,
We await his coming in glory;

Celebrant And we most humbly beseech you, O merciful Father, to hear us, and, with your Word and Holy Spirit, to bless and sanctify these gifts of bread and wine, that they may be to us the Body and Blood of your dearly beloved Son Jesus Christ.

And we earnestly desire your fatherly goodness to accept this our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving, whereby we offer and present to you, O Lord, our selves, our souls and bodies. Grant, we beseech you, that all who partake of this Holy Communion may worthily receive the most precious Body and Blood of your Son Jesus Christ, and be filled with your grace and heavenly benediction; and also that we and all your whole Church may be made one body with him, that he may dwell in us, and we in him.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

All AMEN.

The Lord's Prayer

BCP p. 364

Celebrant And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

All Our Father, who art in heaven,
 hallowed be thy Name,
 thy kingdom come,
 thy will be done,
 on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
 but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
 and the power, and the glory,
 for ever and ever. Amen.

The Fraction and Invitation

BCP p. 364/St. Augustine (1 Corinthians)

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread. Silence is kept.

Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God.

Behold what you are.

People May we become what we receive.

A Prayer for Spiritual Communion

SAPB p. 145*

In the Episcopal tradition, we believe that when circumstances make it impossible to consume the Eucharistic elements, our desire is enough for God to grant all the benefits of communion.

Leader I invite all those who are unable to receive the consecrated bread and wine this day, but who long for the grace and blessing of God through our Savior Jesus Christ, to join me in this Prayer for Spiritual Communion:

Said by those who will not receive Communion today.

People In union, Blessed Jesus, with your faithful people at every altar of your Church where the Holy Eucharist is now being celebrated,
I offer my praise and thanksgiving.
Since I cannot receive you today
in the Sacrament of your Body and Blood,
I ask you to come spiritually into my heart.
Cleanse and strengthen me with your grace, Lord Jesus,
and let me never be separated from you.
May I live in you, and you in me,
in this life and in the life to come. Amen.

Please be seated.

At Communion

A musician offers a brief improvisation.

Concluding Rite

Post-Communion Prayer

BCP p. 365

Please stand as you are able.

All Eternal God, heavenly Father,
you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food
in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood.
Send us now into the world in peace,
and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart;
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Blessing

BOS p. 25/BCP p. 339*

Celebrant Grant, most merciful Lord, to your faithful people pardon and peace, that they may be cleansed from all their sins, and serve you with a quiet mind; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you, and remain with you always.

All Amen.

Dismissal

BCP p. 366

Celebrant Let us bless the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Hymn in Procession

Sung by the cantor. See p. 3 for hymn citations.

Children's Time Returns

Sundays at 10am

Children and their families are invited to learn and play together Sunday mornings.

During Lent (through April 10), children in grades K-2 will explore the season through Godly Play stories and activities. Children in grades 3-5 will work on Lenten practices and a Stations of the Cross play to perform on Palm Sunday (April 10).

Also, each week children are invited to pack a supply kit with Lent materials to use at home. These supplies are free to your family.

To enroll for Children's Time and other children's programs at Trinity, from New York University; and a master's in Law from Champlain College (USA) and is a graduate of the BRIT School (UK).

Karla worked with Oscar-nominated director John Sayles and producer Maggie Renzi on the film "Honeydrinker" and appeared in the film "Toss It," which was written, directed, and produced by Michelle Remsen. In addition to working with various theatrical groups, arts organizations, musicians, and artists, including multimedia artist Maya Milenovic Workman and double bass jazz legend Reggie Workman, she has worked for the Royal Shakespeare Company, V2 Records (Virgin Group), and AM Only (Paradigm).

Alistair Cree

Alistair Cree has attended Trinity since he first moved to New York in 2014. He has previously served as Council Secretary, and as chair of the Council's Education Standing Committee. Alistair is an active member of Trinity's Young Adults and Gospel, Times, Journal, and

You groups. He has previously participated in EfM, and Trinity's 2019 Holy Land pilgrimage. Alistair works at Amazon, where he leads the product management team for Amazon Go. He earned his BA in Natural Sciences from the University of Cambridge in 2011.

Saratu Ghartey

Saratu Grace Ghartey joined Trinity in 2017 and regularly attends the 9:15am Family Service. She is a co-chair of the Families with Children subcommittee, which plans programs for Trinity's families under the Education Committee.

Professionally, Saratu serves as the First Deputy Commissioner for New York City's Human Resources Administration (HRA/Department of Social Services). HRA is the largest local social services agency in the United States, employing more than 10,000 staff and serving approximately 3 million low-income New Yorkers with an operating budget of $10 billion. HRA's largest programs include Medicaid (public health insurance), Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP, formerly known as food stamps), Temporary Cash Assistance (also known as welfare), Adult Protective Services, and HIV/AIDS support services.

From 2014 to 2020, Saratu served as HRA's Chief Program Accountability Officer, heading its integrity arm, the Office of Program Accountability (OPA). She came to HRA from the New York State Office of the Medicaid Inspector General (OMIG) where she was an Assistant Medicaid Inspector General, heading downstate investigations.

Saratu is a graduate of the Harvard Law School and of Boston University, where she majored in Economics. She was raised in Jos, Nigeria, where she attended St. Piran's Anglican Church. She now lives in Brooklyn with her husband, Frederick, and 7-year-old son, John "ZZ" Kamzin.

Raynelle Mensah

Raynelle has been a member of Trinity Church Wall Street since 2010. An active member and contributor to Trinity Cares, Discovery Planning Committee, the Brown Bag Lunch program, and Hospitality Committee over the years, Raynelle has also served as delegate to

"Reclaiming the Gospel of Peace" (2014) and the Annual CEEP Conference (2021).

Professionally, Raynelle leads biopharmaceutical industry research and development projects where she has the privilege of composing complex strategies and managing high-performing cross-disciplinary teams to advance medicines that treat the world's most debilitating diseases.

Raynelle earned a BA from Wesleyan University (Connecticut) and an MBA from the Stern School of Business at New York University.

She lives in Princeton, NJ, where she enjoys spending time with her family, enabling unlikely friendships, and staying active (swimming, running, and cycling) in her free time.

Raynelle is honored to have the opportunity to serve on the Congregational Council.

Alan Yu

Alan is incredibly grateful for the community and fellowship at Trinity Church and has been attending services since 2014. He currently volunteers as a worship leader on Sundays and loves participating in the Wednesday night spiritual direction group. He just completed his first term on the Congregational Council, serving as Secretary from 2020–2021, and was formerly the Young Adults Group co-chair from 2017–2021. Professionally, he has spent his entire career working for nonprofit organizations in affordable housing development and education. Alan graduated magna cum laude with a bachelor's degree in Urban Studies from the University of California, Berkeley, and holds a Master of City Planning and a Certificate in Real Estate Design & Development from the University of Pennsylvania. Outside of work and Trinity, Alan serves on the Museum of Modern Art's Junior Associates Steering Committee and is the NYC Chair of the Penn LGBT Alumni Association.

2022 NOMINEES FOR DELEGATES TO DIOCESAN CONVENTION

Felicia Stenhouse Eve

Felicia is originally from Buffalo, NY, where she graduated from Canisius College with a Biology/pre-med degree and attended Podiatry School at the Ohio College of Podiatric Medicine in Cleveland, OH. She did her General and Surgical Podiatric Residency Programs at Wyckoff Hospital in Brooklyn, NY, 1994–1996. Upon completing her training, she practiced Podiatry in Buffalo and Washington, DC, for the next 10 years until she and her family returned to New York City in 2005. Felicia stayed home to raise her children and, after 5 years, decided to return to work and began a 7-year stint at Keep a Child Alive, a nonprofit, co-founded by Alicia Keys, that provided treatment and support to women and children in sub-Saharan Africa and India affected by HIV/AIDS. Over the course of her time there, she traveled to Africa multiple times raising money for the cause both domestically and internationally as a member of the development team.

Felicia also has a fundraising certificate from NYU Heyman Center for Philanthropy and Fundraising and worked as a fundraising consultant for 2 years. She worked with public and charter schools to help them establish sound fundraising practices. Felicia is a small business owner in Park Slope; she opened her yarn shop called String Thing Studio in June 2017. The shop offers classes, events, and a gathering space for the community.

Felicia has been a member of Trinity Church Wall Street for the past 10 years and has served on various committees. For the last 5 years she has served as President and Vice President of the Congregational Council. During that time, one of the most significant things that she has spearheaded is the Congregational Council Neighborhood Partnership Program. She also represents Trinity on the New York Episcopal Charities Board, where she is co-chair of the Tribute Dinner Committee and Chair of the Development Committee.

Felicia brings her vast experience to serve Trinity Church and is happy to continue that course. She currently resides in Brooklyn with her family.

Scott Evenbeck

Scott Evenbeck has been a member of Trinity since 2011. He has represented Trinity at Diocesan Convention and has served on the Vestry. He served many years as a Deputy to General Convention, chairing the Committee on Education. He served as president of the Church Club and is president of US Friends of Gladstone's Library. He is Vice Chair of the HBCU Committee of the Executive Council and a board member for the Association of Episcopal Colleges. He was Founding President of Guttman Community College and now serves as University Professor at Baruch College. He earned his baccalaureate degree at Indiana University and his graduate degrees at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

Eleanor Withers

Eleanor has been a proud member of Trinity since 2019. She was introduced to the church when one of Trinity's mission teams visited Panamá while she was serving there with the Young Adult Service Corps. Eleanor is currently a co-chair for the Young Adults Group, a member of Trinity Cares, and a thurifer and reader during the 11:15am service.

Eleanor works for Episcopal Relief & Development where she manages grants for dioceses experiencing disasters and leads workshops focused on Asset Based Community Development. Eleanor graduated Phi Beta Kappa from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill with a degree in Spanish and Global Studies. She currently lives in Bushwick, Brooklyn, with her four-legged son, Pookiebear.

2022–2023 Discernment Process for the Election of Trinity Church Wall Street Vestry Members

The Annual Vestry Election will be held on April 19, 2022, Easter Tuesday, as specified under the 1697 Charter.

The Parish Nominating Committee is in the process of discernment where potential Vestry members of Trinity parish are identified and proposed for the 2022 election slate, as well as for future years. The discernment process is as follows:

- Any eligible member of the congregation may submit recommendations to the Parish Nominating Committee. All recommendations were due in writing by January 30, 2022.
- All members of the parish who are 18 years or older, have officially enrolled in the parish registry, and have contributed to the support of the Parish in any documented amount within the preceding year (April 2021–April 2022) are eligible to make recommendations and vote in the Vestry election.*
- The Parish Nominating Committee will review all recommendations for vacant Vestry positions for the 2022–2023 slate. The final slate of candidates will be identified by April 3, 2022.

- A mail ballot form, accompanying biographical information, along with a pre-paid envelope will be mailed to all eligible parishioners on or before April 4, 2022. The register of eligible voters is available for inspection, and a member of the congregation may confirm that his or her name is included on the register by emailing Mike Hogan at MHogan@trinitywallstreet.org. Registration can also be completed on April 19, 2022, upon application to the Priest-in-charge upon proving the above-mentioned qualifications.

- Vestry Election Day is April 19, 2022. In-person voting will be held from 4pm to 8pm at Trinity Church (Broadway at Wall Street). Mail ballots must be received at 76 Trinity Place before 8pm on Tuesday, April 19. The results will be announced on Trinity’s website the next morning and at the Sunday services following the election.

* Due to the limited number of in-person worship services since March 2020 because of the COVID-19 pandemic, the Vestry has waived the eligibility requirement of taking Holy Communion within the preceding year (April 2021–April 2022) for this election only.

Any questions regarding the election, discernment process, or voter eligibility can be directed to Mike Hogan, Director of Administration and Corporate Secretary, at MHogan@trinitywallstreet.org or 646.216.6261.

Congregational Voice

“Nehemiah said, ‘Go and enjoy choice food and sweet drinks, and send some to those who have nothing prepared. This day is holy to our Lord. Do not grieve, for the joy of the LORD is your strength’” (Nehemiah 8:10 NIV). This post resonated with me. I see so much anger and sadness in folks and I realized, that is not my story. For the last two years I have been daily leaning into and meditating on God's word and I have such peace and calm like never before. I believe it is vital to have daily devotions. It is essential that I gather “spiritual manna.” I have been blessed with a new and fresh perspective on this life's journey. My endurance and joy, during this pandemic, relies on my relationship with the Lord.
—Sheila Huggins

WHEN A LOVED ONE STRUGGLES

Mondays, 6:30–7:45pm, January 31–March 7

Having a loved one who struggles with their mental and emotional health can be lonely and stressful. Caring for oneself is essential to support those you love. Come be in shared company for a six-week support group to help dispel the isolation. Dr. Peggy Barnett, psychotherapist at the Psychotherapy & Spirituality Institute, will facilitate. For information, email PastoralCare@trinitywallstreet.org.

FLOWERS

No flowers decorate the church during this season, except on Laetare Sunday, the Fourth Sunday in Lent.

This service conforms to A Penitential Order: Rite Two, containing Holy Eucharist, which begins on page 351 of the Book of Common Prayer (BCP). Scripture readings are appointed by the Revised Common Lectionary, Episcopal (RCL) and are excerpted from the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible. Other liturgical elements may include materials compiled by Trinity Church staff (TCWS) from publications including Enriching Our Worship (EOW), Lesser Feasts and Fasts (LFF 2018), the Book of Occasional Services 2003 (BOS), Common Worship: Times and Seasons (CW:TS), St. Augustine's Prayer Book (SAPB), the prayer books of other member churches of the Anglican Communion, and other contemporary liturgical resources. An asterisk (*) denotes that the text is adapted from the original source material. Hymns come from The Hymnal 1982, Lift Every Voice and Sing II (LEVAS), Voices Found (VF), and Wonder, Love, and Praise (WLP).
