TRINITY CHURCH
Broadway at Wall Street
New York City

A Celebration of the Feast of St. Margaret

July 23, 2022, 2pm

Mission

In the spirit of the Gospels, the mission of Trinity Church Wall Street is to build generations of faithful leadership, to build up neighborhoods, and to build financial capacity for holy service in New York City and around the world. Our mission is grounded in our core values.

Vision

We seek to serve and heal the world by building neighborhoods that live gospel truths, generations of faithful leaders, and sustainable communities.

Core Values

Faith

“For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” —MATTHEW 17:20

Integrity

“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things.” —PHILIPPIANS 4:8

Inclusiveness

“There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.” —GALATIANS 3:28

Compassion

“When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.”
—MATTHEW 14:14

Social Justice

“He has showed you what is good; and what the Lord requires of you: to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God.”
—MICAH 6:8

Stewardship

“There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt. After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the world.” —GENESIS 41:29-30

Core Values guide us in carrying out our mission and realizing our vision.

By their nature, core values are touchstones for prayer, discernment, ongoing conversation, and action. We seek a deep understanding and ongoing engagement with Trinity’s Core Values. Over the years, we will continue reflecting on what our Core Values mean in their application; how they challenge and inform decisions and actions in Trinity’s ministries, and how they help our ministries be aligned with our mission and vision.

Welcome to Trinity Church

Please add your voice and heart to the prayers. Everyone is welcome at Jesus' Table, and everyone's voice is needed to tell the Good News of God's love in Christ.

About this Service

St. Margaret of Antioch and the Society of St. Margaret

St. Margaret was born in Antioch in Pisidia around 289 A.D.; the fantastic details of her life vary according to multiple martyrologies. One medieval hagiography recounts that her father was a pagan priest and her mother died soon after her birth. Margaret was brought up by her nurse, a devout woman from whom she learned Christianity. Later, having embraced Christianity and having consecrated her virginity to God, Margaret was disowned by her father and thrown out of his house.

While tending sheep, the beautiful Margaret unwittingly captured the attention of the Roman prefect Olybrius, who had her kidnapped, intending to make her his wife or concubine. However, he was repulsed by her Christian faith and demanded that she return to her pagan origins. When she refused to denounce Christianity, Olybrius had her publicly tried, tortured, and imprisoned.

According to legend, her tormentors attempted to burn her, but the flames left her unhurt. They then bound her hand and foot and threw her into a cauldron of boiling water, but when she prayed for deliverance her bonds were broken and she stood up uninjured. She was returned to prison, where Satan appeared in the form of a terrifying dragon and swallowed her. She made the sign of the cross, and the cross she was carrying grew enormously, causing the beast to burst open. It is likely this part of the legend that has caused this virgin to be venerated as a patroness of expectant mothers.

Finally, she was beheaded, along with her many converts, by Emperor Diocletian at age 15. She was buried at Antioch, but her remains were taken later to Italy, where they were divided between shrines in Montefiascone and Venice.

From the 9th–13th centuries, devotion to St. Margaret became very widespread in England, where more than 250 churches are dedicated to her, most famously, St. Margaret's, Westminster. St. Margaret is a common theme for wall paintings in English churches; she is often represented in these paintings as a shepherdess, or leading a chained dragon, or carrying a little cross in her hand, or standing against the large cauldron into which she was plunged.

The Founder of the Society of St. Margaret, John Mason Neale, was ordained deacon and priest at St. Margaret's, Westminster, in 1841. He was a staunch supporter of the cause of the restoration of the Religious Life in Britain, and in 1855 Neale founded the Sisters of St. Margaret in East Grinstead, Sussex. From that beginning other convents were established, including the American House of the Society of St. Margaret in 1873.

The Collect of the Day

SSM

Celebrant God be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Almighty God, from whom Margaret of Antioch gained courage to claim the name of Christian and to prefer your love to life itself: grant that we who cherish her blessed memory may share her pure and steadfast faith, and win with her the palm of victory; through Jesus Christ our Savior, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

All Amen.

Please be seated.

The First Reading

Ecclesiasticus 2:2-11

Reader A Reading from the Book of Ecclesiasticus.

Set your heart right and be steadfast, and do not be impetuous in time of calamity. Cling to him and do not depart, so that your last days may be prosperous. Accept whatever befalls you, and in times of humiliation be patient. For gold is tested in the fire, and those found acceptable, in the furnace of humiliation. Trust in him, and he will help you; make your ways straight, and hope in him.

You who fear the Lord, wait for his mercy; do not stray, or else you may fall. You who fear the Lord, trust in him, and your reward will not be lost. You who fear the Lord, hope for good things, for lasting joy and mercy. Consider the generations of old and see: has anyone trusted in the Lord and been disappointed? Or has anyone persevered in the fear of the Lord and been forsaken? Or has anyone called upon him and been neglected? For the Lord is compassionate and merciful; he forgives sins and saves in time of distress.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People Thanks be to God.

The Psalm

Psalm 126

BCP p. 782

Said antiphonally, alternating between the Leader and People.

Leader When the LORD restored the fortunes of Zion, *
then were we like those who dream.

People Then was our mouth filled with laughter, ***
and our tongue with shouts of joy.

Leader Then they said among the nations, *
“The LORD has done great things for them.”

People The LORD has done great things for us,  and we are glad indeed.

Leader Restore our fortunes, O LORD, *
like the watercourses of the Negev.

People Those who sowed with tears  will reap with songs of joy.

Leader Those who go out weeping, carrying the seed, * will come again with joy, shouldering their sheaves.

The Second Reading

1 Corinthians 1:26–31

Reader A Reading from the First Letter of Paul to the Corinthians.

Consider your own call, brothers and sisters: not many of you were wise by human standards, not many were powerful, not many were of noble birth. But God chose what is foolish in the world to shame the wise; God chose what is weak in the world to shame the strong; God chose what is low and despised in the world, things that are not, to reduce to nothing things that are, so that no one might boast in the presence of God. He is the source of your life in Christ Jesus, who became for us wisdom from God, and righteousness and sanctification and redemption, in order that, as it is written, “Let the one who boasts, boast in the Lord.”

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

People Thanks be to God.

The Holy Gospel

Matthew 13:44–52

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Deacon Jesus said to his disciples, “The kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden in a field, which someone found and hid; then in his joy he goes and sells all that he has and buys that field.

“Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant in search of fine pearls; on finding one pearl of great value, he went and sold all that he had and bought it.

“Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a net that was thrown into the sea and caught fish of every kind; when it was full, they drew it ashore, sat down, and put the good into baskets but threw out the bad. So it will be at the end of the age. The angels will come out and separate the evil from the righteous and throw them into the furnace of fire, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

“Have you understood all this?” They answered, “Yes.” And he said to them, “Therefore every scribe who has been trained for the kingdom of heaven is like the master of a household who brings out of his treasure what is new and what is old.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon

The Rev. Sr. Sarah Margaret Randall, SSM

The Nicene Creed

BCP p. 358*

Please stand.

Celebrant Let us stand and profess our faith in the words of the Nicene Creed.

All

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

SSM*

Leader With all who have gone before us in faith, the angels and archangels, holy patriarchs, prophets, apostles, and martyrs, and all those who have borne witness to the gospel, we bring our prayers and thanksgivings to God.

Gracious God, we pray for the Church: grant that all people who proclaim you as Lord do so with hearts full of love and souls filled with the grace of your Holy Spirit. We pray for this holy gathering, and the people of God in every place.

People Lord, help us to love as purely as you do.

Leader Gracious God, we pray for unity: break down the barriers that divide so that, united in your truth and love, the church may confess your name, share one baptism, sit at one table, and serve you with one accord.

People Lord, remove suspicion and anger from our hearts, and give us love and patience for one another.

Leader Gracious God, we give thanks as we pray for the Society of St. Margaret: bless and guide the life and ministry of our Society and all religious orders. We pray for all the sisters and associates throughout the world, for all those who work with the sisters, for all guests and benefactors, neighbors and friends, and for our families, companions, and all those we love.

People Lord, bind us together in mission and let us show love for one another.

Leader Gracious God, we pray for the rulers of the nations: move them to set aside their fear. Inspire them to strive for justice and peace, so that all your children may be free.

People Lord, keep them always mindful of those they govern.

Leader Gracious God, we pray for the poor and suffering of the world: hear the cries of the hungry and the homeless, the poor and the meek, and all those, near and far, who are persecuted, who suffer unjust imprisonment, who are without a homeland, or who live in danger.

People Lord, protect and heal them.

Leader Gracious God, we pray for your guidance: give to those of us who consume most of the earth's resources the will to reorder our lives, so that all may have their rightful share of food, care, shelter, and fullness of life.

People Lord, guide us in our labors, that we put all things to your use.

Leader Gracious God, we pray for the sick and the suffering: look with compassion on all who suffer illness and distress. Support them with your love and lead us to be healers to all we encounter.

People Lord, guide those who care for them and grant them your healing grace.

Leader Gracious God, we thank you today for St. Margaret of Antioch, and for our founder, John Mason Neale: as we celebrate their memory, we give thanks for the many blessings bestowed upon the Society of St. Margaret.

People Lord, keep in one communion and fellowship all those for whom Christ died.

Leader Gracious God, we pray for all those who have died: we remember with thanksgiving those saints who bore witness to your light. Give us the grace to persevere in faith, mercy, and love, and at the end of our lives to behold your glory.

People Lord, grant them rest eternal.

Silence

Celebrant Blessed are you, O Lord our God, for the triumph of Christ in the lives of your saints. Receive the prayers we offer this day and help us to run our course with faith that we may swiftly come to your eternal kingdom. Glory to you for ever and ever.

All Amen.

Confession and Absolution

BCP p. 360

Celebrant Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Silence

All Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Celebrant Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.

All Amen.

The Peace

BCP p. 360

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

The People greet one another in the name of the Lord; in this season, we suggest a bow, wave, or other appropriate gesture.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People
It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth; because in the obedience of your saints you have given us an example of righteousness, and in their eternal joy a glorious pledge of the hope of our calling.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus and Benedictus

Music: Land of Rest, American folk melody, arr. Marcia Pruner; harm. Annabel Morris Buchanan (1889-1983)

Please continue standing or kneel as you are able.

Celebrant

We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

All

We remember his death,
We proclaim his resurrection,
We await his coming in glory;

Celebrant

And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with St. Margaret, John Mason Neale, and all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

The Lord's Prayer

BCP p. 364

Celebrant As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,
All Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your Name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial,
and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours,
now and for ever. Amen.

Handel's Theodora

6pm, Trinity Church and Online

Theodora stands out as one of Handel's finest creations. Composed in 1749 during the twilight of his career, this penultimate major work was undervalued at the time of composition but is now recognized as the masterpiece it is. An oratorio brimming with dramatic intensity, Theodora traces the tragic tale of the eponymous Christian martyr facing persecution at the hands of the Romans. Soloists include Marie-Eve Munger, soprano, and Anthony Roth Costanzo, countertenor, with The Choir of Trinity Wall Street, Trinity Baroque Orchestra, and Avi Stein conducting. Theodora will also be presented at Caramoor Center for Music and the Arts on July 31. Reservations required at trinitywallstreet.org/music.

Summer Choir Auditions

Find your community of singers at Trinity Church Wall Street. This summer, auditions are open for our three volunteer choral ensembles: Downtown Voices, St. Paul’s Chapel Choir, and Trinity Youth Chorus. Each offer opportunities to make new friends, learn new skills, and perform in Trinity Church and St. Paul’s Chapel, often alongside Trinity’s professional orchestras. These programs are offered free of charge, and all are welcome to audition. Learn more and schedule an audition at trinitywallstreet.org/music.

Congregational Voice

"I am holding you by your right hand—I, the Lord your God—and I say to you, Don't be afraid; I am here to help you" (Isaiah 41:13 TLB). I reflected on this verse because I was just going through a difficult time. My brother had open heart surgery and was on a ventilator. He was recently removed and is stable and responsive now. This verse reminds me that God will bring us through. —Natalie Jackson
