

THE FIFTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

September 18, 2022, 11:15am

Welcome to Trinity Church

Welcome to Trinity Church Wall Street, a vibrant and growing Episcopal parish of more than 1,500 members. Over the past 325 years, the fabric of Trinity has been woven by the Spirit from the lives and gifts of diverse people; their desire to live their faith through worship, service, study, and stewardship; and the ever-evolving life of New York City itself.

Our parish is guided by its mission to share God's love for all people. Together, we seek to build relationships with one another and with our neighbors, to cultivate compassion, to deepen our knowledge and spiritual practices, to work for justice rooted in essential human dignity, and to live as conscientious contributors to the life of our city and the Anglican Communion worldwide. As we grow together in service and love, we know ourselves, first and foremost, as followers of Jesus.

We are delighted to welcome you today; thank you for the gift of your participation and prayers.

About this Service

The Season after Pentecost

Our current liturgical season, the Season after Pentecost, is by far the longest of the Episcopal church year. It begins the day after Pentecost and ends the day before the First Sunday of Advent. Since the date of Easter changes every year—and the Day of Pentecost is always 50 days after Easter—the length of the season varies as well, ranging from 24-29 weeks in length. This season is sometimes called Ordinary Time, a phrase borrowed from the Roman Catholic Church.

A common practice among Episcopal churches is to change the appropriate liturgical elements at the start of each new season. Often these changes are directed by the Book of Common Prayer, such as the acclamations named for use in the Lenten and Easter seasons. However, liturgical leaders also decide which Prayers of the People, Eucharistic Prayer, blessing, and dismissal are used in services.

Opening Hymn

Hymnal 518

The musical score is written for a four-part setting (Soprano, Alto, Tenor, Bass) in G major and 4/4 time. It consists of four systems of music, each with a vocal line and a piano accompaniment line. The lyrics are arranged in four columns, corresponding to the four parts. The first system covers the first two columns of lyrics, the second system covers the next two columns, the third system covers the next two columns, and the fourth system covers the final two columns. The piano accompaniment is a simple harmonic setting of the vocal lines.

The Collect of the Day

BCP p. 234

Celebrant God be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Grant us, Lord, not to be anxious about earthly things, but to love things heavenly; and even now, while we are placed among things that are passing away, to hold fast to those that shall endure; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

All Amen.

Please be seated.

The Word of God

The First Reading

Amos 8:4-7

Reader

A Reading from the Book of Amos.

Hear this, you that trample on the needy,
and bring to ruin the poor of the land, saying, "When will the new moon be over
so that we may sell grain;
and the sabbath,
so that we may offer wheat for sale?
We will make the ephah small and the shekel great,
and practice deceit with false balances,
buying the poor for silver and the needy for a pair of sandals,
and selling the sweepings of the wheat."

The LORD has sworn by the pride of Jacob:
Surely I will never forget any of their deeds.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People

Thanks be to God.

The Psalm

Psalm 113

BCP p. 756

Said antiphonally, alternating between the Leader and People.

Leader

Hallelujah!
Give praise, you servants of the LORD; *
praise the Name of the LORD.

People

Let the Name of the LORD be blessed, *
from this time forth for evermore.

Leader

From the rising of the sun to its going down *
let the Name of the LORD be praised.

People

The LORD is high above all nations, *
and his glory above the heavens.

Leader

Who is like the LORD our God, who sits enthroned on high, *
but stoops to behold the heavens and the earth?

People

He takes up the weak out of the dust *
and lifts up the poor from the ashes.

Leader

He sets them with the princes, *
with the princes of his people.

People

He makes the woman of a childless house *
to be a joyful mother of children.

The Second Reading

1 Timothy 2:1-7

Reader A Reading from the First Letter to Timothy.

First of all, I urge that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings be made for everyone, for kings and all who are in high positions, so that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and dignity. This is right and is acceptable in the sight of God our Savior, who desires everyone to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth. For there is one God;

there is also one mediator between God and humankind, Christ Jesus, himself human,
who gave himself a ransom for all —this was attested at the right time. For this I was appointed a herald and an apostle (I am telling the truth, I am not lying), a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and truth.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People Thanks be to God.

The Holy Gospel

Luke 16:1-13

Please turn to face the Gospel as it passes.

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Deacon Jesus said to the disciples, “There was a rich man who had a manager, and charges were brought to him that this man was squandering his property. So he summoned him and said to him, ‘What is this that I hear about you? Give me an accounting of your management, because you cannot be my manager any longer.’ Then the manager said to himself, ‘What will I do, now that my master is taking the position away from me? I am not strong enough to dig, and I am ashamed to beg. I have decided what to do so that, when I am dismissed as manager, people may welcome me into their homes.’ So, summoning his master’s debtors one by one, he asked the first, ‘How much do you owe my master?’ He answered, ‘A hundred jugs of olive oil.’ He said to him, ‘Take your bill, sit down quickly, and make it fifty.’ Then he asked another, ‘And how much do you owe?’ He replied, ‘A hundred containers of wheat.’ He said to him, ‘Take your bill and make it eighty.’ And his master commended the dishonest manager because he had acted shrewdly; for the children of this age are more shrewd in dealing with their own generation than are the children of light. And I tell you, make friends for yourselves by means of dishonest wealth so that when it is gone, they may welcome you into the eternal homes.

“Whoever is faithful in a very little is faithful also in much; and whoever is dishonest in a very little is dishonest also in much. If then you have not been faithful with the dishonest wealth, who will entrust to you the true riches? And if you have not been faithful with what belongs to another, who will give you what is your own? No slave can serve two masters; for a slave will either hate the one and love the other, or be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and wealth.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon

The Rev. Phillip A. Jackson
Rector

The Nicene Creed

BCP p. 358*

Please stand.

Celebrant Let us stand and profess our faith in the words of the Nicene Creed.

All

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

BCP p. 388/p. 394

Leader Let us pray for the Church and for the world.

Grant, Almighty God, that all who confess your Name may be united in your truth, live together in your love, and reveal your glory in the world.

Silence

Lord, in your mercy

People Hear our prayer.

Leader Guide the people of this land, and of all the nations, in the ways of justice and peace;
that we may honor one another and serve the common good.

Silence

Lord, in your mercy

People Hear our prayer.

Leader Give us all a reverence for the earth as your own creation, that we may use its resources rightly in the service of others and to your honor and glory.

Silence

Lord, in your mercy

People Hear our prayer.

Leader Bless all whose lives are closely linked with ours, and grant that we may serve Christ in them,
and love one another as he loves us.

Silence

Lord, in your mercy

People Hear our prayer.

Leader Comfort and heal all those who suffer in body, mind, or spirit; give them courage and hope in their troubles, and bring them the joy of your salvation.

Silence

Lord, in your mercy

People Hear our prayer.

Leader We commend to your mercy all who have died, that your will for them may be fulfilled;
and we pray that we may share with all your saints in your eternal kingdom.

Silence

Lord, in your mercy

People Hear our prayer.

Celebrant Heavenly Father, you have promised to hear what we ask in the Name of your Son: Accept and fulfill our petitions, we pray, not as we ask in our ignorance, nor as we deserve in our sinfulness, but as you know and love us in your Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

Confession and Absolution

BCP p. 360

Celebrant Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Silence

All Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,
have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Celebrant Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.

All Amen.

The Peace

BCP p. 360

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

The People greet one another in the name of the Lord; in this season, we suggest a bow, wave, or other appropriate gesture.

What a Friend We Have in Jesus

Charles Converse (1832-1918), arr. Matt Garrison (b. 1979)

What a friend we have in Jesus,
All our sins and griefs to bear!
What a privilege to carry
Ev'rything to God in prayer!
Oh, what peace we often forfeit,
Oh, what needless pain we bear,
All because we do not carry
Ev'rything to God in prayer!

Have we trials and temptations?
Is there trouble anywhere?
We should never be discouraged,
Take it to the Lord in prayer.
Can we find a friend so faithful
Who will all our sorrows share?
Jesus knows our ev'ry weakness,
Take it to the Lord in prayer.

Are we weak and heavy laden,
Cumbered with a load of care?
Precious Savior, still our refuge,
Take it to the Lord in prayer.
Do thy friends despise, forsake thee?
Take it to the Lord in prayer.
In his arms He'll take and shield thee,
Thou wilt find a solace there.

—Joseph Scriven (1819-1866)

Censing of the Gifts

Please stand.

The Great Thanksgiving

BCP p. 361/p. 377

Celebrant People
The Lord be with you. And al - so with you.

Celebrant People
Lift up your hearts. We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant
Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People
It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, through Jesus Christ our Lord; who on the first day of the week overcame death and the grave, and by his glorious resurrection opened to us the way of everlasting life.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus and Benedictus

Hymnal S 125*

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow - er and might, heaven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.
Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho -
san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

Music: from A Community Mass, Richard Proulx (1937-2010)

Please continue standing or kneel as you are able.

Celebrant

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

All

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

Celebrant

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

All

The Lord's Prayer

BCP p. 364

Celebrant

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

All

Our Father, who art in heaven,

hallowed be thy Name,

thy kingdom come,

thy will be done,

on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,

as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,

but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom,

and the power, and the glory,

for ever and ever. Amen.

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread. Silence is kept.

Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God.
Behold what you are.

People May we become what we receive.

Please be seated.

Communion will be distributed at stations at the front of the aisles. If you need communion brought to you, please let an usher or sacristan know.

It is our custom to receive the bread in the upturned palms of our hands, and eat it immediately. Gluten-free wafers are available; please let the minister know that you need one.

If you do not wish to receive communion you are invited to come forward to receive a blessing, indicating your desire by crossing your arms over your chest.

Faire is the Heaven

William Harris (1883-1973)

Faire is the heaven where happy soules have place
In full enjoyment of felicitie;
Whence they do still behold the glorious face
Of the Divine, Eternall Majestie;

Yet farre more faire be those bright Cherubins
Which all with golden wings are overdight,
And those eternall burning Seraphins
Which from their faces dart out fiery light;
Yet fairer than they both and much more bright
Be the Angels and Archangels, which attend
On God's owne person without rest or end;

These then in faire each other farre excelling
As to the Highest they approach more neare,
Yet is that Highest farre beyond all telling,
Fairer than all the rest which there appeare,
Though all their beauties joynd together were;

How then can mortal tongue hope to expresse
The image of such endlesse perfectnesse?

Ordinary and Extraordinary Saints

Sundays, September 25-October 16, 10am • Trinity Commons and online

We often think of saints as perfect and one dimensional. In this series we learn about the lives of people who served, sacrificed, and followed their faith calling and explore what they can teach us about our own life of faith.

Speakers include the Rev. Elizabeth Edman, author of Queer Virtue, Barbara Lau, executive director of the Pauli Murray Center, the Very Rev. Kelly Brown Douglas of the Episcopal Divinity School at Union Theological Seminary, and Ruth Frey of Trinity's Faith Formation department.

Contemplative Eucharist

5:30–6pm, Trinity Church

It's the middle of the week, and we're already tired. Come rest in the presence of God, who is always ready to welcome and to love us—just as we are. This new weekly 30-minute service is followed by a light supper. All are welcome.

Thursday, September 22

Trinity Men: Soup, Sandwich, & Spirituality

6:30pm, Trinity Commons

Join men from Trinity for a discussion on topics related to living a life of faith and service in the city. To RSVP, email TrinityChurchMen@gmail.com.

Trinity Movement Choir: Humankind

7:30pm, St. Paul's Chapel

Join Trinity Movement Choir for its first in-person performance in almost three years. Humankind addresses the life of our neighbors who are global refugees, including issues of uprooting and trauma, insularity and acceptance, assimilation and diversity, affirming the truth that all humanity is essentially connected. Learn more at trinitywallstreet.org/humankind.

Friday, September 23

Trinity Book Club

6:30–7:30pm, Online

Trinity Book Club meets weekly to discuss the mysteries of the Christian faith through the medium of literature. In this series we'll read Rooted: Life at the Crossroads of Science, Nature, and Spirit by Lyanda Lynn Haupt. To learn more and register, visit trinitywallstreet.org/bookclub.

Saturday, September 24

El Duende Talk & Performance Series

10am–2:15pm, St. Paul's Chapel

Transformation Through Poetry, Music, and Dance

Hear from leading performers and educators in a panel discussion on the roots and current practice of Spain's globally influential art form: flamenco dance. And experience a performance of a Federico García Lorca/Camarón de la Isla piece arranged by Dr. Ernesto Estrella and guests. The presentation concludes with a screening of Gurumbé, a documentary film exploring the fundamental contribution of Afro-Andalusians to the art of flamenco. Register at trinitywallstreet.org/elduende.

NEXT SUNDAY

Discovery

10am, Trinity Commons and Online

Ordinary and Extraordinary Saints

We often think of saints as perfect and one dimensional. In this faith education series for adults, we learn about the lives of people who served, sacrificed, and followed their faith calling and explore what they can teach us about our own life of faith. Learn more and register at trinitywallstreet.org/discovery.

Civic Engagement Workshop

1–2:30 pm, Trinity Commons

Do you want to help your community and strengthen our democracy? Join Trinity's Prison Ministry in partnership with the League of Women Voters and leading justice advocacy organizations for a civic engagement workshop. Learn how you can make a difference and shape a world where the dignity of every human being is respected. Register at trinitywallstreet.org/engage.

COMING SOON

El Duende Flamenco Dance Workshops

Tuesday, September 27–Thursday, September 29

5:30–7pm, St. Paul's Chapel

In flamenco dance, the tradition of Duende finds its most primeval and inspiring source. Come be transformed through a sampling of diverse classes. Open to all. Space is limited. Register at trinitywallstreet.org/elduende.

El Duende Beyond Flamenco

Saturday, October 1, 9:45am–1pm, St. Paul’s Chapel
Look at the future of Duende beyond flamenco with the inaugural public presentation of a new flamenco/jazz fusion work followed by a panel discussion on flamenco’s origin and future with the performers and guests. The presentation opens with a screening of Gurumbé, a documentary film exploring the fundamental contribution of Afro-Andalusians to the art of flamenco. Register at trinitywallstreet.org/elduende.

Worship Leader Orientation

Saturday, October 1, 10am–12pm, Trinity Church
All who are interested in serving on our worship leader team for Sunday services are invited to come hear about Trinity’s liturgical practices from clergy and staff. Roles for volunteers ages 12 and older include torch bearers, crucifers, thurifers, lectors, and more. This orientation is intended for new and returning volunteers. A light meal will follow in the Parish Hall. Attendees and interested volunteers will need to show proof of vaccination and complete a volunteer intake/renewal process. RSVP to Dane Miller at DMiller@trinitywallstreet.org by Wednesday, September 21.

Foundations

Sundays, October 2–30, 1pm, Trinity Commons
Foundations is a series for anyone seeking to know more about Christianity, the Episcopal tradition, or our parish—especially adults considering baptism, confirmation and reception into The Episcopal Church, or membership at Trinity. Together we will learn about scripture, theology, prayer, and much more. Join Trinity clergy and staff for fun, fellowship, and interactive learning. Lunch will be provided. For more information or to RSVP, visit trinitywallstreet.org/foundations.

Women in Community

Sunday, October 2, 1–3pm, Trinity Commons
Brunch and Bible
Learn, love, and support women in a beloved community. Among other offerings, we will delve deeper into learning about biblical women to strengthen our spiritual practice and continue our journey into wholeness. RSVP to TrinityWomenCommunity@gmail.com.

Blessing of the Animals

Sunday, October 2, 4pm, Trinity Churchyard
Our pets bless us with their presence, personality, and companionship. On the Sunday before the feast of St. Francis, patron saint of animals and ecology, we’ll thank God for all creation in a short service that includes a blessing of each animal present. All our neighbors are invited to bring their beloved pet friends to the churchyard for service, and to join us on the patio afterward for treats and social time.

Stained Glass Workshop

Saturdays, October 8–29, 3–6pm, UrbanGlass
Create your own stained-glass piece in a four-week workshop at UrbanGlass in Brooklyn. We’ll gather for a tour of the stained glass in Trinity Church with archivist Marissa Maggs on Friday, October 7, 5–6pm. Space is limited. Please note attendance at the tour and all four classes is mandatory for those who register. For more information, contact Melissa Mistry at MMistry@trinitywallstreet.org. Sponsored by the Visual Arts committee and Congregational Life.
