

ALL SAINTS' DAY

November 6, 2022, 11:15am

Welcome to Trinity Church

Welcome to Trinity Church Wall Street, a vibrant and growing Episcopal parish of more than 1,500 members. Over the past 325 years, the fabric of Trinity has been woven by the Spirit from the lives and gifts of diverse people; their desire to live their faith through worship, service, study, and stewardship; and the ever-evolving life of New York City itself.

Our parish is guided by its mission to share God's love for all people. Together, we seek to build relationships with one another and with our neighbors, to cultivate compassion, to deepen our knowledge and spiritual practices, to work for justice rooted in essential human dignity, and to live as conscientious contributors to the life of our city and the Anglican Communion worldwide. As we grow together in service and love, we know ourselves, first and foremost, as followers of Jesus.

We are delighted to welcome you today; thank you for the gift of your participation and prayers. If you are new to Trinity, please introduce yourself to a member of the clergy. All are warmly invited to join us for coffee hour at Parish Hall—behind the church and over the bridge.

About this Service

Allhallowtide

Although in the New Testament “saints” refers to all Christians, the Church soon gave special honor to the heroes of the faith, especially martyrs. The commemoration of The Feast of the Martyrs of the Whole World seems to have been observed in association with Pentecost from the fourth century. The extension of the feast to include All the Saints and its observance on November 1 emerged in the eighth century. Among the seven principal feasts of The Episcopal Church, it is the only one that may be observed both on its fixed date and on the Sunday immediately following.

All Saints' is also one of four holy days denoted as especially appropriate for baptisms, along with The Baptism of Our Lord, Easter Vigil, and Pentecost; on this day we join with those being baptized at the 9am service and renew our baptismal vows.

The annual triduum of All Hallows' Eve, All Saints' Day, and All Faithful Departed reminds us of our communion with all the saints and faithful witnesses who have gone before us, known and unknown.

The Word of God

The First Reading

Daniel 7:1–3, 15–18

Reader A Reading from the Book of Daniel.

In the first year of King Belshazzar of Babylon, Daniel had a dream and visions of his head as he lay in bed. Then he wrote down the dream: I, Daniel, saw in my vision by night the four winds of heaven stirring up the great sea, and four great beasts came up out of the sea, different from one another.

As for me, Daniel, my spirit was troubled within me, and the visions of my head terrified me. I approached one of the attendants to ask him the truth concerning all this. So he said that he would disclose to me the interpretation of the matter: “As for these four great beasts, four kings shall arise out of the earth. But the holy ones of the Most High shall receive the kingdom and possess the kingdom forever—forever and ever.”

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

People Thanks be to God.

The Psalm

Psalm 149

BCP p. 807

Said antiphonally, alternating between the Leader and People.

Leader Hallelujah!
Sing to the LORD a new song; *
sing his praise in the congregation of the faithful.

People Let Israel rejoice in his Maker; ***
let the children of Zion be joyful in their King.

Leader Let them praise his Name in the dance; *
let them sing praise to him with timbrel and harp.

People For the LORD takes pleasure in his people  and adorns the poor with victory.

Leader Let the faithful rejoice in triumph; *
let them be joyful on their beds.

People Let the praises of God be in their throat ***
and a two-edged sword in their hand;

Leader To wreak vengeance on the nations *
and punishment on the peoples;

People To bind their kings in chains ***
and their nobles with links of iron;

Leader To inflict on them the judgment decreed; *
this is glory for all his faithful people.
Hallelujah!

The Second Reading

Ephesians 1:11-23

Reader A Reading from the Letter to the Ephesians.

In Christ we have also obtained an inheritance, having been destined according to the purpose of him who accomplishes all things according to his counsel and will, so that we, who were the first to set our hope on Christ, might live for the praise of his glory. In him you also, when you had heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and had believed in him, were marked with the seal of the promised Holy Spirit; this is the pledge of our inheritance toward redemption as God's own people, to the praise of his glory.

I have heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love toward all the saints, and for this reason I do not cease to give thanks for you as I remember you in my prayers. I pray that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give you a spirit of wisdom and revelation as you come to know him, so that, with the eyes of your heart enlightened, you may know what is the hope to which he has called you, what are the riches of his glorious inheritance among the saints, and what is the immeasurable greatness of his power for us who believe, according to the working of his great power. God put this power to work in Christ when he raised him from the dead and seated him at his right hand in the heavenly places, far above all rule and authority and power and dominion, and above every name that is named, not only in this age but also in the age to come. And he has put all things under his feet and has made him the head over all things for the church, which is his body, the fullness of him who fills all in all.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People Thanks be to God.

The Holy Gospel

Luke 6:20–31

Please turn to face the Gospel as it passes.

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Deacon Jesus looked up at his disciples and said:

“Blessed are you who are poor,
for yours is the kingdom of God.

“Blessed are you who are hungry now,
for you will be filled.

“Blessed are you who weep now,
for you will laugh.

“Blessed are you when people hate you, and when they exclude you, revile you, and defame you on account of the Son of Man. Rejoice in that day and leap for joy, for surely your reward is great in heaven; for that is what their ancestors did to the prophets.

“But woe to you who are rich,
for you have received your consolation.

“Woe to you who are full now,
for you will be hungry.

“Woe to you who are laughing now,
for you will mourn and weep.

“Woe to you when all speak well of you, for that is what their ancestors did to the false prophets.

“But I say to you that listen, Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who abuse you. If anyone strikes you on the cheek, offer the other also; and from anyone who takes away your coat do not withhold even your shirt. Give to everyone who begs from you; and if anyone takes away your goods, do not ask for them again. Do to others as you would have them do to you.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Offertory Anthem

Saints Bound for Heaven Traditional, arr. Alice Parker (b. 1925) and Robert Shaw (1916-1999)

Our bondage it shall end by and by,
From Egypt's yoke set free, hail the glorious jubilee,
And to Canaan we'll return by and by.
Our Deliverer He shall come by and by.
And our sorrows have an end with our three-score years and ten,
And vast glory crown the day by and by.
And when to Jordan's floods we are come,
Jehovah rules the tide and the waters He'll divide,
And the ransomed host shall shout, we are come.

Then with all the happy throng we'll rejoice!
Shouting Glory to our King, till the vaults of heaven ring,
And through all eternity we'll rejoice!

Celebrant People

The Lord be with you. And al - so with you.

Celebrant People

Lift up your hearts. We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People

It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth; for in the multitude of your saints you have surrounded us with a great cloud of witnesses, that we might rejoice in their fellowship, and run with endurance the race that is set before us; and, together with them, receive the crown of glory that never fades away.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus and Benedictus

Hymnal S 125*

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow - er and might, heaven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.
 Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho -
 san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

Music: from A Community Mass, Richard Proulx (1937-2010)

Please continue standing or kneel.

Celebrant

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

All

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

Celebrant

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,

For thine is the kingdom,

Communion Anthem

Give Us The Wings of Faith

Ernest Bullock (1890-1979)

Give us the wings of faith to rise
Within the veil, and see
The saints above, how great their joys,
How bright their glories be.

We ask them whence their victory came:
They, with one united breath,
Ascribe the conquest to the Lamb,
Their triumph to His death.

They marked the footsteps that He trod,
His zeal inspired their breast;
And, following their incarnate God,
They reached the promised rest.

—Isaac Watts (1674-1748)

NEXT SUNDAY

Changes to the Sunday Worship Schedule Sundays beginning November 13, Trinity Church

Next Sunday we will change our morning worship schedule by merging our 9am and 9:15am congregations into one service at 9am here in Trinity Church. We experienced the wonderful potential of this service during the summer, and after conversations with some parents and some experts at family worship, the liturgy and children's formation teams have worked diligently and prayerfully to construct a reverent, joyful, meaningful, and intergenerational liturgy that brings our congregation closer to God and to one another. The 8am and 11:15am services will remain at their regular times. We hope you are as excited about the possibilities of this "new" service as clergy, staff, and parents are and we look forward to seeing you.

Trinity Young Adults Sunday Brunch 12:30–3pm, Trinity Commons

Young adults in their 20s and 30s are invited to join the Trinity Young Adults group for brunch following the 11:15am service. If you'd like to join, meet in the back of the church following the service and we'll walk across the bridge to Trinity Commons. To RSVP and learn about future events, email TrinityChurchYoungAdults@gmail.com.
