

THE SECOND SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

June 11, 2023, 11:15am

Welcome to Trinity Church

Welcome to Trinity Church Wall Street, a vibrant and growing Episcopal parish of more than 1,500 members. Over the past 325 years, the fabric of Trinity has been woven by the Spirit from the lives and gifts of diverse people; their desire to live their faith through worship, service, study, and stewardship; and the ever-evolving life of New York City itself.

Our parish is guided by its mission to share God's love for all people. Together, we seek to build relationships with one another and with our neighbors, to cultivate compassion, to deepen our knowledge and spiritual practices, to work for justice rooted in essential human dignity, and to live as conscientious contributors to the life of our city and the Anglican Communion worldwide. As we grow together in service and love, we know ourselves, first and foremost, as followers of Jesus.

We are delighted to welcome you today; thank you for the gift of your participation and prayers. If you are new to Trinity, please introduce yourself to a member of the clergy. All are warmly invited to join us for coffee hour at Parish Hall—behind the church and over the bridge.

About this Service

The Season after Pentecost

Our current liturgical season, the Season after Pentecost, is by far the longest of the Episcopal church year. It begins the day after Pentecost and ends the day before the First Sunday of Advent. Since the date of Easter changes every year—and the Day of Pentecost is always 50 days after Easter—the length of the season varies as well, ranging from 24–29 weeks in length. This season is sometimes called Ordinary Time, a phrase borrowed from the Roman Catholic Church.

A common practice among Episcopal churches is to change the appropriate liturgical elements at the start of each new season. Often these changes are directed by the Book of Common Prayer, such as the acclamations named for use in the Lenten and Easter seasons. However, liturgical leaders also decide which Prayers of the People, Eucharistic Prayer, blessing, and dismissal are used in services.

All Almighty God,
to you all hearts are open,
all desires known,
and from you no secrets are hid:
Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts
by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you,
and worthily magnify your holy Name;
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Collect of the Day

BCP p. 229

Celebrant God be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

O God, from whom all good proceeds: Grant that by your inspiration we may think those things that are right, and by your merciful guiding may do them; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

All Amen.

Please be seated.

The Word of God

The First Reading

Genesis 12:1-9

Reader A Reading from the Book of Genesis.

Now the LORD said to Abram, "Go from your country and your kindred and your father's house to the land that I will show you. I will make of you a great nation, and I will bless you, and make your name great, so that you will be a blessing. I will bless those who bless you, and the one who curses you I will curse; and in you all the families of the earth shall be blessed."

So Abram went, as the LORD had told him; and Lot went with him. Abram was seventy-five years old when he departed from Haran. Abram took his wife Sarai and his brother's son Lot, and all the possessions that they had gathered, and the persons whom they had acquired in Haran; and they set forth to go to the land of Canaan. When they had come to the land of Canaan, Abram passed through the land to the place at Shechem, to the oak of Moreh. At that time the Canaanites were in the land. Then the LORD appeared to Abram, and said, "To your offspring I will give this land." So he built there an altar to the LORD, who had appeared to him. From there he moved on to the hill country on the east of Bethel, and pitched his tent, with Bethel on the west and Ai on the east; and there he built an altar to the LORD and invoked the name of the LORD. And Abram journeyed on by stages toward the Negeb.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People Thanks be to God.

The Psalm

Psalm 33:1-12

BCP p. 626

Said antiphonally, alternating between the Leader and People.

- Leader* Rejoice in the LORD, you righteous; *
it is good for the just to sing praises.
- People* Praise the LORD with the harp; ***
play to him upon the psaltery and lyre.
- Leader* Sing for him a new song; *
sound a fanfare with all your skill upon the trumpet.
- People* For the word of the LORD is right,  and all his works are sure.
- Leader* He loves righteousness and justice; *
the loving-kindness of the LORD fills the whole earth.
- People* By the word of the LORD were the heavens made,  by the breath of his mouth all the heavenly hosts.
- Leader* He gathers up the waters of the ocean as in a water-skin * and stores up the depths of the sea.
- People* Let all the earth fear the LORD; ***
let all who dwell in the world stand in awe of him.
- Leader* For he spoke, and it came to pass; *
he commanded, and it stood fast.
- People* The LORD brings the will of the nations to naught; ***
he thwarts the designs of the peoples.
- Leader* But the LORD's will stands fast for ever, *
and the designs of his heart from age to age.
- People* Happy is the nation whose God is the LORD! ***
happy the people he has chosen to be his own!

The Second Reading

Romans 4:13–18

Reader A Reading from the Letter of Paul to the Romans.

The promise that he would inherit the world did not come to Abraham or to his descendants through the law but through the righteousness of faith. If it is the adherents of the law who are to be the heirs, faith is null and the promise is void. For the law brings wrath; but where there is no law, neither is there violation.

For this reason it depends on faith, in order that the promise may rest on grace and be guaranteed to all his descendants, not only to the adherents of the law but also to those who share the faith of Abraham (for he is the father of all of us, as it is written, “I have made you the father of many nations”)—in the presence of the God in whom he believed, who gives life to the dead and calls into existence the things that do not exist. Hoping against hope, he believed that he would become “the father of many nations,” according to what was said, “So numerous shall your descendants be.”

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

The Holy Gospel

Matthew 9:9–13, 18–26

Please turn to face the Gospel as it passes.

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Deacon As Jesus was walking along, he saw a man called Matthew sitting at the tax booth; and he said to him, “Follow me.”

And he got up and followed him. And as he sat at dinner in the house, many tax collectors and sinners came and were sitting with him and his disciples. When the Pharisees saw this, they said to his disciples, “Why does your teacher eat with tax collectors and sinners?” But when he heard this, he said, “Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick. Go and learn what this means, ‘I desire mercy, not sacrifice.’ For I have come to call not the righteous but sinners.”

While Jesus was saying these things to them, suddenly a leader of the synagogue came in and knelt before him, saying, “My daughter has just died; but come and lay your hand on her, and she will live.” And Jesus got up and followed him, with his disciples. Then suddenly a woman who had been suffering from hemorrhages for twelve years came up behind him and touched the fringe of his cloak, for she said to herself, “If I only touch his cloak, I will be made well.” Jesus turned, and seeing her he said, “Take heart, daughter; your faith has made you well.” And instantly the woman was made well. When Jesus came to the leader’s house and saw the flute players and the crowd making a commotion, he said, “Go away; for the girl is not dead but sleeping.” And they laughed at him. But when the crowd had been put outside, he went in and took her by the hand, and the girl got up. And the report of this spread throughout that district.

The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon

The Rev. Phillip A. Jackson
Rector

The Nicene Creed

BCP p. 358*

Please stand.

Celebrant Let us stand and profess our faith in the words of the Nicene Creed.

All

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

The Offertory

“For all things come from you, and of your own have we given you.” —1 Chronicles 29:14

Offerings at Trinity are applied to the care of our neighbors; particularly to our food assistance ministries Compassion Meals and Compassion Market, and in support of other food banks across lower Manhattan. Last year we were able to provide over one million meals for our food insecure neighbors. (trinitywallstreet.org/social-justice/food-assistance)

Please place your gift in the basket at the rear of the nave before or after the service, or visit trinitywallstreet.org/donate for additional ways to give. Gifts received are blessed immediately after the service with this prayer: Generous God, at your table we present this money, symbol of the work you have given us to do; use it, use us, in the service of your world to the glory of your name. Amen.

Offertory Anthem

Almighty and Everlasting God

Orlando Gibbons (1583-1625)

Almighty and everlasting God,
mercifully look upon our infirmities,
and in all our dangers and necessities,
stretch forth thy right hand to help and defend us:
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

—Collect for the Third Sunday after the Epiphany,
Book of Common Prayer (1549)

Censing of the Gifts

Please stand.

Let my prayer be set forth in thy sight as incense.

—Psalm 141:2

Celebrant

Glory and honor and praise to you, holy and living God. To deliver us from the power of sin and death and to reveal the riches of your grace, you looked with favor upon Mary, your willing servant, that she might conceive and bear a son, Jesus the holy child of God.

Living among us, Jesus loved us. He broke bread with outcasts and sinners, healed the sick, and proclaimed good news to the poor.

On the night before he died for us, Jesus was at table with his friends. He took bread, gave thanks to you, broke it, and gave it to them, and said: "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine. Again, he gave thanks to you, gave it to them, and said: "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Now gathered at your table, O God of all creation, and remembering Christ, crucified and risen, who was and is and is to come, we offer to you our gifts of bread and wine, and ourselves, a living sacrifice.

Pour out your Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Body and Blood of Christ. Breathe your Spirit over the whole earth and make us your new creation, the Body of Christ given for the world you have made.

In the fullness of time bring us, with all your saints, from every tribe and language and people and nation, to feast at the banquet prepared from the foundation of the world.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

The Lord's Prayer

BCP p. 364

Celebrant

As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,

All

Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your Name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial,
and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours,
now and for ever. Amen.

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread. Silence is kept.

Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God.
Behold what you are.

People May we become what we receive.

Please be seated.

Clergy will distribute communion from stations in front of the altar. If you need communion brought to you, please let an usher or sacristan know.

It is our custom to receive the bread in the upturned palms of our hands, and eat it immediately. Gluten-free wafers are available; please let the minister know that you need one.

Those who wish to receive wine should partake by sipping directly from the chalice (intincting, or dipping one's wafer into the wine, is no longer permitted). Please use your hands to gently assist the server in guiding the chalice to your lips.

If you do not wish to receive communion you are invited to come forward to receive a blessing, indicating your desire by crossing your arms over your chest.

Communion Anthem

There is a Balm in Gilead

Spiritual, arr. William Dawson (1899-1990)

REFRAIN:

There is a balm in Gilead
To make the wounded whole;
There is a balm in Gilead
To heal the sin-sick soul.

Sometimes I feel discouraged
And think my work's in vain,
But then the Holy Spirit
Revives my soul again.

REFRAIN

If you cannot sing like angels,
If you cannot preach like Paul,
You can tell the love of Jesus
And say, "He died for all."

REFRAIN

—Traditional, after Jeremiah 8:22

Post-Communion Prayer

BCP p. 365

All

Eternal God, heavenly Father,
you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food
in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood.
Send us now into the world in peace,
and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart;
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Blessing

BCP p. 339*

Celebrant

The peace of God, which passes all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you, and remain with you always.

All

Amen.

Closing Hymn

Hymnal 493

1 O for a thousand tongues to sing my dear Redeemer's praise,
2 My gracious Master and my God, assist me to proclaim
3 Jesus! the Name that charms our fears and bids our sorrows cease;
4 He speaks; and, listening to his voice, new life the dead receive,
5 Hear him, ye deaf; ye voiceless ones, your loosened tongues employ;
6 Glory to God and praise and love be now and ever given

1 the glories of my God and King, the triumphs of his grace!
2 and spread through all the earth abroad the honors of thy Name.
3 'tis music in the sinner's ears, 'tis life and health and peace.
4 the mournful broken hearts rejoice, the humble poor believe.
5 ye blind, behold, your Savior comes; and leap, ye lame, for joy!
6 by saints below and saints above, the Church in earth and heaven.

JOIN THE Trinity Youth Chorus

We're currently looking for individuals between the ages of 5 and 18 to become part of our music community. Choristers receive group and individual training in vocal technique, music theory, sight-reading, and performance skills from a group of dedicated professionals.

Prospective choristers should have an interest in singing, the commitment to attend weekly rehearsals, and the ability to sing at a Sunday morning service once a month.

Entrance into the chorus is by audition. At the audition, the director will evaluate each student's singing ability, understanding of music theory, and sight-singing skills, followed by a written music theory assessment for older students.

There is no fee to participate.

Sunday, June 18, 12:30–2:30pm, Trinity Commons

Are you an experienced knitter, new to the craft, or somewhere in between? Trinity Knitters welcomes you to gather and knit or crochet together, discuss projects, share advice, and enjoy each other's company. Open to all. To join, email TrinityKnitters@gmail.com.

COMING SOON

Sacred Ground Information Session

Wednesday, June 21, 6pm, Online

Join Trinity's Sacred Ground group starting in September. Created by The Episcopal Church, Sacred Ground is a film- and readings-based dialogue series on race, grounded in faith. In a small group, we will engage a curriculum that walks through chapters of America's history of race and racism, weaving in threads of family story, economic class, and political and regional identity. The curriculum focuses on Indigenous, Black, Latino, and Asian/Pacific American histories as they intersect with European American histories and points us to the vision of beloved community—where all people are honored and nurtured as beloved children of God. RSVP to Ruth Frey at RFrey@trinitywallstreet.org.

Sunday Afternoon Music

Sunday, June 25, 2pm, St. Paul's Chapel

This afternoon's music recital features violinist/pianist Brian Krinke and cellist Jason Pegis performing works by Sergei Rachmaninoff, Maurice Ravel, Claude Debussy, and Sergei Prokofiev, with original compositions by Brian Krinke and Jason Pegis. Reception follows. All are welcome. Hosted by Trinity Congregational Arts Allegro. For information, contact Deborah Hope at allegromusicministry@earthlink.net.

Holding Space for Pride

Wednesday, June 28, 5:30–8pm, Trinity Church

A Gathering & Service for the LGBTQ+ Community
Come be in community and mark the end of Pride Month with a gathering that will celebrate LGBTQ+ life while providing space to grieve, name our fears and anxieties, and look toward a hopeful future in this difficult time. A guided discussion and light meal will be followed by a reflective, affirming service in Trinity Church. Open to all; LGBTQ+ community members as well as allies are invited to take part. An offering of Trinity's Pastoral Care team in collaboration with the Psychotherapy and Spirituality Institute (PSI). For more information, contact PastoralCare@trinitywallstreet.org. RSVP requested at trinitywallstreet.org/holdingspace.

You Gotta Move

July 28–30, 2023, Trinity Retreat Center

Spirituality of Reggae and Samba

What is the relationship between movement and prayer? This retreat considers the spirituality of the popular dance music forms of reggae and samba, as expressed in the music/lyrics of Bob Marley and Gilberto Gil. Register at trinityretreatcenter.org.

BULLETIN BOARD

What's Your Favorite Hymn?

Trinity's musicians and clergy want to know which hymns you most love so we can include your favorites in the services throughout the summer and going forward. Email your favorite hymn to Melissa Attebury at MAttebury@trinitywallstreet.org today.

Trinity Commons Open Hours

Weekdays, 10am–2pm, Trinity Commons

All are welcome to connect and recharge at the Trinity Commons Lower Lobby. Throughout the workweek, community members can access computers and complimentary WiFi, enjoy light refreshments, listen to talks and music, and participate in arts and crafts. Neighborhood artists will lead free workshops on Mondays and Wednesdays. For more information: OpenHours@trinitywallstreet.org.

Trinity Commons English Language Circles Tuesdays & Thursdays through June 29

Join us! Trinity is hosting drop-in language conversation circles to provide opportunities for people to meet up, learn, and practice English. Refreshments will also be provided. Sessions will be held Tuesdays from 9:30–10:45am and 6–8pm and Thursdays from 11:30am–1pm and 6–8pm. More information: OpenHours@trinitywallstreet.org.

Join the Trinity Youth Chorus!

We're currently looking for individuals between the ages of 5 and 18 to become part of our music community. Choristers receive individual and group training in vocal technique, music theory, sight-reading, and performance skills. Sign up to audition by July 15 at trinitywallstreet.org/youthchorus.

Be a Trinity Ambassador!

Share your gift of hospitality and love for Trinity with all who cross our threshold. Ambassadors are needed to welcome guests to Trinity Church, St. Paul's Chapel, and Trinity Commons in two-hour shifts from 10am–4pm on weekdays. Only two shifts every three months are required and training is provided. Learn more by contacting Maggy Laraque at TrinityAmbassadors@trinitywallstreet.org.

Join Trinity's Worship Leader Team

New volunteers are always welcome to support our worship during Sunday services. Roles include crucifers, greeters, lectors, subdeacons, thurifers, torch bearers, and ushers. We are currently recruiting volunteers ages 12 and up for the 8am and 11:15am services and all ages for the 9am service. Adult volunteers are required to complete a background screening and Ministry Safe training. For more information, contact Dane Miller at Sacristans@trinitywallstreet.org.

Congregational Voice

“Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is pleasing, whatever is commendable, if there is any excellence and if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things” (Philippians 4:8 NRSVCE). At a time when so many of us are living in deep distress—over gun violence, over climate change, over racism, over the decline of community and of democratic norms, over so many things—the verse stands as a necessary corrective to the grinding down of our spirit. Not as a retreat into a bougie fantasy-land, but as a reminder that art, beauty, honorable examples, music, nature, friendship, and faith are what sustains us to continue to do the work of God. When we are empty, these things replenish our spirit. —The Rev. Dr. Deborah Meister, Associate Priest, Christ Church Cathedral, Montreal

FLOWERS

To donate flowers, email Flowers@trinitywallstreet.org.

This service conforms to Holy Eucharist: Rite Two, which begins on page 355 of the Book of Common Prayer (BCP). Scripture readings are appointed by the Revised Common Lectionary, Episcopal (RCL) and are excerpted from the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible. Psalm texts are taken from the Book of Common Prayer. Other liturgical elements may include materials compiled by Trinity Church staff (TCWS) from publications including The Book of Occasional Services 2003 (BOS), Enriching Our Worship (EOW), and contemporary liturgical resources. An asterisk (*) denotes that the text is adapted from the original source material. Hymns come from The Hymnal 1982, Lift Every Voice and Sing II (LEVAS), My Heart Sings Out (MHSO), and Wonder, Love, and Praise (WLP).
