

MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. SUNDAY

January 14, 2024, 11:15am

Welcome to Trinity Church

Welcome to Trinity Church Wall Street, a vibrant and growing Episcopal parish of more than 1,500 members. Over the past 325 years, the fabric of Trinity has been woven by the Spirit from the lives and gifts of diverse people; their desire to live their faith through worship, service, study, and stewardship; and the ever-evolving life of New York City itself.

Our parish is guided by its mission to share God's love for all people. Together, we seek to build relationships with one another and with our neighbors, to cultivate compassion, to deepen our knowledge and spiritual practices, to work for justice rooted in essential human dignity, and to live as conscientious contributors to the life of our city and the Anglican Communion worldwide. As we grow together in service and love, we know ourselves, first and foremost, as followers of Jesus.

We are delighted to welcome you today; thank you for the gift of your participation and prayers. If you are new to Trinity, please introduce yourself to a member of the clergy. All are warmly invited to join us for Coffee Hour at Parish Hall—behind the church and over the bridge.

About this Service

Martin Luther King, Jr. Sunday

Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. was born on January 15, 1929. A third-generation preacher, he combined his deep faith with a passionate commitment to social justice. King spearheaded non-violent mass demonstrations against racism, and his campaigns were instrumental to the passage of the Civil Rights Acts of 1964, 1965, and 1968. He faced constant and oftentimes violent opposition, being jailed 30 times and eventually assassinated. Dr. King's "I Have a Dream" speech delivered at the 1963 March on Washington, D. C. remains a pinnacle of inspirational rhetoric. Martin Luther King, Jr. Day, celebrated on the third Monday of January each year, became a federal holiday in 1983 and, along with September 11, is recognized as a national day of service.

Take Me to the Alley

Gregory Porter (b. 1971)

Well, they gild their houses
In preparation for the King,
And they line the sidewalks
With every sort of shiny thing;
But they will be surprised
When they hear him say:

Take me to the alley,
Take me to the afflicted ones,
Take me to the lonely ones
That somehow lost their way.
Let them hear me say:
I am your friend.
Come to my table,
Rest here in my garden,
You will have a pardon.

—Gregory Porter

Opening Acclamation

BCP p. 355

At the sound of the bell, please stand and turn to face the procession.

Celebrant Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
People And blessed be God's kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

Collect for Purity

BCP p. 355*

All Almighty God,
 to you all hearts are open,
 all desires known,
 and from you no secrets are hid:
 Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts
 by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you,
 and worthily magnify your holy Name;
 through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Collect of the Day

LFF p. 175

Celebrant God be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Let us pray.

Almighty God, by the hand of Moses your servant you led your people out of slavery, and made them free at last: Grant that your church, following the example of your prophet Martin Luther King, may resist oppression in the name of your love, and may strive to secure for all your children the blessed liberty of the Gospel of Jesus Christ; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

All Amen.

Please be seated.

The Word of God

The First Reading

Exodus 3:7–12

Reader A Reading from the Book of Exodus.

Then the LORD said, "I have observed the misery of my people who are in Egypt; I have heard their cry on account of their taskmasters. Indeed, I know their sufferings, and I have come down to deliver them from the Egyptians, and to bring them up out of that land to a good and broad land, a land flowing with milk and honey, to the country of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites. The cry of the Israelites has now come to me; I have also seen how the Egyptians oppress them. So come, I will send you to Pharaoh to bring my people, the Israelites, out of Egypt." But Moses said to God, "Who am I that I should go to Pharaoh, and bring the Israelites out of Egypt?" He said, "I will be with you; and this shall be the sign for you that it is I who sent you: when you have brought the people out of Egypt, you shall worship God on this mountain."

People Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.
Thanks be to God.

The Psalm

Psalm 77:11-20

BCP p. 693

Leader I will remember the works of the LORD,*
and call to mind your wonders of old time.

People I will meditate on all your acts* and ponder your mighty deeds.

Leader Your way, O God, is holy;*
who is so great a god as our God?

People You are the God who works wonders* and have declared your power among the peoples.

Leader By your strength you have redeemed your people,*
the children of Jacob and Joseph.

People The waters saw you, O God;
the waters saw you and trembled;*
the very depths were shaken.

Leader The clouds poured out water;
the skies thundered;*
your arrows flashed to and fro;

People The sound of your thunder was in the whirlwind;
your lightnings lit up the world;*
the earth trembled and shook.

Leader Your way was in the sea,
and your paths in the great waters,*
yet your footsteps were not seen.

People You led your people like a flock*
by the hand of Moses and Aaron.

The Second Reading

Revelation 7:9–17

Reader A Reading from the Revelation to John.

I looked, and there was a great multitude that no one could count, from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, robed in white, with palm branches in their hands. They cried out in a loud voice, saying,

“Salvation belongs to our God who is seated on the throne, and to the Lamb!”

And all the angels stood around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures, and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshiped God, singing,

“Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might be to our God forever and ever! Amen.”

Then one of the elders addressed me, saying, “Who are these, robed in white, and where have they come from?” I said to him, “Sir, you are the one that knows.” Then he said to me, “These are they who have come out of the great ordeal; they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

For this reason they are before the throne of God,
and worship him day and night within his temple,
and the one who is seated on the throne will shelter them.
They will hunger no more, and thirst no more;
the sun will not strike them,
nor any scorching heat;
for the Lamb at the center of the throne will be their shepherd, and he will guide them to springs of the water of life,
and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes.”

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

People Thanks be to God.

Gradual

Please stand and turn to face the Gospel as it passes.

Choir Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

The Holy Gospel

Luke 6:27–36

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Deacon Jesus said, “I say to you that listen, Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who abuse you. If anyone strikes you on the cheek, offer the other also; and from anyone who takes away your coat do not withhold even your shirt. Give to everyone who begs from you; and if anyone takes away your goods, do not ask for them again. Do to others as you would have them do to you.

“If you love those who love you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners love those who love them. If you do good to those who do good to you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners do the same. If you lend to those from whom you hope to receive, what credit is that to you? Even sinners lend to sinners, to receive as much again. But love your enemies, do good, and lend, expecting nothing in return. Your reward will be great, and you will be children of the Most High; for he is kind to the ungrateful and the wicked. Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon

The Rev. Phillip A. Jackson
Rector

The Nicene Creed

BCP p. 358*

Please stand.

Celebrant Let us stand and profess our faith in the words of the Nicene Creed.

All We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

TCWS, after Martin Luther King, Jr. and BOS p. 220*

Leader O God, throughout the ages you have raised up prophets to guide your people in seeking your kingdom and its righteousness. Hear us this day as we pray to you for help and healing, guided by the words of your pastor and servant, Martin Luther King, Jr.

Silence

Creator and Preserver of all mankind, in whom to dwell is to find peace and security, toward whom to turn is to find light and life eternal; hear us as we pray on behalf of ourselves and those we now remember before you.

The People name those for whom they are interceding, either silently or aloud.

People Loving God,
Hear our prayer.

Leader God of abundant life, we pray for your holy Church universal; that it may be so guided and governed by your Spirit, that all who profess and call themselves Christians may be led into the way of truth, and hold the faith in unity of spirit.

People Loving God,
Hear our prayer.

Leader O God, restore to wholeness whatever is broken by human sin. Increase the number of persons of good will and moral sensitivity. Give us renewed confidence in nonviolence and the way of love as taught by Christ.

People Loving God,
Hear our prayer.

Leader We commend to your Fatherly goodness all those who are in any way afflicted or distressed in mind, body, or spirit. Grant your healing grace to all who are sick, injured, or infirm, that they may be made whole; and bless those who minister to the suffering.

People Loving God,
Hear our prayer.

Leader O God, we thank you for the lives of great saints and prophets in the past, who have revealed to us that we can stand up amid the difficulties and trials of life and not give in. We thank you for our foreparents, who have given us something in the midst of the darkness of exploitation and oppression to keep going.

People Loving God,
Hear our prayer.

Celebrant O God, you have declared your power among the peoples. Grant us, who see by your light alone, the intelligence to know your will. Give us the courage to do your will. Give us the devotion to love your will. In the name and spirit of Jesus we pray.

All Amen.

Confession and Absolution

BCP p. 360

Celebrant Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Silence

All Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,
have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Celebrant Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.

All Amen.

The Peace

BCP p. 360

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

The People greet one another in the name of the Lord.

The Offertory

“For all things come from you, and of your own have we given you.” —1 Chronicles 29:14

Offerings at Trinity are applied to the care of our neighbors; particularly to our food assistance ministries Compassion Meals and Compassion Market, and in support of other food banks across lower Manhattan. Last year we were able to provide over one million meals for our food insecure neighbors. (trinitywallstreet.org/social-justice/food-assistance)

Please place your gift in the basket at the rear of the nave before or after the service, or visit trinitywallstreet.org/donate for additional ways to give. Gifts received are blessed immediately after the service with this prayer: Generous God, at your table we present this money, symbol of the work you have given us to do; use it, use us, in the service of your world to the glory of your name. Amen.

People Get Ready

Curtis Mayfield (1942–1999), arr. Kyle Pederson (b. 1971)

People get ready, there's a train a-comin'.
You don't need no baggage, you just get on board.
All you need is faith to hear the diesels hummin'.
Don't need no ticket, you just thank the Lord.

People get ready, there's a train to Jordan
Pickin' up passengers from coast to coast.
Faith is key, open the doors and board them.
There's hope for all, so thank the Lord.

Can we even make room for the hopeless sinner
Who would hurt all mankind just to save his own?
Have mercy on those whose choices grow thinner,
So there's no hiding place from the kingdom's throne.

Getting ready, ready, Lord. Oh, I'm ready!
Gonna get on board, time to get on board.
Everybody gonna get on board.
Everybody get ready, it's time to get on board!

People
It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth; because in Jesus Christ our Lord you have received us as your children, made us citizens of your kingdom, and given us the Holy Spirit to guide us into all truth.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Music: from Deutsche Messe, Franz Peter Schubert (1797–1828); arr. Richard Proulx (1937–2010)

Please continue standing or kneel.

Celebrant We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, “Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

All We remember his death,
We proclaim his resurrection,
We await his coming in glory;

Celebrant And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

The Lord's Prayer

BCP p. 364

Celebrant As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,

All Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your Name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial,
and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours,
now and for ever. Amen.

The Fraction and Invitation

BCP p. 364/St. Augustine (1 Corinthians)

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread. Silence is kept.

Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God.
Behold what you are.

People May we become what we receive.

Please be seated.

Clergy will distribute communion from stations in front of the altar. If you need communion brought to you, please let an usher or sacristan know.

It is our custom to receive the bread in the upturned palms of our hands, and eat it immediately. Gluten-free wafers are available; please let the minister know that you need one.

Those who wish to receive wine should partake by sipping directly from the chalice (intincting, or dipping one's wafer into the wine, is no longer permitted). Please use your hands to gently assist the server in guiding the chalice to your lips.

If you do not wish to receive communion you are invited to come forward to receive a blessing, indicating your desire by crossing your arms over your chest.

Join men from Trinity as they plan ongoing and special events for the men of the church. To RSVP, email TrinityChurchMen@gmail.com.

Trinity Young Adults

Weeknight Dinner

7–9pm, Trinity Commons

Adults in their 20s and 30s are invited to join the Trinity Young Adults group for a shared meal and fellowship. We meet the third Thursday of each month with a different member of the clergy or staff. To RSVP and learn about future events, email TrinityChurchYoungAdults@gmail.com.

NEXT SUNDAY

Discovery: The Ties That Bind

Sunday, January 21, 10am

Trinity Commons and Online

Jewish, Christian, and Islamic Readings of Genesis

The story of God's promises to Abraham and his descendants in the book of Genesis is a central narrative for Judaism, Christianity, and Islam. In this series, join religious leaders and thinkers from all three faith traditions as we encounter Abraham, Sarah, Hagar, Ishmael, and Isaac in a new light. Register to join at trinitywallstreet.org/discovery.

Trinity Knitters

Sunday, January 21, 12:30–2:30pm

Trinity Commons

Are you an experienced knitter, new to the craft, or somewhere in between? Trinity Knitters welcomes you to gather and knit or crochet together, discuss projects, share advice, and enjoy each other's company. Open to all. RSVP to TrinityKnitters@gmail.com.

COMING SOON

When a Loved One Struggles

Mondays, January 22–February 26

6:30–7:45pm, Online

Having a loved one who struggles with their mental and emotional health can be lonely and stressful. Caring for yourself is essential to support those you love. Come be in shared company for a six-week support group to help dispel the isolation, led by a facilitator from the Psychotherapy & Spirituality Institute (PSI). For information, email PastoralCare@trinitywallstreet.org. Register at trinitywallstreet.org/struggles.

Jeremiah's Good Samaritan Retreat

January 26–28, Trinity Retreat Center

Led by the Rev. Liz Edman

With the Kingdom of Judah on the brink of catastrophe, Jeremiah is thrown into a well and left to die. In an act of breathtaking tenderness, an Ethiopian eunuch rescues Jeremiah—and his prophetic voice. If you don't know this story, you are not alone! We'll ponder this fascinating tale alongside the parable of the Good Samaritan. When an obscure story meets a familiar one, you can bet surprises are in store. Join us for a weekend of exploration, intrigue, and excellent conversation. Register at trinityretreatcenter.org.

Care for Caregivers

Saturday, January 27, 10am–4pm

Trinity Commons

Because caregivers need care, too. Be replenished by the sharing of a meal, the catching of your breath, the comfort of prayer, and practices of rest in the presence of God. Join facilitators from the Psychotherapy & Spirituality Institute (PSI) and members of the Pastoral Care team for this time of rest and renewal. Anyone who gives care to others is welcome. RSVP by January 22 at trinitywallstreet.org/caregivers. For questions, contact PastoralCare@trinitywallstreet.org.

Worship Leader Workshop

Saturday, February 17, 10am–12pm

Trinity Church

Have you always wanted to read at the lectern or carry the cross during the service but weren't sure how to get involved? Prospective and existing worship leaders are invited to learn the basics of volunteering during services at Trinity, hear about different roles, and deepen their knowledge of our liturgical practices in conversation with clergy and staff. A light meal will follow in the Parish Hall. All volunteers are required to complete a background screening and MinistrySafe training. RSVP to Dane Miller at DMiller@trinitywallstreet.org by Monday, February 5.

BULLETIN BOARD

Community Athletics

Tuesdays–Fridays, Trinity Commons

Make friends, get moving, and care for your mental and physical health in classes for the whole community. From Pilates to barre, pickleball to basketball, tai chi to dance meditation, there's something for everyone—including children's soccer and rhythmic gymnastics. And, this semester, learn the art of Ballroom in a special beginner-friendly class on voguing. Find out more and register at trinitywallstreet.org/athletics.

Need Help? Call the Resource Line!

Monday–Friday, 2–5pm

If you or someone you know needs a helping hand, call 917.594.6300 for our Resource Connections program. Trinity's Outreach team helps guests access housing, legal aid, mental health services, immigration assistance, SNAP benefits, and other services. Learn more at trinitywallstreet.org/resource.

Be a Trinity Ambassador!

Share your gift of hospitality and love for Trinity with all who cross our threshold. Ambassadors are needed to welcome guests to Trinity Church, St. Paul's Chapel, and Trinity Commons in two-hour shifts from 10am–4pm on weekdays. Only two shifts every three months are required, and training is provided. Learn more by contacting Maggy Laraque at TrinityAmbassadors@trinitywallstreet.org.

Join Trinity's Worship Leader Team

New volunteers are always welcome to support our worship during Sunday services. Roles include crucifers, greeters, lectors, subdeacons, thurifers, torchbearers, and ushers. We are currently recruiting volunteers ages 12 and up for the 8am and 11:15am services and all ages for the 9am service. Adult volunteers are required to complete a background screening and Ministry Safe training. For more information, contact Dane Miller at Sacristans@trinitywallstreet.org.

2024–2025 Discernment Process for the Election of Trinity Church Wall Street Vestry Members

The Annual Vestry Election will be held on April 2, 2024, Easter Tuesday, as specified under the 1697 Charter.

The period of discernment where potential Vestry members of Trinity parish are identified and proposed both for the 2024 election slate, as well as for future years, begins on January 30, 2024. The discernment process is as follows:

- Any eligible member of the congregation* may submit recommendations to the Parish Nominating Committee.
- All recommendations must be received in writing no later than January 14, 2024. The recommendations must be submitted with biographical information and should identify the person or persons making the recommendations. Recommendations should be sent to Mike Hogan at MHogan@trinitywallstreet.org. Suggested candidates must be Episcopalian and bring specific skills or knowledge to the Parish.

- The Parish Nominating Committee will review all recommendations for vacant Vestry positions for 2024–2025.
- Vestry Election Day is April 2, 2024. Information regarding the place and manner of the 2024 election will be provided at a later date.

*All members of the parish who are 18 years or older, have officially enrolled in the parish registry, and have contributed to the support of the Parish in any documented amount within the preceding year (April 2023–April 2024) are eligible to make recommendations and vote in the Vestry election. The register of eligible voters is available for inspection and a member of the congregation may confirm that his or her name is included on the register by emailing Mike Hogan at MHogan@trinitywallstreet.org. Registration can also be done on election day upon application to the Rector upon proving the above-mentioned qualifications.
