THE THIRD SUNDAY IN LENT

TRINITY CHURCH
WALL STREET

Welcome to Trinity Church

Welcome to Trinity Church Wall Street, a vibrant and growing Episcopal parish of more than 1,500 members. Over the past 325 years, the fabric of Trinity has been woven by the Spirit from the lives and gifts of diverse people; their desire to live their faith through worship, service, study, and stewardship; and the ever-evolving life of New York City itself.

Our parish is guided by its mission to share God’s love for all people. Together, we seek to build relationships with one another and with our neighbors, to cultivate compassion, to deepen our knowledge and spiritual practices, to work for justice rooted in essential human dignity, and to live as conscientious contributors to the life of our city and the Anglican Communion worldwide. As we grow together in service and love, we know ourselves, first and foremost, as followers of Jesus.

We are delighted to welcome you today; thank you for the gift of your participation and prayers. If you are new to Trinity, please introduce yourself to a member of the clergy. All are warmly invited to join us for coffee hour at Parish Hall—behind the church and over the bridge.

About this Service

Lent

The season of Lent—from an Old English word meaning “spring”—spans 40 days: from Ash Wednesday through Holy Saturday, excluding Sundays. Traditionally, this time of year has been a period of solemn preparation, self-examination, and repentance. Remembering the time Jesus spent in the wilderness before beginning his ministry, some Christians adopt Lenten disciplines: giving up an item of food, taking on a prayer or devotional practice, taking a technology fast, or simply setting aside time each day to be present with God and those they love.

Lenten liturgy is characterized by solemnity and simplicity. The Gloria and the word alleluia are omitted and will not return until the Great Vigil of Easter. At Trinity Church, a “Lenten array” of red, black, and rough linen fabric characterizes the vestments during this season.

Opening Acclamation

EOW p. 50

Celebrant Blessed be the God of our salvation:
People Who bears our burdens and forgives our sins.

Summary of the Law

Matthew 22:37–40

BCP p. 319*

Celebrant Our Lord Jesus Christ said: “‘You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind.’ This is the greatest and first commandment. And a second is like it: ‘You shall love your neighbor as yourself.’ On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.”

Confession and Absolution

BCP p. 352/p. 41*

Celebrant Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Silence

All Almighty and most merciful God, we have erred and strayed from your ways like lost sheep, we have followed too much the devices and desires of our own hearts, we have offended against your holy laws,
we have left undone those things which we ought to have done, and we have done those things which we ought not to have done.
O God, have mercy upon us, spare those who confess their faults, restore those who are penitent, according to your promises declared to us
in Christ Jesus our Lord;
and grant, O most merciful Father, for his sake, that we may ever after live a godly, righteous, and sober life,
to the glory of your holy Name. Amen.

Celebrant Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.

All Amen.

Hymnal S 91

The Collect of the Day

BCP p. 218

Celebrant God be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Let us pray.

Almighty God, you know that we have no power in ourselves to help ourselves: Keep us both outwardly in our bodies and inwardly in our souls, that we may be defended from all adversities which may happen to the body, and from all evil thoughts which may assault and hurt the soul; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

All Amen.

Please be seated.

The Word of God

The First Reading

*Exodus 20:1–5a, 7–10a, 11–17**

Reader

A Reading from the Book of Exodus.

God spoke all these words to Moses on Mount Sinai:

I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery; you shall have no other gods before me.

You shall not make for yourself an idol, whether in the form of anything that is in heaven above, or that is on the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth. You shall not bow down to them or worship them.

You shall not make wrongful use of the name of the LORD your God, for the LORD will not acquit anyone who misuses his name.

Remember the sabbath day, and keep it holy. Six days you shall labor and do all your work. But the seventh day is a sabbath to the LORD your God; you shall not do any work. For in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that is in them, but rested the seventh day; therefore the LORD blessed the sabbath day and consecrated it.

Honor your father and your mother, so that your days may be long in the land that the LORD your God is giving you.

You shall not murder.

You shall not commit adultery.

You shall not steal.

You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor.

You shall not covet your neighbor's house, or anything that belongs to your neighbor.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People

Thanks be to God.

The Holy Gospel

John 2:13–22

Preacher The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Preacher The Passover of the Jews was near, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. In the temple he found people selling cattle, sheep, and doves, and the money changers seated at their tables. Making a whip of cords, he drove all of them out of the temple, both the sheep and the cattle. He also poured out the coins of the money changers and overturned their tables. He told those who were selling the doves, “Take these things out of here! Stop making my Father’s house a marketplace!” His disciples remembered that it was written, “Zeal for your house will consume me.” The Jews then said to him, “What sign can you show us for doing this?” Jesus answered them, “Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up.” The Jews then said, “This temple has been under construction for forty-six years, and will you raise it up in three days?” But he was speaking of the temple of his body. After he was raised from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this; and they believed the scripture and the word that Jesus had spoken.

The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Homily

The Rev. Matthew A. Welsch
Priest and Director, Youth and Community Care

The Nicene Creed

BCP p. 358*

Please stand.

Celebrant Let us stand and profess our faith in the words of the Nicene Creed.

All We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

CW:TS p. 261*

Leader Let us bring to God our prayers of intercession through Christ, who gave himself for the life of the world.

People Have mercy on us, O Lord.

People Have mercy on us, O Lord.

Leader For those who make laws, interpret them, and administer them—especially Joseph our president, Kathleen our governor, and Eric our mayor: that they may contribute to a common life ordered in justice and equity, we pray.

People Have mercy on us, O Lord.

Leader For all whose lives are affected by war, schism, or disaster, and for those who have the courage to work openly for reconciliation and peace, we pray.

People Have mercy on us, O Lord.

Leader For those who, weighed down with hardship, failure, sickness, or sorrow, feel that God is far from them, we pray.

People Have mercy on us, O Lord.

Leader That we, with all those who have walked before us, may find mercy in the day of Christ, we pray.

People Have mercy on us, O Lord.

The Great Thanksgiving

BCP p. 340*/p. 379

Please stand.

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, through Jesus Christ our Lord, who was tempted in every way as we are, yet did not sin. By his grace we are able to triumph over every evil, and to live no longer for ourselves alone, but for him who died for us and rose again.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus and Benedictus

Hymnal S 114

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly, Lord God of Hosts: Hea - ven and earth are full of thy glo - ry. Glo - - ry be to thee, O Lord Most High. Bless - ed is he that com - eth in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

Music: from Missa de Sancta Maria Magdalena, Healey Willan (1880–1968)

Please continue standing or kneel.

Celebrant

All glory be to you, O Lord our God, for you created heaven and earth, and made us in your own image; and, of your tender mercy, gave your only Son Jesus Christ to take our nature upon him, and to suffer death upon the cross for our redemption. He made there a full and perfect sacrifice for the whole world; and did institute, and in his holy Gospel command us to continue, a perpetual memory of that his precious death and sacrifice, until his coming again.

For in the night in which he was betrayed, he took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying, “Take, eat, this is my Body, which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me.”

Likewise, after supper, he took the cup; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, saying, “Drink this, all of you; for this is my Blood of the New Covenant, which is shed for you, and for many, for the remission of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this in remembrance of me.”

Therefore, O Lord and heavenly Father, we your people do celebrate and make, with these your holy gifts which we now offer to you, the memorial your Son commanded us to make; having in remembrance his blessed passion and precious death, his mighty resurrection and glorious ascension; and looking for his coming again with power and great glory.

And we most humbly beseech you, O merciful Father, to hear us, and, with your Word and Holy Spirit, to bless and sanctify these gifts of bread and wine, that they may be to us the Body and Blood of your dearly beloved Son Jesus Christ.

And we earnestly desire your fatherly goodness to accept this our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving, whereby we offer and present to you, O Lord, our selves, our souls and bodies. Grant, we beseech you, that all who partake of this Holy Communion may worthily receive the most precious Body and Blood of your Son Jesus Christ, and be filled with your grace and heavenly benediction; and also that we and all your whole Church may be made one body with him, that he may dwell in us, and we in him.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

All AMEN.

The Lord's Prayer

BCP p. 364*

Celebrant And now, we pray using the prayer that Jesus taught us, saying:

All Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

O Verbum Patris

Eric William Barnum (b. 1979)

O Verbum Patris,
tu lumen prime aurore
in circulo rote es,
omnia in divina vi operans.
O tu prescientia Dei,
omnia opera tua previdisti,
sicut voluisti,
ita quod in medio potencie tue

et operatus es quasi in similitudine rote

*O Word of the Father, you are the first dawn's light within the circuit of the wheel, performing all in energy divine.
O God's foreknowledge,
you have foreseen your every deed according to your will—all that you have foreknown lay held within your power's heart.
Your working is as like a wheel that all encompasses—beginning kept it not nor ever was it wound down to an end. Amen.*

Policy and Advocacy Year-in-Review 2023

Trinity Church Wall Street has a long history of advancing social justice in alignment with our belief that every person is created in the image of God and has dignity and value. In support of this belief, Trinity has advocated for changes to public policy in four main priority areas: youth wellbeing and education; mental health; housing insecurity; and ending mass incarceration. These priorities are detailed in our Policy and Advocacy Agenda at trinitywallstreet.org/advocacy.

To ensure that Trinity's congregation remains aware of and engaged in our advocacy activities, here is a look at what happened in 2023 and what we plan to work on in 2024.

- Governor Hochul signed the Clean Slate Act into law in December. This historic legislation will seal conviction records for over two million eligible New Yorkers who have paid their debt to society, improving their access to housing, education, and employment.
- The New York City Council passed Fair Chance for Housing, which will ensure New Yorkers with past convictions have the same housing rights as their neighbors.
- Progress has also been made to improve the City's housing voucher program. The City Council overrode a mayoral veto on several pieces of legislation. One removes the requirement that residents live in shelter for 90 days before being eligible for housing subsidies. This change will enable individuals and families to leave shelter for stable housing more quickly, freeing up much needed space in the overburdened shelter system.
- Trinity joined the NY SANE (New York Shelter for All in Need Equally) coalition, which includes other faith institutions, nonprofits such as the Community Service Society, funders including Robin Hood, and labor unions. The coalition, which is spearheaded by the Episcopal Diocese of New York and the service provider WIN (Women in Need), is fighting to maintain the City's right to shelter rules to ensure that more New Yorkers do not end up on the streets.

Looking ahead, a primary area of focus over the coming months will be passage of state legislation to create the Housing Access Voucher Program (HAVP) which would serve people who do not qualify for existing rental assistance programs, regardless of immigration status. We also will continue to vigorously advocate for the closing of the jails on Rikers Island, building on the momentum of the successful panel held last October sponsored by the congregation's Prison Ministry group. And we will advocate for state legislation to improve school culture and disciplinary protocols. Trinity is an active member of the coalitions working on these efforts and we will continue collaborating with advocates, leveraging our public relations and government relations consultants, meeting with legislators, amplifying messaging on social media, and engaging in select organizing activities. We also will continue to advocate for measures that help our neighbors returning home after incarceration obtain identification and essential life documents so they can successfully reenter society, as well as to address the city's ongoing affordable housing crisis.

We look forward to providing regular updates and thank you, as always, for your support of our efforts. If you have any questions, please feel free to reach out to External Affairs Officer Neil Reilly at NReilly@trinitywallstreet.org.
