

YOUNG CLERGY GATHERING HOLY EUCHARIST

May 10, 2024, 12:05pm

God has gone up with a shout, the LORD with the sound of a trumpet.

PSALM 47:5

Welcome to Trinity Church

Welcome to Trinity Church Wall Street, a vibrant and growing Episcopal parish of more than 1,500 members. Over the past 325 years, the fabric of Trinity has been woven by the Spirit from the lives and gifts of diverse people; their desire to live their faith through worship, service, study, and stewardship; and the ever-evolving life of New York City itself.

Our parish is guided by its mission to share God's love for all people. Together, we seek to build relationships with one another and with our neighbors, to cultivate compassion, to deepen our knowledge and spiritual practices, to work for justice rooted in essential human dignity, and to live as conscientious contributors to the life of our city and the Anglican Communion worldwide. As we grow together in service and love, we know ourselves, first and foremost, as followers of Jesus.

We are delighted to welcome you today; thank you for the gift of your participation and prayers. If you are new to Trinity, please introduce yourself to a member of the clergy.

About this Service

Ascensiontide

Ascension Day, observed yesterday, is one of the seven Principal Feasts of the Episcopal Church. Celebrated on the 40th day after Easter (and therefore always on a Thursday), it commemorates the day when Jesus ascended into heaven in the sight of his disciples. Each time we say the Nicene Creed (BCP p. 358) or the Apostles' Creed (BCP p. 96), Christians affirm our belief that Jesus both rose from the dead and is now exalted in glory.

The appointed scriptures and prayers during the final ten days of the Easter Season, from Ascension Day through the Day of Pentecost, liturgically echo the themes of this celebration. While not an official season in the Church calendar, Ascensiontide offers a glimpse of the transition between the ministry of Jesus' apostles in his presence to their sending out, full of the Holy Spirit, to proclaim the Good News.

The Collect of the Day

BCP p. 226

Celebrant God be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Let us pray.

Almighty God, whose blessed Son our Savior Jesus Christ ascended far above all heavens that he might fill all things: Mercifully give us faith to perceive that, according to his promise, he abides with his Church on earth, even to the end of the ages; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, in glory everlasting.

All Amen.

Please be seated.

The Word of God

The First Reading

Acts 18:1–8

Reader A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

Paul left Athens and went to Corinth. There he found a Jew named Aquila, a native of Pontus, who had recently come from Italy with his wife Priscilla, because Claudius had ordered all Jews to leave Rome. Paul went to see them, and, because he was of the same trade, he stayed with them, and they worked together—by trade they were tentmakers. Every sabbath he would argue in the synagogue and would try to convince Jews and Greeks.

When Silas and Timothy arrived from Macedonia, Paul was occupied with proclaiming the word, testifying to the Jews that the Messiah was Jesus. When they opposed and reviled him, in protest he shook the dust from his clothes and said to them, “Your blood be on your own heads! I am innocent. From now on I will go to the Gentiles.” Then he left the synagogue and went to the house of a man named Titius Justus, a worshiper of God; his house was next door to the synagogue. Crispus, the official of the synagogue, became a believer in the Lord, together with all his household; and many of the Corinthians who heard Paul became believers and were baptized.

People Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.
Thanks be to God.

The Psalm

Psalm 98:1–4

BCP p. 727

Leader Sing to the LORD a new song, *
for he has done marvelous things.

People With his right hand and his holy arm * has he won for himself the victory.

Leader The LORD has made known his victory; *
righteousness has he openly shown in the sight of the nations.

People He remembers his mercy and faithfulness to the house of Israel, * and all the ends of the earth have seen the victory of our God.

Sequence

Please stand.

A musician offers a brief improvisation.

The Holy Gospel

John 16:20–23a

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Deacon Jesus said, “Very truly, I tell you, you will weep and mourn, but the world will rejoice; you will have pain, but your pain will turn into joy. When a woman is in labor, she has pain, because her hour has come. But when her child is born, she no longer remembers the anguish because of the joy of having brought a human being into the world. So you have pain now; but I will see you again, and your hearts will rejoice, and no one will take your joy from you. On that day you will ask nothing of me.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon

The Rt. Rev. Jennifer Baskerville-Burrows
Bishop of Indianapolis

The Nicene Creed

BCP p. 358*

Please stand.

Celebrant Let us stand and profess our faith in the words of the Nicene Creed.

All We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

CW:TS p. 476*/TCWS

Leader Almighty God, our heavenly Creator; you have exalted Jesus Christ to your right hand and made him head over all things for his body, the Church: hear us as we pray for your people throughout the world, remembering especially Michael our Presiding Bishop; Matthew, Allen, and Mary our diocesan bishops; and Justin the Archbishop of Canterbury.

Lord, in your mercy

People Hear our prayer.

Leader God Eternal, the Ancient of Days; you have given Jesus all authority in heaven and on earth: hear us as we pray for those who govern, especially Joseph our president, Kathleen our governor, and Eric our mayor.

Lord, in your mercy

People Hear our prayer.

Leader God our Shepherd; your Son has promised to be with us always, to the end of the age: hear us as we pray for this congregation. Grant that we may be so changed by the presence of Jesus that those we encounter might be inspired to seek him.

Lord, in your mercy

People Hear our prayer.

Leader O God our Redeemer, whose Christ ever lives to make intercession for us: hear us as we pray for those in any need or trouble.

Lord, in your mercy

People Hear our prayer.

Leader Heavenly Father, your Son has borne our humanity into the heavenly realms: hear us as we remember those whose earthly sojourns are over, and whose lives are now hidden with you.

The people may add their own petitions or remembrances.

Lord, in your mercy

People Hear our prayer.

Celebrant O God, the architect of Creation: we ask that you would continue to direct and strengthen the mission of the Church. May the hearts and hands of your people be tools by which the Holy Spirit forges unity and love, always to your glory and the welfare of your people; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who lives and reigns for ever and ever.

All Amen.

The Peace

BCP p. 360

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.
People And also with you.

The People greet one another in the name of the Lord.

Welcome

Please be seated.

The Offertory

“For all things come from you, and of your own have we given you.” —1 Chronicles 29:14

Offerings at Trinity are applied to the care of our neighbors; particularly to our food assistance ministries Compassion Meals and Compassion Market, and in support of other food banks across lower Manhattan. Last year we were able to provide more than 2.4 million meals for our food insecure neighbors. (trinitywallstreet.org/social-justice/food-assistance)

Please place your gift in the basket at the rear of the nave before or after the service, or visit trinitywallstreet.org/donate for additional ways to give. Gifts received are blessed immediately after the service with this prayer: Generous God, at your table we present this money, symbol of the work you have given us to do; use it, use us, in the service of your world to the glory of your name. Amen.

Offertory Anthem

Coelos ascendit hodie

Charles Villiers Stanford (1852–1924)

Coelos ascendit hodie
Jesus Christus Rex gloriae.
Sedet ad Patris dexteram,
Gubernat coelum et terram.

*Jesus Christ, the King of Glory, has ascended today into the heavens.
He sits at the right hand of the Father and rules heaven and earth.*

Jam finem habent omnia
Patris Davidis carmina.
Jam Dominus cum Domino
Sedet in Dei solio.

*Now all the psalms of David,
our father, are fulfilled.
Now the Lord sits with the Lord
on the seat of God.*

In hoc triumpho maximo Benedicamus Domino.
Laudatur Sancta Trinitas.
Deo dicamus gratias.

*In this greatest of triumphs
let us bless the Lord.
The Holy Trinity be glorified.
Let us give thanks to God.*

Alleluia. Amen.

Alleluia. Amen.

—12th-century Ascension hymn

Censing of the Gifts

Please stand.

Let my prayer be set forth in thy sight as incense.

—Psalm 141:2

The Great Thanksgiving

BCP p. 361/p. 379

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, through your dearly beloved Son Jesus Christ our Lord. After his glorious resurrection he openly appeared to his disciples, and in their sight ascended into heaven, to prepare a place for us; that where he is, there we might also be, and reign with him in glory.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus and Benedictus

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord,
God of pow-er and might, heav'n and earth are full of your glo - ry.
Ho - san - na in the high - est. Bless - ed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord, of the Lord.
Ho - san - na, ho - san - na in the high - est.

Music: Trinity Missa Brevis, Jonathan Woody (b. 1983)

Please continue standing or kneel.

Celebrant Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

All Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

Celebrant

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

All

AMEN.

The Lord's Prayer

BCP p. 364

Celebrant

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

All

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

The Fraction and Invitation

BCP p. 364/St. Augustine (1 Corinthians)

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread. Silence is kept.

Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God.
Behold what you are.

People May we become what we receive.

Please be seated.

Clergy will distribute communion from stations in front of the altar. If you need communion brought to you, please let an usher or sacristan know.

It is our custom to receive the bread in the upturned palms of our hands, and eat it immediately. Gluten-free wafers are available; please let the minister know that you need one.

Those who wish to receive wine should partake by sipping directly from the chalice (intincting, or dipping one's wafer into the wine, is no longer permitted). Please use your hands to gently assist the server in guiding the chalice to your lips.

If you do not wish to receive communion you are invited to come forward to receive a blessing, indicating your desire by crossing your arms over your chest.

Communion Anthem

Rise Up, My Love, My Fair One

Healey Willan (1880–1968)

Rise up, my love, my fair one, and come away;
for lo, the winter is past, the rain is over and gone;
the flowers appear upon the earth;
the time of the singing of birds is come;
arise, my love, my fair one, and come away.

—Song of Solomon 2:10–13

Post-Communion Prayer

BCP p. 366

Please stand.

All Almighty and everliving God,
we thank you for feeding us with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ; and for assuring us in these holy mysteries that we are living members of the Body of your Son, and heirs of your eternal kingdom.
And now, Father, send us out to do the work you have given us to do, to love and serve you
as faithful witnesses of Christ our Lord.
To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit,
be honor and glory, now and for ever. Amen.

The Blessing

BOS p. 15

Celebrant May the risen Christ who has passed into the heavens clothe you with power from on high; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you and remain with you always.

All Amen.

Please turn to face the procession as it passes.

Join Trinity Church Wall Street for a virtual Town Hall session to learn more about the Downtown Fund and hear from current gift recipients about how the Fund's support helped them create impact in their communities. Questions? Contact Alan De La Cruz at ADeLaCruz@trinitywallstreet.org.

Wade in the Water: Celebrating Blackness

June 11–13, Trinity Retreat Center

This retreat offers an opportunity for lay and ordained people from across the African diaspora to come together for prayer, rest, walks, and sharing stories. It's a time of healing and reflection, enjoying nature, gathering for farm-to-table meals, and participating in the retreat center's rhythm of daily prayer. Come away and rest; leave energized to love and serve, reconnected to who you are and to whose you are. Learn more at trinityretreatcenter.org.

Ethiopian Art and Spirit: Bridging Centuries and Cultures

June 14–16, Trinity Retreat Center

Guardian angels have long been used by the Christian faithful in Ethiopia and other religious traditions. The sacred work of liturgical artist Laura James employs the ancient Ethiopian Christian way of icon-making and expands on the collection of stories traditionally painted in this style. James is pleased to help Black people see themselves in their sacred texts, a place from which racialized people have curiously been excluded in the West. Participants will be guided to paint their own guardian angels. Learn more at trinityretreatcenter.org.

Jesus, Buddha, and the Shared Ground of Contemplation

June 18–20, Trinity Retreat Center

World religions scholar Huston Smith says that Jesus and the Buddha were the only two individuals in history who caused people to ask "What are you?" rather than "Who are you?" On this retreat, we will examine how the religions that have emerged from the teachings of these two spiritual giants can mutually enrich one another. With both conceptual learning and contemplative practice, this retreat will explore how interfaith dialogue moves beyond an exchange of ideas to practice and compassionate action. Learn more at trinityretreatcenter.org.

Eco-Spirituality: Liberating Creation

June 28–30, Trinity Retreat Center

In Genesis, God calls creation "good" six times before humans are even created. In a season when that good creation is damaged and crying out, with the poor and oppressed often suffering most, we gather for a retreat exploring the ecological crisis through the lens of scripture and theology. From the retreat center's farm, forest, and riverbanks, we'll draw from the Book of Common Prayer's Baptismal Covenant to ponder how we can extend our Creator's liberating, redemptive activity to the natural world. Learn more at trinityretreatcenter.org.

Create. Contemplate.

Write from the Heart.

June 28–30, Trinity Retreat Center

Life is like a river, often flowing strong and constant and at times hindered by obstacles, churned by storms, and diminished by drought. As we move through life, we gather experiences and create stories that need telling. How do we communicate those stories with honesty, courage, imagination, and a willingness to be surprised by grace? Come for personal writing time and leave with a deeper understanding of your life. Pastoral Care

In case of illness, a death in the family, or other pastoral emergencies, call 917.488.0717 to reach a member of the Pastoral Care team. For other pastoral needs, call 212.602.0800 and leave a detailed message. Someone will reach out as soon as possible.

Go Green!

Consider becoming a flexitarian. “A flexitarian will eat a varied diet, but there is an increased focus on consuming vegetables, whole grains, and fruits. Think of it as pro-plant, not anti-meat. There are no forbidden foods.” (Source: Silversneakers.com)

Congregational Voice

“I praise you, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made. Wonderful are your works; my soul knows it very well” (Psalms 139:14 ESV). We live in a world permeated by social media. There’s the constant temptation to compare ourselves with others—wanting what others have, wearing what they wear, and doing what they do. But a life based on the opinions and lifestyles of others isn’t God’s best for you. Doing this will only deplete you. Today, let Jesus speak to the truth of who you are and who He created you to be. —Sheila Huggins
