

THE DAY OF PENTECOST

May 19, 2024, 11:15am

Welcome to Trinity Church

Welcome to Trinity Church Wall Street, a vibrant and growing Episcopal parish of more than 1,500 members. Over the past 325 years, the fabric of Trinity has been woven by the Spirit from the lives and gifts of diverse people; their desire to live their faith through worship, service, study, and stewardship; and the ever-evolving life of New York City itself.

Our parish is guided by its mission to share God's love for all people. Together, we seek to build relationships with one another and with our neighbors, to cultivate compassion, to deepen our knowledge and spiritual practices, to work for justice rooted in essential human dignity, and to live as conscientious contributors to the life of our city and the Anglican Communion worldwide. As we grow together in service and love, we know ourselves, first and foremost, as followers of Jesus.

We are delighted to welcome you today; thank you for the gift of your participation and prayers. If you are new to Trinity, please introduce yourself to a member of the clergy. All are warmly invited to join us for Coffee Hour at Parish Hall—behind the church and over the bridge.

About this Service

Pentecost

Pentecost, celebrated fifty days after Easter Sunday, is one of the principal feasts of The Episcopal Church, and is commonly regarded as the birthday of the broader Christian Church. On this day, as described in the reading from Acts appointed for the Day of Pentecost, Jesus sent the Holy Spirit—the third person of the Trinity—to his disciples, as he had foretold in his teaching. As is common with many feast days pertaining to Jesus' apostles, it is customary to wear red vestments to symbolize the “tongues, as of fire” that inspired them to preach the Gospel in other languages.

Pentecost is also one of the four holy days (along with the Easter Vigil, The Baptism of Our Lord, and All Saints' Day) especially suitable for Holy Baptism, as well as for confirmation, reception, and reaffirmation: sacramental rites which can only be performed by a bishop. Today we welcome the Rt. Rev. Mary D. Glasspool, Assistant Bishop of New York, to preach and preside as these new and renewing Christians join Trinity Church.

Preparation

Prelude

Dum complerentur dies Pentecostes

Stephanie Martin (b. 1962)

Dum complerentur dies Pentecostes, erant omnes in eodem;
et factus est repente de caelo sonus, tan quam spiritus vehementis, et replevit totam domum ubi erant sedentes.

Et apparuerunt illis dispertitae linguae ignis, seditque super singulos eorum:
et repleti sunt omnes Spiritu Sancto. Alleluia.

*When the days of the Pentecost were accomplished, they were all together in one place:
and suddenly there came a sound from heaven, as of a mighty wind coming,
and it filled the whole house where they were sitting.*

*And there appeared to them parted tongues as it were of fire, and it sat upon every one of them:
and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit. Alleluia.*

—Acts 2:1–4

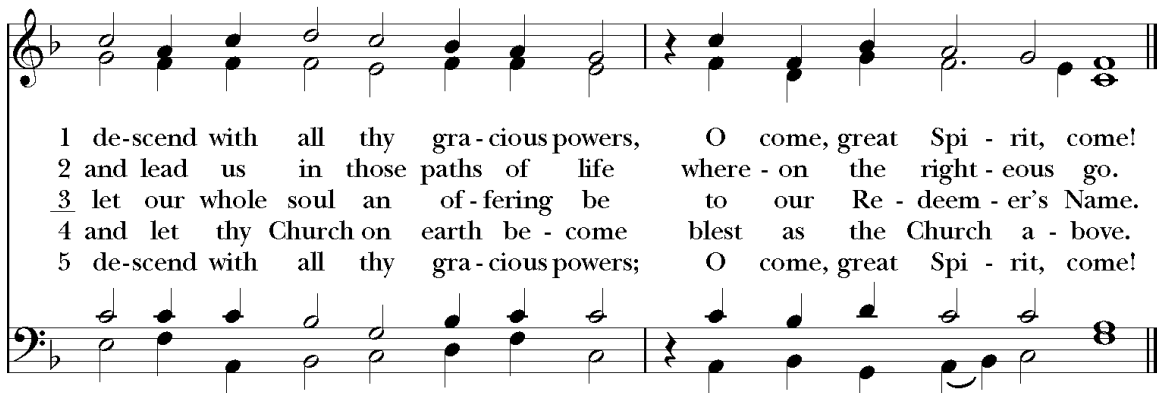

At the sound of the bell, please stand and turn to face the procession.

The Word of God

The First Reading

Read in several languages.

Reader A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

Acts 2:1–4

When the day of Pentecost had come, the apostles were all together in one place. And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability.

Acts 2:5–8

Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem. And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each. Amazed and astonished, they asked, “Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language?”

Acts 2:9–12

“Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabs—in our own languages we hear them speaking about God’s deeds of power.” All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, “What does this mean?”

Acts 2:13–16

But others sneered and said, “They are filled with new wine.” But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them, “Men of Judea and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say. Indeed, these are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only nine o’clock in the morning. No, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel:

Acts 2:17–21

“‘In the last days it will be, God declares, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh, and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams. Even upon my slaves, both men and women, in those days I will pour out my Spirit; and they shall prophesy. And I will show portents in the heaven above and signs on the earth below, blood, and fire, and smoky mist. The sun shall be turned to darkness and the moon to blood, before the coming of the Lord’s great and glorious day. Then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.’”

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

People

Thanks be to God.

The Psalm

Psalm 104:25–35, 37

BCP p. 736

Leader O LORD, how manifold are your works! *
in wisdom you have made them all;
the earth is full of your creatures.

People Yonder is the great and wide sea with its living things too many to number, * creatures both small and great.

Leader There move the ships,
and there is that Leviathan, *
which you have made for the sport of it.

People All of them look to you * to give them their food in due season.

Leader You give it to them; they gather it; *
you open your hand, and they are filled with good things.

People You hide your face, and they are terrified; *
you take away their breath,
and they die and return to their dust.

Leader You send forth your Spirit, and they are created; *
and so you renew the face of the earth.

People May the glory of the LORD endure for ever; *
may the LORD rejoice in all his works.

Leader He looks at the earth and it trembles; *
he touches the mountains and they smoke.

People I will sing to the LORD as long as I live; *
I will praise my God while I have my being.

Leader May these words of mine please him; *
I will rejoice in the LORD.

People Bless the LORD, O my soul. *
Hallelujah!

The Holy Gospel

John 15:26–27, 16:4b–15

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Deacon Jesus said to his disciples, “When the Advocate comes, whom I will send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth who comes from the Father, he will testify on my behalf. You also are to testify because you have been with me from the beginning.

“I did not say these things to you from the beginning, because I was with you. But now I am going to him who sent me; yet none of you asks me, ‘Where are you going?’ But because I have said these things to you, sorrow has filled your hearts. Nevertheless I tell you the truth: it is to your advantage that I go away, for if I do not go away, the Advocate will not come to you; but if I go, I will send him to you. And when he comes, he will prove the world wrong about sin and righteousness and judgment: about sin, because they do not believe in me; about righteousness, because I am going to the Father and you will see me no longer; about judgment, because the ruler of this world has been condemned.

“I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth; for he will not speak on his own, but will speak whatever he hears, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. He will glorify me, because he will take what is mine and declare it to you. All that the Father has is mine. For this reason I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

BCP p. 306

Please be seated.

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant We thank you, Almighty God, for the gift of water. Over it the Holy Spirit moved in the beginning of creation. Through it you led the children of Israel out of their bondage in Egypt into the land of promise. In it your Son Jesus received the baptism of John and was anointed by the Holy Spirit as the Messiah, the Christ, to lead us, through his death and resurrection, from the bondage of sin into everlasting life.

We thank you, Father, for the water of Baptism. In it we are buried with Christ in his death. By it we share in his resurrection. Through it we are reborn by the Holy Spirit. Therefore in joyful obedience to your Son, we bring into his fellowship those who come to him in faith, baptizing them in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

At the following words, the Celebrant touches the water.

Now sanctify this water, we pray you, by the power of your Holy Spirit, that those who here are cleansed from sin and born again may continue for ever in the risen life of Jesus Christ our Savior.

To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit, be all honor and glory, now and for ever.

All Amen.

All Amen.

Then the Celebrant places a hand on the person's head, marking on the forehead the sign of the cross using Chrism.

Celebrant N., you are sealed by the Holy Spirit in Baptism and marked as Christ's own for ever.

All Amen.

Offertory Anthem

Ev’ry Time I Feel the Spirit

Spiritual, arr. Moses Hogan (1957–2003)

REFRAIN:

Ev’ry time I feel the Spirit
moving in my heart, I will pray.

Yes, ev’ry time I feel the Spirit
moving in my heart, I will pray.

On the mountain my Lord spoke,
out his mouth came fire and smoke.
Down in the valley, on my knees,
I asked my Lord, “Have mercy, please.”

Jordan River, chilly and cold, chills the body, not the soul.
All around me looked so fine,
I asked my Lord if all was mine.

Ain’t but one train on this track,
runs to Heaven and right back.
St. Peter waitin’ at the gate said, “Come on sinner, don’t be late.”

The Great Thanksgiving

BCP p. 361/p. 380

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, through Jesus Christ our Lord. In fulfillment of his true promise, the Holy Spirit came down on this day from heaven, lighting upon the disciples, to teach them and to lead them into all truth; uniting peoples of many tongues in the confession of one faith, and giving to your Church the power to serve you as a royal priesthood, and to preach the Gospel to all nations.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus and Benedictus

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord,
God of pow-er and might, heav'n and earth are full of your glo - ry.
Ho - san - na in the high - est. Bless - ed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord, of the Lord.
Ho - san - na, ho - san - na in the high - est.

Music: Trinity Missa Brevis, Jonathan Woody (b. 1983)

Please continue standing or kneel.

Celebrant

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

All

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

Celebrant

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

All

AMEN.

The Lord's Prayer

Celebrant And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,
All Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

Parables, Spirituals, and Our Own Stories Retreat

May 31–June 2, Trinity Retreat Center

Bring your own sacred stories and consider them in light of God's desire for our flourishing. Learn more at trinityretreatcenter.org.

Thomas Merton and the

Transformative Power of Love Retreat

May 31–June 2, Trinity Retreat Center

Thomas Merton lived as a contemplative monk, studying, writing, and praying. He could be impatient, rambunctious, charming, and deceptive, and could experience both pain and love. In other words, he was completely human. It was in the vulnerability of that messy humanity where he most felt the grace of God. How do we make that same connection and sense God's love for us? How do earthly and spiritual love fit together? We will consider these questions through reading, journaling, and exploring images of ourselves in which we look and feel beloved, using Merton's work as a lens of grace through which we access love for ourselves, for others, and the world. Learn more at trinityretreatcenter.org.

Congregational Voice

“He gives strength to the weary and increases the power of the weak” (Isaiah 40:29 NIV). This is my verse this year. Before my mother passed in 2000, I would visit with her and enjoy her presence as she was nearing her end. She was very fragile and weak. What gave me the strength to take that journey with her was the CeCe Winans song “His Strength is Perfect.” —Melvin Corbett
