

THE THIRD SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

June 9, 2024, 11:15am

God saw
EVERYTHING that God had made,
and indeed,
it was VERY GOOD.

— Genesis 1:31

Welcome to Trinity Church

Welcome to Trinity Church Wall Street, a vibrant and growing Episcopal parish of more than 1,500 members. Over the past 325 years, the fabric of Trinity has been woven by the Spirit from the lives and gifts of diverse people; their desire to live their faith through worship, service, study, and stewardship; and the ever-evolving life of New York City itself.

Our parish is guided by its mission to share God's love for all people. Together, we seek to build relationships with one another and with our neighbors, to cultivate compassion, to deepen our knowledge and spiritual practices, to work for justice rooted in essential human dignity, and to live as conscientious contributors to the life of our city and the Anglican Communion worldwide. As we grow together in service and love, we know ourselves, first and foremost, as followers of Jesus.

We are delighted to welcome you today; thank you for the gift of your participation and prayers. If you are new to Trinity, please introduce yourself to a member of the clergy. All are warmly invited to join us for Coffee Hour at Parish Hall—behind the church and over the bridge.

About this Service

The Season after Pentecost

Our current liturgical season, the Season after Pentecost, is by far the longest of the Episcopal church year. It begins the day after Pentecost and ends the day before the First Sunday of Advent. Since the date of Easter changes every year—and the Day of Pentecost is always 50 days after Easter—the length of the season varies as well, ranging from 24–29 weeks in length. This season is sometimes called Ordinary Time, a phrase borrowed from the Roman Catholic Church.

The Collect of the Day

BCP p. 229

Celebrant God be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Let us pray.

O God, from whom all good proceeds: Grant that by your inspiration we may think those things that are right, and by your merciful guiding may do them; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

All Amen.

Please be seated.

The Word of God

The First Reading

1 Samuel 8:4–11, 16–20

Reader A Reading from the First Book of Samuel.

All the elders of Israel gathered together and came to Samuel at Ramah, and said to him, “You are old and your sons do not follow in your ways; appoint for us, then, a king to govern us, like other nations.” But the thing displeased Samuel when they said, “Give us a king to govern us.” Samuel prayed to the LORD, and the LORD said to Samuel, “Listen to the voice of the people in all that they say to you; for they have not rejected you, but they have rejected me from being king over them. Just as they have done to me, from the day I brought them up out of Egypt to this day, forsaking me and serving other gods, so also they are doing to you. Now then, listen to their voice; only—you shall solemnly warn them, and show them the ways of the king who shall reign over them.”

So Samuel reported all the words of the LORD to the people who were asking him for a king. He said, “These will be the ways of the king who will reign over you: he will take your sons and appoint them to his chariots and to be his horsemen, and to run before his chariots. He will take your male and female slaves, and the best of your cattle and donkeys, and put them to his work. He will take one-tenth of your flocks, and you shall be his slaves. And in that day you will cry out because of your king, whom you have chosen for yourselves; but the LORD will not answer you in that day.”

But the people refused to listen to the voice of Samuel; they said, “No! but we are determined to have a king over us, so that we also may be like other nations, and that our king may govern us and go out before us and fight our battles.”

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

People Thanks be to God.

The Psalm

Psalm 138

BCP p. 793

- Leader* I will give thanks to you, O LORD, with my whole heart; *
before the gods I will sing your praise.
- People* I will bow down toward your holy temple and praise your Name, ***
because of your love and faithfulness;
- Leader* For you have glorified your Name * and your word above all things.
- People* When I called, you answered me; ***
you increased my strength within me.
- Leader* All the kings of the earth will praise you, O LORD, *
when they have heard the words of your mouth.
- People* They will sing of the ways of the LORD, ***
that great is the glory of the LORD.
- Leader* Though the LORD be high, he cares for the lowly; *
he perceives the haughty from afar.
- People* Though I walk in the midst of trouble, you keep me safe; ***
you stretch forth your hand against the fury of my enemies;
your right hand shall save me.
- Leader* The LORD will make good his purpose for me; *
O LORD, your love endures for ever;
do not abandon the works of your hands.

The Second Reading

2 Corinthians 4:13—5:1

Reader A Reading from the Second Letter of Paul to the Corinthians.

Just as we have the same spirit of faith that is in accordance with scripture—"I believed, and so I spoke"—we also believe, and so we speak, because we know that the one who raised the Lord Jesus will raise us also with Jesus, and will bring us with you into his presence. Yes, everything is for your sake, so that grace, as it extends to more and more people, may increase thanksgiving, to the glory of God.

So we do not lose heart. Even though our outer nature is wasting away, our inner nature is being renewed day by day. For this slight momentary affliction is preparing us for an eternal weight of glory beyond all measure, because we look not at what can be seen but at what cannot be seen; for what can be seen is temporary, but what cannot be seen is eternal.

For we know that if the earthly tent we live in is destroyed, we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People Thanks be to God.

Gradual

Please stand and turn to face the Gospel as it passes.

The Holy Gospel

Mark 3:20–35

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Deacon The crowd came together again, so that Jesus and his disciples could not even eat. When his family heard it, they went out to restrain him, for people were saying, “He has gone out of his mind.” And the scribes who came down from Jerusalem said, “He has Beelzebul, and by the ruler of the demons he casts out demons.” And he called them to him, and spoke to them in parables, “How can Satan cast out Satan? If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand. And if a house is divided against itself, that house will not be able to stand. And if Satan has risen up against himself and is divided, he cannot stand, but his end has come. But no one can enter a strong man’s house and plunder his property without first tying up the strong man; then indeed the house can be plundered.

“Truly I tell you, people will be forgiven for their sins and whatever blasphemies they utter; but whoever blasphemes against the Holy Spirit can never have forgiveness, but is guilty of an eternal sin”—for they had said, “He has an unclean spirit.”

Then his mother and his brothers came; and standing outside, they sent to him and called him. A crowd was sitting around him; and they said to him, “Your mother and your brothers and sisters are outside, asking for you.” And he replied, “Who are my mother and my brothers?” And looking at those who sat around him, he said, “Here are my mother and my brothers! Whoever does the will of God is my brother and sister and mother.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon

The Rev. Elizabeth E. Blunt
Priest and Director for Congregational Life and Liturgy

The Nicene Creed

BCP p. 358*

Please stand.

Celebrant Let us stand and profess our faith in the words of the Nicene Creed.

All We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

The Offertory

“For all things come from you, and of your own have we given you.” —1 Chronicles 29:14

Offerings at Trinity are applied to the care of our neighbors; particularly to our food assistance ministries Compassion Meals and Compassion Market, and in support of other food banks across lower Manhattan. Last year we were able to provide more than 2.4 million meals for our food insecure neighbors. (trinitywallstreet.org/social-justice/food-assistance)

Please place your gift in the basket at the rear of the nave before or after the service, or visit trinitywallstreet.org/donate for additional ways to give. Gifts received are blessed immediately after the service with this prayer: Generous God, at your table we present this money, symbol of the work you have given us to do; use it, use us, in the service of your world to the glory of your name. Amen.

Offertory Anthem

O Thou the Central Orb

Charles Wood (1866–1926)

O thou the central orb of righteous love,
Pure beam of the most High, eternal Light
Of this our wintry world, thy radiance bright
Awakes new joy in faith, hope soars above.

Come, quickly come, and let thy glory shine,
Gilding our darksome heaven with rays divine;
Thy saints with holy lustre round thee move,
As stars about thy throne, set in the height
Of God’s ordaining counsel, as thy sight
Gives measured grace to each, thy power to prove.

Let thy bright beams disperse the gloom of sin,
Our nature all shall feel eternal day,
In fellowship with thee, transforming day
To souls erewhile unclean, now pure within. Amen.

—Henry Ramsden Bramley (1833–1917)

Censing of the Gifts

Please stand.

Let my prayer be set forth in thy sight as incense.

Celebrant People
The Lord be with you. And al - so with you.

Celebrant People
Lift up your hearts. We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant
Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People
It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth; for by water and the Holy Spirit you have made us a new people in Jesus Christ our Lord, to show forth your glory in all the world.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus and Benedictus

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord,
God of pow-er and might, heav'n and earth are full of your glo - ry.
Ho - san - na in the high - est. Bless - ed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord, of the Lord.
Ho - san - na, ho - san - na in the high - est.

Music: Trinity Missa Brevis, Jonathan Woody (b. 1983)

Please continue standing or kneel.

Celebrant

Glory and honor and praise to you, holy and living God. To deliver us from the power of sin and death and to reveal the riches of your grace, you looked with favor upon Mary, your willing servant, that she might conceive and bear a son, Jesus the holy child of God.

Living among us, Jesus loved us. He broke bread with outcasts and sinners, healed the sick, and proclaimed good news to the poor.

On the night before he died for us, Jesus was at table with his friends. He took bread, gave thanks to you, broke it, and gave it to them, and said: "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine. Again, he gave thanks to you, gave it to them, and said: "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Now gathered at your table, O God of all creation, and remembering Christ, crucified and risen, who was and is and is to come, we offer to you our gifts of bread and wine, and ourselves, a living sacrifice.

Pour out your Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Body and Blood of Christ. Breathe your Spirit over the whole earth and make us your new creation, the Body of Christ given for the world you have made.

In the fullness of time bring us, with all your saints, from every tribe and language and people and nation, to feast at the banquet prepared from the foundation of the world.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

The Lord's Prayer

BCP p. 364

Celebrant As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,
All Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your Name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial,
and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours,
now and for ever. Amen.

The Fraction and Invitation

BCP p. 364/St. Augustine (1 Corinthians)

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread. Silence is kept.

Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God.
Behold what you are.
People May we become what we receive.

Please be seated.

Clergy will distribute communion from stations in front of the altar. If you need communion brought to you, please let an usher or sacristan know.

It is our custom to receive the bread in the upturned palms of our hands, and eat it immediately. Gluten-free wafers are available; please let the minister know that you need one.

Those who wish to receive wine should partake by sipping directly from the chalice (intincting, or dipping one's wafer into the wine, is no longer permitted). Please use your hands to gently assist the server in guiding the chalice to your lips.

If you do not wish to receive communion you are invited to come forward to receive a blessing, indicating your desire by crossing your arms over your chest.

Communion Anthem

Out of the Depths

Debra Scroggins (20th c.–21st c.)

Out of the depths have I cried unto you, O Lord; O Lord, hear my voice.
Let your ears be attentive to my cry for mercy.
I wait for the Lord, my soul waits, and in his word do I hope.
My soul waits for the Lord more than those that watch for the morning.
I wait.

—Psalm 130:1–2, 5–6

Every person wants to feel loved, understood, and appreciated. This six-week series for couples will focus on developing tools and techniques to increase connection, resolve conflict, and support healthy companionship. Sessions will be led by Trinity clergy and trained facilitators from the Psychotherapy and Spirituality Institute (PSI). Registration requested at trinitywallstreet.org/marriedlife. For questions, reach out to PastoralCare@trinitywallstreet.org.

NEXT SUNDAY

Juneteenth Celebration for Children & Families

Sunday, June 16, 10–11am, Trinity Churchyard
Children and their families are invited to celebrate Juneteenth with a picnic, book swap, and interactive read-aloud of A Flag for Juneteenth, a story about the history of the holiday written and illustrated by quilter Kim Taylor. All families will take home a copy of the book. A program of the Children and Families subcommittee and the Trinity Cares Reflection & Action: Racial Justice & Education Group. Learn more at trinitywallstreet.org/CFjuneteenth.

Trinity Young Adults Sunday Brunch

Sunday, June 16, 12:30–3pm, Trinity Commons
Young adults in their 20s and 30s are invited to join the Trinity Young Adults group for brunch following the 11:15am service. If you’d like to join, meet in the back of the church following the service and we’ll walk across the bridge to Trinity Commons. To RSVP and learn about future events, email TrinityChurchYoungAdults@gmail.com.

COMING SOON

Tiny Concerts

Thursday, June 20, 6–6:45pm and 7–7:45pm

Trinity Church

The Tiny Concerts series celebrates Trinity's newly handcrafted pipe organ with 45-minute performances in an intimate 60-seat setting. This week, enjoy work by Neely Bruce, John Cage, Rashaan Allwood, Paula Matthusen, and Pamela Decker. Featuring Alcée Chriss, organ and Melissa Baker, flute. Learn more and register at trinitywallstreet.org/music.

Wings of Heaven: Trinity, Morgan Dix, and the Art of Ecclesiastical Embroidery

Sunday, June 23, 12:30pm, Trinity Commons

Join us at coffee hour to learn about the nearly 200-year relationship between the hand-embroidered angels on Trinity's ecclesiastical textiles and the Community of St. John Baptist. The talk will be led by co-curators Marianna Garthwaite Klaiman, textile historian, and Steven Leavitt of Transfiguration Vestments. Plus, experience the vestments up close during an exhibit at Trinity Commons, June 2–July 2. Learn more at trinitywallstreet.org/wings.

Holding Space for Pride

Wednesday, June 26, 5:30–7:30pm

Trinity Church and Online

LGBTQ+ Community Gathering & Evensong
Spend time in community and celebrate LGBTQ+ life at this guided discussion and light meal, followed by a reflective evensong service in Trinity Church. Open to all; LGBTQ+ community members as well as allies are invited. You can also watch the service streamed live at 6:45pm. Questions? Contact PastoralCare@trinitywallstreet.org; RSVP at trinitywallstreet.org/holdingspace.

Eco-Spirituality:

Liberating Creation Retreat

June 28–30, Trinity Retreat Center

In Genesis, God calls creation "good" six times before humans are even created. In a season when that good creation is damaged and crying out, with the poor and oppressed often suffering most, we gather for a retreat exploring the ecological crisis through the lens of scripture and theology. From the retreat center's farm, forest, and riverbanks, we'll draw from the Book of Common Prayer's Baptismal Covenant to ponder how we can extend our Creator's liberating, redemptive activity to the natural world. Learn more at trinityretreatcenter.org.

Hospitality Trip: Daniel

Saturday, June 29, 8am–9pm

Travel with fellow parishioners to see the play Daniel at Sight & Sound Theatres in Lancaster, PA: "The well-beloved story of Daniel, as he faced a dangerous choice, reveals to us how his trust in God remained steadfast through every test of faith." We'll depart early, have lunch together, see the afternoon show, and be back at Trinity Commons by 9pm. Cost: $85/ticket. Transportation and lunch provided by the Hospitality Committee. Space is limited. Register by June 16 at trinitywallstreet.org/daniel.

Poetry of Faith: Lives of Seeking and Mindfulness Retreat

July 12–14, Trinity Retreat Center

Poetry is sacred writing and can deepen our faith. Inherent in all poetry is the task of seeking, noticing, being mindful, and knowing ourselves. With readings from St. Teresa of Calcutta, St. Teresa of Avila, St. Catherine of Siena, St. Francis of Assisi, St. Augustine of Hippo, and St. John of the Cross, this retreat will explore the life of paying attention, faith, prayer, and journaling. Learn more at trinityretreatcenter.org.

Reggae and Samba: Spirituality and Dance Retreat
July 26–28, Trinity Retreat Center

What does it mean to say that Jesus is Lord of the Dance? How is dance a metaphor for spiritual living? What is the relationship between movement and prayer? This retreat explores those questions and more, considering the spirituality of the popular dance music forms of reggae and samba. Learn more at trinityretreatcenter.org.

BULLETIN BOARD

Children’s Book Swap Donations

Do you have books that your children have outgrown? Donate them to the Summer Reading Children’s Book Swap. A collection bin will be on the Trinity Commons mezzanine through Sunday, June 9. The swap will take place the following Sunday, June 16, at the Juneteenth picnic hosted by the Children & Families subcommittee. We are accepting gently used books for babies through elementary school-aged readers at this time.

Need Help? Call the Resource Line!
Mondays–Fridays, 2–5pm

If you or someone you know needs a helping hand, call 917.594.6300 for our Resource Connections program. Trinity’s Outreach team helps guests access housing, legal aid, mental health services, immigration assistance, SNAP benefits, and other services. Learn more at trinitywallstreet.org/resourcecline.

Be a Trinity Ambassador!

Share your gift of hospitality and love for Trinity with all who cross our threshold. Ambassadors are needed to welcome guests to Trinity Church, St. Paul’s Chapel, and Trinity Commons in two-hour shifts from 10am–4pm on weekdays. Only two shifts every three months are required, and training is provided. Learn more by contacting Maggy Laraque at TrinityAmbassadors@trinitywallstreet.org.

Join Trinity’s Worship Leader Team

New volunteers are always welcome to support our worship during Sunday services. Roles include crucifers, greeters, lectors, subdeacons, thurifers, torchbearers, and ushers. We are currently recruiting volunteers ages 12 and up for the 8am and 11:15am services, and all ages for the 9am service. Adult volunteers are required to complete a background screening and Ministry Safe training. For more information, contact Dane Miller at Sacristans@trinitywallstreet.org.

Go Green!

“You have given him dominion over the works of your hands; you have put all things under his feet, all sheep and oxen, and also the beasts of the field, the birds of the heavens, and the fish of the sea, whatever passes along the paths of the seas” (Psalm 8:6–8 ESV).

A weekly message from Trinity’s Environmental Justice Group offering steps we can all take to slow global warming and offset climate change with inspiration to care for the Earth from the Bible. Learn more and join the Environmental Justice Group at trinitywallstreet.org/environmentaljustice.

Congregational Voice

“Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and lean not on your own understanding; in all your ways acknowledge Him, and He will direct your paths” (Proverbs 3:5–6 MEV). When this verse was sent to me, I was recovering from a corrective jaw surgery. I read this verse especially when I felt uncomfortable being homebound for 6–8 weeks. I couldn’t eat, walk, drive, or exercise. When I finally returned to work, this verse helped me with the new principal. Finally, this verse helped me during my mother’s illness.
