

4. Even though he was angry, Naaman's servants tried to talk to him. "If Elisha asked you to do something hard, you would've, right?" they said. Naaman realized they were right. So he bathed in the Jordan and was healed.

1. Naaman was the commander of the king of Aram's army. He was a mighty warrior and lived with leprosy—a skin disease. A young woman who served his wife had a solution for healing.

2. "If only Naaman were with the prophet in Samaria!" the young woman said. "The prophet would cure him of his leprosy!" Naaman listened to her and took chariots and horses to the prophet Elisha's house.

3. When Naaman arrived, Elisha sent a messenger. He said, "Wash in the Jordan River seven times to be healed." Naaman was furious. Why didn't Elisha come to see him or tell him to go to a better river? Didn't Elisha know how powerful he was?
