

3. Though Martha and Mary trusted Jesus, they were upset and said their brother would not have died if Jesus had been there. Their grief made Jesus sad too, and he cried, even though he knew Lazarus wouldn't stay dead.

4. Jesus went to Lazarus' tomb. He thanked God for this opportunity to show people God had sent him. Then Jesus said, "Lazarus, come out!" And Lazarus came out of the tomb, alive! Many saw this miracle and then believed.

2. The disciples didn't want to go to Judea because it was dangerous, but Jesus told them he had to wake Lazarus up. When they didn't understand, he explained that Lazarus had died, but Jesus would bring him back to life.

1. Jesus learned the brother of Mary and Martha, Lazarus, was sick. But Jesus knew God would make Lazarus well, so he stayed where he was for two more days before going to see his sick friend in Judea.
