Choral Prelude: Anton Bruckner – Locus Iste

Locus iste a Deo factus est inestimabile sacramentum, irreprehensibilis est.

This place was made by God an inestimable mystery;
it is irreproachable.

v. 1, 3

Introduction

The introduction consists of two staves of piano music in the key of D major (two sharps) and 3/4 time. The right hand features a melodic line with eighth and sixteenth notes, while the left hand provides a steady accompaniment of eighth notes.

Descant for flute or violin (last time only)

The descant is presented on two staves. It begins with a double bar line and a repeat sign. The melody is written in a single line, featuring a mix of eighth and sixteenth notes, and concludes with a final cadence.

1 There's a wide-ness in God's mer - cy like the wide-ness
 2 There is no place where earth's sor - rows are more felt than 3 For the love of God is broad - er than the mea - sure

The piano accompaniment for the first three verses is shown on two staves. It continues the rhythmic pattern established in the introduction, with a consistent eighth-note accompaniment in the left hand and a melodic line in the right hand.
